Will Rogers Remarks:

BEVERLY HILLS, May 17.—[To the Editor of The Times:] An ex-Governor and State leader had a fist fight in South Carolina. One called the other a Republican. Had the accused killed him for calling him that it would have been hard to convict him in any court where justice is really dealt out. If there's fist fighting in the primaries what will it be in the election? You stock buyers better be buying Du Pont Powder and Winchester Arms.

Say, Oklahoma just pulled a good stunt to advance airfields and aviation interest. They rounded up all the planes in their State and toured the whole State.

Hoover went fishing in Pennsylvania and caught twenty-eight delegates in New Jersey. Some fishing.

Tactical Battle Discloses Need of Plane Defense for Pearl Harbor

Sea Fight at Dawn Offers Spectacular Sight for City's Residents

BY WALDO DRAKE
"Times" Staff Representative

HONOLULU, May 17. (Exclusive) Superiority in the air today enabled the Pacific battle fleet to defeat decisively a strong combination of army and navy forces defending Oahu in a spectacular problematical attack launched at dawn, the dreadnaught squadron theoretically silencing the hitherto impregnable coast defenses through aircraft observation and fire control.

The battleships in two bombardment groups came within range of the Oahu forts during darkness and an hour before daylight streaked the east eight squadrons of fighting and observation planes were catapulted from the battleships, light cruisers and the aircraft carrier Langley.

SPITE BOMB PLANTED

Blasts Home of Executioner

Man Who Officiated in Sacco and Snyder Cases Has Narrow Escape

Police Regard Dynamiting as Work of Friends or Sympathizers

NEW YORK, May 18. (AP)—The home of Robert Elliott, official executioner for the States of New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania, situated in a lonely section of Long Island was bombed shortly after 1 o'clock this morning. Elliott, his wife and two children were thrown from their beds but uninjured.

Elliott officiated at the execution of Sacco and Vanzetti in Boston and Mrs. Ruth Snyder and Henry Judd Gray at Sing Sing, N. Y.

Police blame the bombing on friends or sympathizers of some person or persons at whose executions Elliott has officiated. Threats were received by him before and after the Sacco-Vanzetti execution and a guard was placed over his home. This guard was removed some time ago, but the policeman on that beat had orders to keep a special watch on Elliott's home.

The house, situated in Queensborough near the Bunton station of the Long Island Railroad, was partly wrecked by the explosion. The porch was torn away, every window in the house broken and windows in several adjoining homes were shattered.

FISH POLICY WINS PRAISE OF HOOVER

Secretary Pleased With New Government Plan of Prolonging Nursing Time

WASHINGTON, May 17. (AP)—A recently installed government policy of nursing baby fish for longer periods in hatcheries before turning them loose in streams was triumphantly asserted as successful by Secretary Hoover today on his return from a fishing trip to Pennsylvania.

The fisheries bureau of the government decided last year that in fish hatcheries trout and other game fish should be reared to a length of three or four inches before their release, with the expectation that such a long period of growth would give them better chance for survival in the open waters.

While fishing near Williamsport, Pa., this week Secretary Hoover inspected the hatchery of the Texas Club, which was one of the first establishments where by co-operation between the government and sportsmen provision was made for the eighteen months' nursing of trout fry. He learned that the first fruit of the new policy had been a marked increase in the fishing results along all of the near-by streams and he demonstrated the efficiency of the system by successfully bagging the legal limit of trout in his own expedition.

Two Drown at School Picnic

TULAROSA (N. M.) May 17. (AP) A grade-school picnic here today ended in tragedy when two girls, one of them the grand-daughter of a former New Mexico Territorial Secretary and acting Governor, were drowned in a reservoir near the picnic ground.

Elizabeth Rich, 12 years of age, and Violene Benson, 12, were drowned when they with three other girls slipped away from the rest of the party to wade in the reservoir. A third girl, Elberta Mathews, was rescued from the water and revived, but it was feared she might die of shock.

Elizabeth was a grand-daughter of former Territorial Secretary and acting Governor Rich.

Gunplay Given Jury Sanction

RENO (Nev.) May 17. (AP)—A jury today placed its approval on the use of a gun by a prospect annoyed by an automobile salesman. A verdict of not guilty was returned by a jury at Elko after it had listened to Stanley Greegan, automobile salesman, tell how N. Davis of Carlin had fired a pistol at him. Davis explained he did it to frighten the salesman away from his store.

Davis was charged with assault with intent to kill.

LENIN LAND PASSED BY

Italia Abandons Exploration

Condition of Terrain Halts Plan of Dirigible to Put Party Ashore

Shortage of Gasoline May Force Nobile to Moor Ship in Norway

KINGS BAY (Spitzbergen) May 17. (AP)—From 7 o'clock Wednesday evening until an hour before midnight the dirigible Italia sailed over Lenin Land (Nicholas II Island) but such was the forbidding view that met the sight of the Italian explorers that plans for putting men ashore were abandoned. The further explanation is made that the most favorable time for exploration had passed with the first half of May and that conditions now are entirely unsuited to the proposed terrestrial explorations.

FUEL SHORTAGE

Shortage of gasoline supply may force the Italia to seek the mooring mast at Vadsoe, in northernmost Norway, instead of continuing on to its base here, according to radio messages from the dirigible which indicated that it is meeting with more than a little difficulty in fighting against a stiff northwest breeze. Taking into account that the ship has been in virtually continuous flight since leaving here shortly before 2 p.m. on Tuesday, members of the base force feel that the Italia can have little fuel remaining.

Throughout the afternoon Gen. Umberto Nobile requested his base ship, the Citta Di Milano, for radio bearings to determine his position. The officers of the mother ship were kept busy poring over charts and sending the information he required.

MAY TRY FOR BASE

The Italia had stopped at Vadsoe en route here and an emergency base has been established there. Unless a change in weather conditions permits a return here without refueling it is regarded as almost certain that the dirigible will be moored at Vadsoe.

At 7 o'clock tonight the Italia reported that she was approximately 800 kilometers (500 miles) southwest of this archipelago. Gen. Nobile said he would attempt to fly around South Cape, the southernmost point of Spitzbergen, and thence follow the west coast to Kings Bay. This, of course, in event the opposing wind does not force him to go to Vadsoe.

If enabled to continue to Kings Bay he hopes to arrive by 1 a.m., Greenwich time.

Bremen Saviors Wait on Weather

ST. GEORGES (N. F.) May 17. (AP)—Weather permitting, the two United States Army planes, held here all day today by rain, will take off at 9 a.m. tomorrow to fly to the assistance of the German monoplane on the Labrador mainland opposite Greenly Island.

The amphibians, in command of Maj.-Gen. Fechet, were scheduled to start on this last 230-mile leg of their journey at dawn this morning, but unfavorable weather prevented the flight.

Cables Cut by Ship's Anchor

OAKLAND, May 17. (AP)—Power and telephone cables were severed when the British steamer Radnorshire accidentally dropped an anchor while passing through the Webster-street bridge today.

Alameda telephone service was disrupted, power operating the bridge was interrupted and the bridge tender was marooned in his cabin. Hundreds of people were forced to make long detours.

The Radnorshire was on her way to Antwerp, Belgium.

Divorce Denial Leaves Former Mrs. Spreckels Uncertain Whether She is Madame or Princess

SAN FRANCISCO, May 17. (Exclusive)—The former Mrs. Sidi Wirt Spreckels found herself in a quandary tonight. Is she still—or again—the Princess Suad Chakkir and hence entitled to walk again into the marble halls of a palace on the Bosporus as the wife of the son of the last Turkish Sultan, or is she just plain Mme. Chakkir, a divorcee?

Her quandary arose from a cablegram received today from Prince Chakkir, whom she married after the death of the late John D. Spreckels, Jr. It said:

"Deny reported divorce."

There is no question as to what it refers. Recent cables carried the information that the prince had divorced her because she refused to return to her Turkish home from San Francisco.

But there is a large question in the mind of the madame, or princess, as to just what it means. She pointed out it might mean that the divorce report was erroneous or that the prince had divorced her and then had the decree annulled.

So, until the honorable prince finds his way clear to a more lucid explanation, Mme. or Princess Spreckels Chakkir said she intends to continue with plans to take her daughter, Geraldine Ann Spreckels, to Paris, where they will live.

The rift in the royal family developed recently because Mrs. Spreckels Chakkir, then the princess, insisted on remaining in San Francisco at the bedside of her ill mother after the prince demanded her return to Constantinople "to avoid divorce."

WRECK PLOTS PERIL TRAINS

Six Crack Espee and Santa Fe Flyers on Way Here Targets for Attempted Outrages

SAN FRANCISCO, May 17. (Exclusive)—Six attempts to wreck Souhern Pacific and Santa Fe passenger trains coming from or going to Los Angeles within the last four months has resulted in a special guard along the rail lines in the bay district, it was learned today. Especial carefulness has been directed in Contra Costa county, in the East Bay section, because three of the attempts were made there, it is said. Special agents of the two railroads and deputy sheriffs of Contra Costa county form the precaution detail.

The efforts were failures and are believed to have been the work of a disgruntled and probably half-crazed former railroad employee. Three suspects have been arrested and a fourth questioned but all have been released.

PLOTS REVEALED

The plots were not revealed until Marian Taylor, 67 years of age, was released from the Contra Costa County Jail after having been detained nearly a month while two secret investigations were conducted.

Three methods have been used by the would-be wrecker. Switches have been opened just prior to the scheduled passing of fast passenger trains; ties have been placed across the rails and fastened, and obstructions have been inserted in frogs at switches sufficient to derail a fast-moving train.

The most spectacular incident in connection with the attempts was revealed as that of February 13, last, when Santa Fe passenger express No. 5, en route to Los Angeles, escaped destruction at Luzon, near Martinez, by the quick-thinking of the engineer.

As the train passed a "clear" signal, a subconscious sense caused the engineer to look back. He saw the signal board swing against him. Jamming on the brakes, he brought his charge to a stop within a few feet of an open switch through which his train would have shot to certain wrecking with the probable loss of several lives.

A Los Angeles-bound Southern Pacific flyer was the target of the wrecker on April 30, last, between Army Point and Goodyear in Contra Costa county. Just prior to the train's arrival at the spot, a tie was found fastened to the rails and removed.

ANOTHER TARGET

On January 30, last, a frog was clogged near Rodeo on the Southern Pacific main line so that an oncoming passenger train would have been thrown clear of the rails and into the ditch.

Another Los Angeles passenger train en route to San Francisco escaped disaster at Tuttle, near Merced, on the San Joaquin Valley division of the Santa Fe, three weeks ago. A tie was discovered across the rails there, carefully braced with heavy angle irons. A freight, passing ahead of the passenger for which it was believed to have been intended, plowed into it first. The freight was heavy enough and traveling slowly enough to push and grind the tie from the rails.

Men have been arrested and questioned in Los Angeles, San Francisco, Martinez and Merced in connection with the investigation, but without visible result.

The sixth incident occurred at Bryan Hill, near Fresno, where switch lights were moved and tampered with. It was believed the wrecker had planned to alter the lights so that a green light would snow on an open switch and deceive the engineer into running his train to a wreck. The mystery of the altered switch lights was never solved, according to Roger Dean, Santa Fe official at Fresno.

ASSOCIATION TO AID BYRD HOP FORMED

Executive Committee of Notable Persons Will Back Antarctic Exploration

NEW YORK, May 17. (AP)—Formation of the "Byrd Aviation Associates for the Byrd Antarctic Expedition" was announced today by the committee arranging the Antarctic exploration expedition of Commander Richard E. Byrd.

The organization is an executive committee composed of thirty-seven men of prominence in many parts of the country, formed to "back with moral and material support" Commander Byrd's undertaking.

It is to be assisted by an advisory committee composed of F. Trubee Davidson, Assistant Secretary of War for Aeronautics; Edward P. Warner; Assistant Secretary of the Navy for Aeronautics; William P. McCracken, Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Aeronautics, and Rear-Admiral William A. Moffett, chief of the Bureau of Aeronautics of the Navy.

Charles Evans Hughes, former Secretary of State, has been named chairman of the executive committee, an dEdsel Ford, treasurer. The executive committee includes Harry Chandler of Los Angeles.

NE WYORK, May 17. (Exclusive) The list price of the Fordor sedan of the new Ford line has been increased to $625, an advance of $55 over the old list, it was learned here today after the advance had been announced in Boston.

The prices of other models remain unchanged.

SEX CHANGE ACHIEVED IN TADPOLES

Female Embryo Frogs Converted Into Males by Ninety-Degree Water

DES MOINES (Iowa) May 17. (Exclusive)—If Sister Tadpole wants to grow up to be a big bullfrog like dad, all she has to do is to find a puddle registering 90 deg. and grow up there.

The good news for Lucy Stoner tadpoles is broadcast on the authority of Dr. Emil Wilschi of the University of Iowa, department of zo-ology. Dr. Wilschi raised two groups of tadpoles to the stage where he could determine that sexual ratios were normal. One group was allowed to grow up in water of normal temperature, the other was placed in 90-deg. water at the age of 5 weeks. The hot water caused the female sex organs to change into male organs.

Dr. Wilschi's findings have been presented to the American Association of Anatomists.

Italian Senate Under Attack

ROME, May 17. (AP)—The forty-six votes cast in the Italian Senate on Saturday against Premier Mussolini's bill reforming the electoral law and making Italy a one-party constituency moved the newspaper Il Tevere to express the opinion today that the Senate should be reformed to make its composition correspond to the changed life of the nation.

In an editorial the newspaper says that new blood should be injected into the upper house and suggests that Signor Turati, secretary of the Fascist party, should be placed in the Senate to make himself heard as the party spokesman.

TOWN RAZED BY STORM

Tornado Centers in Oklahoma

Details of Disaster Scarce With Communication Lines Destroyed

Two Dead, Seven Injured in Gales, With Damage Set at $500,000

GAINESVILLE (Tex.) May 17. (AP)—Every house in Thackerville, Okla., thirteen miles north of here, was reported blown from its underpinning by a tornado which struck that place tonight. The reports were received from Marietta, but because of broken wire connections details are being obtained slowly. Thackerville has about 300 inhabitants.

Two persons were reported severely injured and several others less seriously hurt. Those most seriously injured were a Mr. and Mrs. Gibb.

DALLAS (Tex.) May 17. (AP)—Two men are known to be dead and seven persons injured in Oklahoma and widespread property loss, which it is thought may mount to $500,000 was reported from various portions of the Southwest as a result of storms yesterday and last night.

Some of the storm centers still were cut off from outside communication by destroyed telephone and telegraph lines and motorists who got through flooded highways gave most of the authentic reports of the damage.

The fatalities occurred in the vicinity of Drumright, Okla. J. C. Brinlee, 36 years of age, was killed when a dance hall in the Drumright-Cushing-Oilton field northwest of Drumright collapsed. Carl Roach, 30, of Oilton, Okla., was killed when his automobile skidded from wet pavement and overturned.

HOME DESTROYED

Joe Couch, also of Oilton, was believed to be the most severely injured, physicians fearing his spine was fractured when the dance hall was demolished. Frank Johnson, his wife and their four children, who lived on a farm near the dance hall, were injured when their home was destroyed.

At Wellington, Tex., just across the Oklahoma-Texas line from Altus, Okla., another storm center, six inches of rain fell in about four hours, destroying bridges. Three houses were demolished at Wellington, but none was believed injured, although the telephone company did not expect to re-establish communication with the Texas town until tomorrow.

About 500 feet of track was reported washed out on the Fort Worth and Denver Railway between Hedley and Giles. The community school at Reed, Okla., was unroofed while the students were in the building, but no one was hurt.

BRIDGES GO OUT

Eight spans were reported missing from the St. Louis-San Francisco Railway bridge over the Salt fork of Red River between Altus and Quanah, Tex. The Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railway bridge between Hollis, Okla., and Altus, was washed out, and several spans were missing from the Orient Railway bridge near Lugert Dam. The Orient bridge across the Red River was considered unsafe.

In Northeast Texas and Southwest Arkansas damage to crops, highways, buildings and bridges in a combination wind and hailstorm was estimated from $300,000 to $450,000. Most of the damage here was to crops, although several highway bridges were out. A bridge approach of the Texas and Pacific Railway near Nash, Tex., was replaced, and traffic resumed today.

STOCKS DO RODEO STUNTS

Bucking and Plunging of Prices Leave Traders Gasping for Breath on New York Exchange

NEW YORK, May 17. (AP)—Prices on the New York Stock Exchange bucked and plunged today in a manner that left veteran traders gasping for breath, with speculators for the advance riding roughshod over the bears at the close. The market opened relatively calm after yesterday's sweeping reaction. Prices of many issues dipped 1 to 6⅛ points as nervous traders and investors threw their holdings overboard. There were few large transactions and little evidence of any widespread liquidation.

Initial offerings were readily absorbed and many of the losses were wiped out before the end of the first hour, with fresh buying operations started in some of the pool specialties.

Banks called about $30,000,000 in loans, which sent the call money rate from 5½ to 6 per cent and started a general wave of selling in the early afternoon. Meanwhile time money rates were advanced to the highest levels in five years.

"STOP LOSS" ORDERS

Bear traders succeeded in touching off a number of stop loss orders, which caused violent recessions in some of the high-priced stocks. Selling pressure relaxed, however, when it was discovered that the general public was holding on and had not been frightened into selling. Then the bulls stepped in and started a stampede in about a score of specialties, which was under way when the closing gong sounded.

Two ordinarily disturbing developments came after the close of the market: first, the increase from 4 to 4½ per cent in the New York Federal Reserve rediscount rate, and second, the increase of $140,396,000 in brokers' loans, lifting the Federal Reserve total to a new high record at $4,502,044,000, or more than $1,500,000,000 above the total of a year ago.

In view of the market's recent disregard of outside news developments Wall street was not prepared tonight to forecast what effect this will have on prices tomorrow, although in conservative banking circles the higher rediscount rate is interpreted in part as another official warning against excessive speculation in securities.

DIZZIEST PERFORMERS

Airplane stocks were the dizziest performers. Wright opened $6.50 a share lower at $213, rallied a few dollars, and lost its gain, rallied again to $229, plunged to $212.50 and rebounded to $219, which left

HOUSE SCHEDULED TO VOTE ON REDISTRICTING TODAY

California to Gain Six Seats Under Bill to Keep Present Size, Based on 1930 Census

WASHINGTON, May 17. (Exclusive)—Long-deferred reapportionment legislation giving California and other growing States increased representation in Congress in proportion to their population gains since 1910 was taken up in the House this afternoon with a vote scheduled for tomorrow. The chances of passage in the House are believed good, but it is doubted that Senate action can be obtained before the winter session.

Under the bill as it came from the House Census Committee, the membership of the House will be reapportioned on the basis of the 1930 census, with the present size of 435 retained. California would gain six seats, the most of any State. Michigan with four additional Congressmen would come next, followed by Ohio with an increase of three. New Jersey and Texas would gain two each. Arizona, Connecticut, Florida, North Carolina, Oklahoma and Washington would each gain one. These figures are based on 1930 estimates of population.

California's additional representatives would all go to Los Angeles county and the southern part of the State under a basis of population density, but this would depend upon redistricting legislation at Sacramento.

THOSE DUE TO LOSE

Missouri would lose three members of Congress, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky and Mississippi would lose two each, and losses of one would be sustained by Alabama, Kansas, Louisiana, Maine, Massachusetts, Nebraska, New York, North Dakota, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Vermont and Virginia.

Twenty-three House seats are at stake with seventeen States losing and eleven gaining representation. The bitter opposition from the States which would lose and which have succeeded in blocking all attempts to reapportion since the 1920 census, as required by the Constitution, was immediately in evidence as soon as debate started today. However, it is declared by advocates of the measure that quite a number of Representatives from New York, Pennsylvania and other States who have fought reapportionment heretofore, now are ready to vote for it. The large Pennsylvania delegation, it is said, probably will vote as a unit for reapportionment, despite the fact it would lose one member of the House if the legislation passes.

CITIZENS ROBBED

Representatives Crail of Los Angeles, Evans of Glendale, Free of San Jose and other members of the California delegation are active in the fight for the bill, and plan to participate in the debate. Crail in a speech just before adjournment today rapped personal and selfish considerations which have prevented reapportionment in the last three Congresses and made a fervent plea for adequate representation for Los Angeles county. He told the House that his district, the largest in the country, has 1,300,000 persons and by 1930 will have 1,500,000.

The other Los Angeles county district, represented by Mr. Evans, has almost as many, he declared, and put together they have a larger population than the entire State of Iowa with its eleven members in the House of Representatives. Crail said his district by right should be divided into five districts, and Evans's district into four.

BAD EXAMPLE SET

"We hear," he declared, "a lot about the lawlessness over the nation and the disregard of the people for the Constitution. That situation certainly is not helped by the fact that Congress itself has for eight years entirely ignored and violated the constitutional mandate for reapportionment of its membership. We're the lawmakers and the people expect us, at least, to have respect for the Constitution. Our duty is too important to be influenced longer by personal considerations."

From 1790 up to 1910 reapportionment legislation was enacted in every instance within two years after the taking of the decennial census. The last was in 1911. Failure of Congress to reapportion on the basis of the 1920 census has, according to the Census Committee's report, robbed 13,000,000 American citizens of fair representation. A comparatively large share of these are in Los Angeles and Southern California. More than 30,000,000 persons will be without representation unless Congress reapportions on the 1930 census, the report stated.

Restaurant and Hotel Padlocked

SAN FRANCISCO, May 17. (Exclusive)—Emeryville, east bay community, recently termed by Dist.-Atty. Warren of Alameda county the "worst vice resort on the Pacific Coast," fell under the disciplinary hand of the Federal courts today. Two public houses, a hotel and a restaurant, were ordered padlocked for a year by Judge Kerrigan.

Although there is said to be no connection between today's court order and the recent charges of Dist.-Atty. Warren that Emeryville city officials are in league with bootleggers and proprietors of gambling and vice dens, it was the first legal action publicly since the charges were made.

A Federal investigation of the charges is under way at the direction of U. S. Dist.-Atty. Hatfield.

SUICIDE ASCRIBED TO NEWS OF DEATH

SAN FRANCISCO, May 17. (AP)—The body of Alex A. Dorojensky, 30 years of age, a Fresno painter, was found swinging from a rope in a shed here today. Police believed he had committed suicide through sorrow over the death of his mother in Russia. The authorities were told Dorojensky's father, a colonel in the Russian army, had been killed in the World War, and that Dorojensky's sister committed suicide the day after learning the news. The mother was his last surviving relative and a letter had just told him of her death. He came here last Tuesday.

HAGEN TAKES EXHIBITION

BERLIN, May 17. (AP)—Walter Hagen, American golfer, who last week won the British open golf championship for the third time, defeated Percy Alliss, 6 up and 4 to play, in a thirty-six-hole exhibition match today. Alliss is a British golfer who is a professional at the Gulf-Und-Land Club at Wannsee. It was Hagen's first appearance on a German course.

RIVAL AIR-TRAIN LINE PREDICTED

Bay City Hopes to Get Its Service Going First

Boeing Officials and Espee Confer on Route

Negotiations for Plane-Rail System Still Pending

SAN FRANCISCO, May 17. (Exclusive)—San Francisco's answer to a transcontinental train and plane all daylight service with Los Angeles as its western terminus will be a similar line in operation before the southern route can be established, it was predicted here today.

Boeing Air Transport officials, operating passenger service with the mail contract between Chicago and San Francisco, disclosed they have been in conference with officials of the Southern Pacific Railroad for the last six months with the idea of establishing the same kind of service which is proposed on the southern route.

The disclosure, it was noted, was not made until a row developed here because the Transcontinental Air Transport, Inc., proposed to inaugurate train and plane daylight service between New York and Los Angeles over the old Santa Fe Trail. Co-operation of the Santa Fe is designed to provide night travel aboard trains in the West and the co-operation of the Pennsylvania Railroad is to give similar service east of the Mississippi.

CONSTRUED AS SLIGHT

What was construed in many quarters as a slight to San Francisco in this proposal brought from H. C. Cantelow, vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce and chairman of that body's traffic committee, an announcement that he would call a meeting to discuss plans for an air and rail service from San Francisco direct.

The first result was a conference today between Cantelow and W. G. Herron, vice-president of the Boeing Company, during which Herron, according to a formal statement he issued subsequently, told of the conferences with Southern Pacific executives and added that the Boeing line expects to get into the field before the southern route can be established with a fleet of twelve passenger trimotored planes now being constructed.

Herron's statement, however, revealed also that plans have not been consummated with the Southern Pacific. Referring to what was termed a "preliminary discussion," Herron said it developed "that the exact combination of meeting places for planes and trains is not available under existing train schedules. The eastbound trip can easily be figured out. The westbound trip is dependent to a large extent upon the completion of the lighting of the airway by the Department of Commerce. That work now is being expedited and should be finished this summer."

LIGHTING IMPORTANT

Herron pointed out that lighting arrangements are essential because of the short winter days, when daylight will be less than during the summer. By so doing, he hit upon one o fthe points by which Transcontinental Air Transport hopes to provide San Francisco with the same service it proposes to give Los Angeles, but this matter was not contained in the statement.

It is argued that in the establishment of the T.A.T. line over the Santa Fe trail, the danger of hazardous mountain crossings will be eliminated to a large extent and better flying conditions encountered generally, redounding to the ease and comfort of the passengers. Through connections with San Francisco via the Western Air Express, which will be a part of the T.A.T. system, it was emphasized that San Franciscans can reach Los Angeles in four hours and then continue eastward under the best of flying conditions.

Chicago connections eastbound for the proposed Boeing service are said to be pending. As for the western section hook-up with the Southern Pacific, Herron informed Cantelow that "the negotiations with the Southern Pacific still are pending and as soon as conditions warrant we will go still further into the matter."

COUNTY OFFICER ACQUITTED

MEDFORD (Or.) May 17. (AP)—Newton C. Chaney, District Attorney of Jackson county, was acquitted by a jury here tonight of a charge of misapplication of county prohibition enforcement funds.

COURT DEFINES SPEED LAW

Holds Autoist Liable for Damages While Driving at Prescribed Rate on Wet Pavement

SACRAMENTO, May 17. (Exclusive)—California's speed laws received another judicial blow today when the Third District Court of Appeal handed down an opinion that the legal speed limit for any particular locality may not always be a "careful and prudent" rate.

The opinion was given in the appeal of E. B. Brown, Los Angeles garage owner, from a decision of the Los Angeles County Superior Court awarding George Davis and Nora Davis $11,000 damages against him as the result of a collision in the North Broadway tunnel in Los Angeles.

PAVEMENT WAS WET

Testimony in the case showed that Brown was operating his automobile, in which the two plaintiffs were passengers, at or less than the legal speed limit for that district. But the pavement was wet and when he applied his brakes to avoid crashing into an automobile in front of him, his car skidded and crashed into another machine coming from the opposite direction.

"The Motor Vehicle Act," comments the court, "does not fix any definite amount of miles per hour at which speed a driver may propel an automobile and escape responsibility on the claim that he is not exceeding the speed limit designated. The act provides that any person driving a vehicle shall drive the same at a careful and prudent speed and not greater than is reasonable and proper, having due regard to the traffic, surface and width of the highway.

"In this case the testimony shows that as the automobile entered the tunnel it was proceeding on a down grade which had become wet and slippery by reason of the falling rain, and under such circumstances, the driver was required to drive at a careful and prudent speed

NOT PROPER CARE

"If, under such circumstances, driving at a rate of fifteen miles an hour, the car was likely to skid upon the application of its brakes, such a speed would be unlawful and the jury would have the right to consider that the driver of the car was not exercising reasonable or proper care"

A Fresno court recently ruled that a speed in excess of forty miles an hour, the maximum laid down in the statutes, is not unlawful if all other conditions for safe driving exist.

FOG CAUSES HEAVY LOSS IN SHIPPING

One Great Lakes Vessel Wrecked, Two Damaged and One Sailor Killed

DETOUR (Mich.) May 17. (AP)—One ship was wrecked, three were damaged and one man was killed in a heavy fog in the Lake Huron shipping lane of the Upper Michigan Peninsula district today.

The steamer John Ericsson was wrecked and her cargo of 200,000 bushels of grain virtually was all lost when the ship, a whaleback type, was rammed thirty miles from here by the steamer A. F. Harvey.

The Ericsson's crew of thirty men was taken aboard the steamer John Riess and the barge Alexander Holley, the latter being towed by the Ericsson at the time of the crash, and the wrecked boat was beached here. The A. F. Harvey escaped with a damaged bow.

First reports were that the Ericsson had been sunk, but this was said to have been due to the fact that eight sailors on the ship jumped overboard when the crash came. They were taken aboard the barge Holley.

The Ericsson was bound for Buffalo and the Harvey for Toledo. The Ericsson was in charge of Capt. Thomas B Greenway.

The steamer James Wallace of Pickands Mather Company was grounded at Hay Point in the lower river. The extent of the ship's damage was not learned.

FALL STORY SOUGHT BY SENATORS

Unused Deposition Asked in Continental Trading Company Inquiry

WASHINGTON, May 17.(AP)—The deposition made by Albert B. Fall in advance of the trial and acquittal of Harry F. Sinclair on a criminal-conspiracy charge is to be sought by the Senate Teapot Dome committee. The document was not used at the Sinclair trial and never has been made public.

Chairman Nye said tonight that he thought the deposition should be made a part of the record of the investigation into the disposition of the Liberty Bond profits of the Continental Trading Company of Canada.

He added that if the deposition could be obtained the committee would give it careful study with a view to following up any additional leads which it might furnish. The deposition was taken in El Paso last March because ill health prevented the former Interior Secretary from coming to Washington for trial with Sinclair. The defense in the Sinclair case finally decided against its use.

Colleges Will Fete Medicos

SAN FRANCISCO, May 17. (Exclusive)—Both Stanford and University of California medical schools are completing plans for the reception here of a delegation of prominent eastern physicians and surgeons touring Western States under sponsorship of the Interstate Postgraduate Medical Association of North America. The party will spend five days in California, arriving in the State the 26th inst., and coming here via Los Angeles.

University of California medical men will entertain them in a special program the 29th inst., and Stanford will do likewise on the 30th inst

The itinerary of the group includes St. Louis, Nashville, New Orleans, Dallas, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle, Portland, Denver, Omaha and Rochester, Minn.

HUGE PLANE WELCOMED BY DENVER

Number 1 Fokker Takes Colorado Notables for Air Trip to Pueblo

DENVER, May 17. (Exclusive)—It was "old-home day" today for the No 1 Fokker passenger trimotor when it landed in the State that saw the first expansion of the Western Air Express. Already acquainted with the company's mail planes, a crowd estimated near to 4000 overran Lowrie Field here when the gigantic twelve-passenger ship taxied to a halt.

In the afternoon, despite the slushiness of Lowrie Field, Pilot Silas A. Morehouse took off with eleven passengers, including local citizens identified with aviation development. The party flew to Colorado Springs and Pueblo, returning here after the smaller cities turned out to greet the air liner. The party included Atty.-Gen. W. I. Boatright, Reginald Sinclair of the State Aeronautics Commission, Maj. and Mrs. Bruce Kistler, Postmaster Earl Ewing of Colorado Springs, Postmaster Frank L. Dodge of Denver, Arthur P. Miller of Denver and Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Philbin, Sr.

At Pueblo and Colorado Springs the enthusiastic throngs proved too much for the local police, who were forced to take severe measures to protect the ship and occupants from the eager thousands.

As the other two cross-country ships are held up by bad weather, the plans for No. 1 are held in abeyance, according to W. D. Longyear, representative of the California Development Association, director of the tour.

EL PASO (Tex.) May 17. (AP)—A trimotored Fokker monoplane, one of three making a flight from New York to San Francisco, landed here today after a flight from Amarillo.

The plane left Kansas City this morning. It stopped also at Wichita, Kan.

The big plane is scheduled to hop off from here tomorrow morning for Los Angeles. It will fly from Los Angeles to San Francisco Saturday.

Stresemann's Gain Continues

BERLIN, May 17. (AP)—Foreign Minister Gustav Stresemann, who has been seriously ill with a kidney ailment, continued today to show the slight improvement begun yesterday.

His doctors said there had been a further reduction in temperature and that his kidneys were functioning more regularly.

FLOGGING HOLDS TEACHERS

Berkeley Principal and Aide Accused of Beating 12-Year-Old Girl With Rubber Hose

BERKELEY, May 17. (Exclusive)—Warrants for the arrest of C. K. Hayes, principal of the Longfellow grammar school, and Miss Goldie Ostrom, teacher, were issued here today because of the asserted unmerciful beating of Elizabeth Springer, 12-year-old student.

According to the girl's father, Miss Ostrom beat his daughter first with a rubber hose, and finding herself unable to bring cries of pain from the girl, she called the principal, who continued flogging Elizabeth until the girl was almost unable to stand on her feet.

BLACK AND BLUE

When she staggered home, Springer asserted, she was so weak she could hardly tell what had happened, but there were black and blue welts on her legs from knees to ankles.

Both Hayes and Miss Ostrom surrendered to police late in the day and were released on their own recognizance, pending a hearing.

Elizabeth's version of the averred beating, as retold by the father, is that Miss Ostrom started upon her for a minor infraction of discipline. After striking the girl six times, the instructress asked:

"Does that hurt enough?"

Unwilling to capitulate, Elizabeth returned:

"No."

CALLS PRINCIPAL

The teacher then is said to have called for Principal Hayes and the beating was continued.

The matter did not become known until a truant officer went after Elizabeth because she failed to return to school after the asserted beating. Springer, the father, defied the truant officer because of the circumstances and then hastened to the office of Justice Youngs and obtained battery warrants.

ASSERTED ANDY GUMP ORIGINAL SUES FOR $1,000,000 DAMAGES

CHICAGO, May 17. (Exclusive)—Thirteen years ago David A. Hoag, 68 years of age, of Canandiagua, N. Y., underwent a surgical operation which left him with a peculiarly shaped chin. Today he filed suit for $1,000,000 against the Syracuse (N. Y.) Post-Standard charging that his mental suffering has been intense because of the publication of the Andy Gump comic strip.

Hoag's attorneys announced that the suit is the first of several to be filed against newspapers printing the Gump cartoons. There also is possible action against Sidney Smith, originator of the Gumps, and the Chicago Tribune, distributor of the cartoon, it was stated.

Hoag is said to resemble closely Andy Gump, the central figure of the comic strip. He asks damages, according to his attorneys, because of mental suffering caused by the publication of the cartoons. Sidney Smith first conceived the idea of Gump after noticing Hoag's facial oddity, the suit charges.

Hoag declares Smith knew him well, and his family lived in Canandiagua. He asserted he will produce witnesses to establish that Smith told them he adapted the character of Andy Gump from Hoag.

Sidney Smith lived in Canandiagua from the time he was 5 years of age until he was 11, he said. He has returned only at infrequent intervals. He declared it was evident that Hoag had confused him with his brother, who did live in Canandiagua in recent years. He has no recollection of Hoag, the cartoonist said, and does not recall that he ever saw him.

STRIKE TRIALS PROVOKE CLASH

Bay City Industrial Body and Brady's Office in Row

Conduct of Molders' Case Termed "Rank Farce"

Sharp Reply Hurled Back by Deputy Prosecutor

SAN FRANCISCO, May 17. (Exclusive)—The Industrial Association of San Francisco and the office of Dist.-Atty. Brady clashed today over the long-standing molders' strike trials.

Four members of the molders' union, two of them officials, were acquitted in an instructed verdict yesterday of assault charges upon a nonunion molder, when Judge Conlan ruled the evidence furnished by the prosecution was insufficient.

Albert E. Boyington, managing director of the industrial association, greeted the acquittal with the comment that the trial was conducted in a "farcical" manner. He amplified that statement today to the extent of describing the trial as a "rank farce," adding:

COMMENT ON TRIAL

"Prosecutor Joseph Garry spent more time trying to point out why he could not convict than trying to figure out how he could convict."

Garry, a deputy District Attorney, took immediate umbrage at the remarks and retorted:

"In my opinion the only farce in the molders' trial was the now-famous, or rather infamous, 'curtains' testimony apparently furnished by Boynton's 'black jack' Jerome and 'Doc' Mundells."

The reference was to two private detectives who testified and who were asserted by the defense to have been employed by the industrial association. This charge has been denied repeatedly, both in the carpenters' strike trials and the molders' trials, by the association.

MATTER OF CURTAINS

The "curtains" matter was one in which a rent-car employee testified the curtains on a stolen car, said to have been used in a molders' assault, were similar to those used on a car rented at his station. He subsequently repudiated the information on the witness stand.

Garry added he had introduced all the "admissable" evidence the police had supplied.

Because of the controversy and the general situation, it is considered probable that the District Attorney's office will move tomorrow for dismissal of a conspiracy case which still pends against the four acquitted of the actual assault yesterday, and a fifth member of the union.

BOY'S PRANK WRECKS FLY

Accident That Periled 300 and Thought Plot Due to Spike Youth Put on Rail

CAMDEN (N. J.) May 17. (Exclusive)—A [illegible] plot or sabotage conspiracy as suspected, wrecked the [illegible] Atlantic City flyer, endangered the lives of 300 [illegible] the engineer and fireman painfully last night.

This was revealed today when detectives, called by the boy's mother, questioned 10-year-old Vincent Burkett. Halting and on the point of tears, he told how he placed a spike on the rail and ran home in terror when he saw the spike wreck the speeding train.

"I always put pennies on the track and trains flattened them out," he said. "Last night we were going to a carnival with our express wagons and I found a spike.

THEN RAN HOME

"I thought the engine would flatten out the spike like a penny. I put it on the track and we watched. When the engine ran lopsided we got scared and ran home."

Three playmates with Vincent at the wrecking, also are held by the detectives. They are his brother Eddie, 7 years of age; Edward Hope, 14, and John Susbansky, 13.

Nearly 100 passengers were bruised or shocked severely, 200 more were in danger of death and the engine was left a tangled ruin when the flyer, en route to the seaside resort, ground down on the spike and the locomotive left the track.

STICKS TO ENGINE

The engineer, Ben Peters, stuck to his throttle as his locomotive plowed through ties and careened dangerously. Fireman Reuben Samples, leaped clear as the engine toppled over. He rushed back to drag Peters, blinded and burned by steam, to safety. Both are recovering from painful burns.

Vincent, who told his mother, Mrs. Margaret Burkett, a widow, this morning of the disaster he had wrought, got a good spanking at once. But more serious punishment probably will be his lot. He and his playmates are held at the Camden parental home tonight pending decision of their case.

Albania's famine is reported to be growing worse.

VATICAN HURLS CHALLENGE TO MUSSOLINI'S POWER

[Copyright, 1928, by the Chicago Tribune.]

ROME, May 17. (Exclusive)—The Vatican definitely and openly threw down the gage of battle with Fascism over the question of political affiliation today when Cardinal Gasparri, papal secretary of State, sent a circular to the members of the Pope's Noble Guard, made up of aristocratic Italians, demanding their resignation from the Catholic Center party.

The Catholic Centrists make up the [illegible] of the old Catholic party formerly headed by Don Sturzo, which adhered to Fascism.

Cardinal Gasparri's circular forces the burning church-and-state issue, [illegible] six weeks ago by the Pontiff himself in a bitter speech condemning members of the Centrist party for not visiting him when the Centrists held their convention in Rome. The Pontiff plainly indicated in his speech that the Centrists could not call themselves the Catholic party if they adhered to Fascism.

The reply of Fascism to this speech was Premier Mussolini's order disbanding all Catholic Boy Scout societies. Cardinal Gasparri's demands on the Noble Guards to resign, is, in turn, in retaliation to Il Duce's order, and culminates the severe attacks which the Vatican publications have been waging against the Fascist corporative state. The corporative state, according to the Vatican, suppresses the individual and makes him a mere instrument of the state.

Fascists state that Cardinal Gasparri's action means a renewal of the Vatican's policy of "nonexpedit," namely, the prohibition of the Catholic from participating in temporal political affairs.

MARINE KILLED IN REBEL FIGHT

Captain and One Other Shot in Nicaragua

Enemy Casualties Ten in Paso Real Battle

Destroying of All American Property Threatened

MANAGUA (Nic.) May 17. (AP)—One marine was killed and Capt. Robert S. Hunter of Kansas and another unidentified marine were wounded near Paso Real, northeast of Jinotega, according to a report received here today.

The casualties resulted from a clash between a joint combat patrol of twenty-five marines and eighty National Guardsmen and a large force of rebels under Jose Leon Diaz. The air patrol which brought back the fragmentary report did not know the date of the battle, but believed it took place Monday. One of the Nicaraguan National Guard also was killed and rebel casualties were placed at five killed and five wounded.

REBELS THREATEN TO RAZE AMERICAN PROPERTY

PUERTO CABEZAS (Nic.) May 17. (AP)—When the rebels destroyed the La Luz mine last month they posted a defiance signed by Augustino Sandino promising the destruction of all American-owned property that falls into his hands and bitterly condemning the United States for its Nicaraguan policy.

This letter was brought by H. W. Amphlett, manager of the mine, when he returned here today from an inspection trip to the property. He said that the workings had been completely destroyed by the rebels, leaving only two small buildings that were not blown up by dynamite.

BRUTE FORCE CHARGED

The letter signed by Sandino was dated April 29, at the mine and addressed to Amphlett. It stated that Sandino was there personally to carry out the destruction as a tangible evidence of his protest against the warlike invasion that the United States government has made in this territory "without any more right than that of brute force."

Sandino wrote that until a short time ago he believed the majority of persons within the United States were not in accord with President Coolidge's policy toward Nicaragua, but that he now believes that all uphold his attitude.

"All that is North American that falls into our hands," he said, "has arrived at its end. The losses which you have sustained in the mine you may collect from the government of the United States, Mr. Calvin Coolidge, who is the only one really responsible for the horrible and disastrous situation through which Nicaragua is passing at the present time.

SEALED BY SANDINO

"The most honorable resolution which your government could adopt with Nicaragua is to retire its forces from our territory, thus permitting us, the Nicaraguans, to elect our national government, which is the only means of pacification of the country."

The papers bore the signature and seal of Sandino similar to those appearing on other letters known to have been written by the rebel leader.

Capt. E. D. Howard, marine aviator who crashed near the La Luz mine last Thursday, arrived here today. He was unhurt, but he left his companion, Corp. George Cole, at the mine because of a badly sprained ankle.

BERKELEY GIRLS HAVE RACE RIOT

One Junior High School Student Nursing Broken Hand Following Clash

BERKELEY, May 17. (AP)—A race riot broke out among girls of the Edison Junior High School here today. Three white girls were beaten in an attack by ten negro girls at Ashby avenue and Grove street. Other girls were pursued down the street by the ten attackers, police are informed.

Lois Wardell, a white student, received a broken hand and other injuries. With Ardella Gaskell and Marie Dreguez, also white, they were attacked after being trailed three blocks from the school, police reports say.

Two girls, said to be leaders of the assailants, were expelled.

Paderewski Gets Souvenir Album

NEW YORK, May 17. (AP)—Messages from President Coolidge, Vice-President Dawes, former Secretary of State Charles Evans Hughes, members of the Cabinet and twenty-five State governors were included in a testimonial album presented to Ignace Jan Paderewski last night at a dinner in honor of the world-famous pianist.

The dinner, at the Hotel Commodore, was under the auspices of the Kosciuszko Foundation and Polish-American friendship was the theme of many addresses.

President Coolidge's message praised the musician's "unselfish service" to Poland and his "outstanding devotion to the advancement of humanitarian and cultural causes."

The occasion of the dinner was the tenth anniversary of the birth of the Polish Republic.

Coincident with the announcement that Muratore is ill it is learned that he married a 23-year-old Parisian, Marie Louise Brivaud, on April 5.

WAR CREEPS ON TOWARD PEKING

Marshal Chang's Truce Bid Apparently Ignored

Nationalists Eighty Miles South of Capital

Northerners Expected to Flee Into Manchuria

SHANGHAI, May 17. (AP)—Marshal Chang Tso-Lin's recent offer from Peking of a truce in the Civil War clearly has been disregarded by his opponents, the Nationalists, and hostilities are approaching nearer the capital.

As usual it is difficult to disentangle the truth from the welter of conflicting reports, but it seems that the Nationalists are advancing along the line of the Peking-Hankow Railroad. The latest Nationalist reports say an advance as far as Paotingfui, about eighty miles south of Peking, has been made. The Nationalist news agency also said Shansi troops vanguard has reached Chank Sintien, about seven miles southwest of Peking.

There is a belief among the members of the foreign community here that the northerners are preparing to retire from the capital into Manchuria, and indications of the danger menacing Peking are seen in the attempts of Chang Tso-Lin to hearten his own troops and discredit the southern generals by issuing proclamations accusing Feng Yu-Hsiang of co-operating with Communists and trying to involve the southerners with the Japanese by charging Gen. Feng with attempts to foment antiforeign manifestations.

Chiang Kai-Shek, commander-in-chief of the southerners, tried to open negotiations with Gen. Fukuda, Japanese commander at Tsinan, where the Japanese clashed with the Nationalists. Chiang was anxious to discuss the Japanese demands on the Nanking government, but Gen. Fukuda refused to negotiate except with a personally appointed delegate.

FRESNO BOMB PLOT FIZZLES

Infernal Device at Judge's Door Fails to Explode

Desert Prospector Held as Suspect in Attack

Fragment of Newspaper and Sand Held as Clews

FRESNO, May 17.—Superior Judge Campbell E. Beaumont and his family had a miraculous escape from death in a plot at their home early this morning when the fuse of a home-made bomb in front of the door on the front porch went out after burning to within a few inches of two coffee cans filled with nitroglycerin and gasoline.

Charles A. Koehn, 67 years of age, is under arrest on suspicion of being the maker of the bomb. Koehn told the police his home is at Saltvale, on the edge of the Mojave Desert, a few miles from Red Rock Canyon. The bomb, cunningly contrived to spread flames with its death blast, was found by Judge Beaumont shortly after 5 a.m. when he opened the front door to get his morning paper, but the incident was not reported to police until 8 a.m.

WRAPPING LINKS SUSPECT

Judge Beaumont said when he discovered the fuse had gone out he removed the explosives to his garage and delayed notifying the authorities to save his family from the shock that would result.

A copy of the Los Angeles Times played an unwitting part in the arrest of the suspect and fastened upon him a link in the chain of circumstantial evidence upon which the police are holding him. The explosive contrivance was wrapped in a fragment of The Times. In the subsequent investigation, two reporters found other parts of the paper of the same date, April 25, last, in Koehn's automobile, and in matching up the missing parts found that the piece wrapped about the bomb fitted into torn edges of the part found in the motor car.

This evidence and further that while desert sand was found both in the bomb and in the automobile of the suspect, coupled with the fact that he was arrested on suspicion by Patrolmen Joseph Smith and C. S. Chapman as he ran from an alley a short distance from the Beaumont home, about four hours prior to the finding of the bomb, are the chief developments in the work of the police and Sheriff Jones to determine the identity of the would-be bomber.

MAN DENIES CHARGE

Koehn vigorously denied under strenuous grilling by the police, Sheriff and District Attorney, that he knew anything of the bomb or that there was any motive which would prompt him to attempt to take the jurist's life.

Koehn is involved in litigation in the Superior Court of Kern county over gypsum deposits in the Mojave Desert, and in which Judge Beaumont sat. This suit has not been decided and is now pending before Beaumont on briefs, one of which was prepared by Koehn personally after he had dismissed Alfred Siemon of Bakersfield as his attorney.

MOTORISTS WARNED ABOUT OILED ROAD

SPRINGVILLE, May 17.—Oiling of the upper road and the south side of the forks to Camp Nelson is under way and motorists are advised to use care in driving for the next week, as employees driving the county trucks will not observe control hours, according to F. M. Pfrimmer of Porterville, chairman of the Tulare County Board of Supervisors.

Control on the Camp Nelson, Camp Wishon, Doyles Springs and California Hot Springs roads, as adopted by the Supervisors, went into effect Tuesday. It will be observed until fall.

TULAREAN CONVICTED IN LIQUOR CHARGES

LINDSAY, May 17. (AP)—Guilty was the verdict brought in by a jury yesterday in the case of Oscar Erwin of Tulare, charged with possession and transportation of intoxicating liquor. Erwin was tried in Judge Allan McGregor's court.

Erwin was arrested by County Prohibition Agent A. C. Fulmer, Buehl Williams of the District Attorney's office and Constable Harry Purcell after an automobile race at fifty-five miles per hour. During the race Erwin drove with one hand and with the other used a hammer to break a half dozen one-gallon jugs.

SAN JOAQUIN LIONS TO MEET AT DINUBA

DINUBA, May 17.—Billy Wells of Riverside, district governor of the Lions' Club, will be principal speaker tomorrow evening, when representatives from thirteen clubs in the southern San Joaquin Valley Lions' council gather here for the annual meeting and election of officers for the district. The Dinuba Den is in charge of the program.

Clubs included in the council are Fresno, Madera, Merced, Sanger, Clovis, Fowler, Dinuba, Reedley, Visalia, Porterville, Tulare, Bakersfield and Kingsburg.

CONVICTED BANDITS TAKEN TO PRISONS

BAKERSFIELD, May 17. (AP)—Convicted on five felony counts and sentenced to serve long prison terms, Al Powers and Roy Newberry were taken from the Kern county jail for confinement at San Quentin and Folsom prisons, respectively. The two men found guilty of robbing the establishment of Tony Masconi near Beardsley, were sentenced Tuesday by Judge R. B. Lambert.

MAN HELD FOR TRIAL

HANFORD, May 17. — C. Garcia, arrested in a raid on a West Seventh-street pool hall by H. G. Sholtens, Federal inspector of narcotics, and local officers, was today held in $1000 bond by Justice H. H. Warnock for trial on a charge of possession of marijuana.

BARE-LEG GIRLS GET "STUCK UP"

Schoolboys in War on Fad Use Fly Paper With Telling Results

SACRAMENTO, May 17. (Exclusive)—Four girl students of the Yuba City High School who sought to introduce the new antistocking fad, received, to their surprise, a coating of fly paper applied to their bare legs by four of the sterner sex.

When the four girls led the fad this week the four boys procured strips of fly paper for the stockingless quartet and applied it in as gentlemanly a way as possible. They first gave warning the fad would not be tolerated.

The girls at their last appearance had substituted for the fly paper a coat of shellac painted black to resemble dark stockings.

State Officials Outline Policy at Conference in Kings County

HANFORD, May 17.—M. B. Harris and Fred S. Moods of the State Highway Commission, with State Engineer A. Purcell, Division Engineer C. Wallace, Secretary E. Forrest Mitchell and B. B. Meek, director of public work, were here today in conference with the members of the Board of Supervisors, representatives of the Kings county Chamber of Commerce and Hanford Board of Trade on local highway matters.

The widening of the Hanford-Lemoore highway to the fair grounds, taking over six and a half miles of Elm avenue in Kings county and the improvement of the Stratford-Cholame lateral from the valley to the coast, were presented by Secretary W. L. Landsborough of the Kings county Chamber of Commerce, A. D. Driver and Supervisors T. E. Cochrane and S. Railsback.

Commissioner M. B. Harris for the commission, replied that, while these were all meritorious, the policy of the commission is to finish what is started before taking on any more projects. The board will go on with the projects to which it is pledged by bond issues and which are included by the Legislature before taking on any others. It is proposed to put in good shape the 5500 miles in the existing State system before undertaking extensions.

Commissioner Moody concurred in this statement of policy. Meeks stated, however, that projects in hand include the completion of the Sierra-to-the-Sea highway from Sierra National Forest via Hanford to San Lucas on the coast.

It was stated that some assistance might be obtained for the joint highway fund created by the Legislature for the Elm avenue and Stratford-Cholame projects with a joint road district formed by Fresno, Kings, Kern and San Luis Obispo counties to undertake part of the cost.

Oil Sale Case in Tenth Day

FRESNO, May 17. (AP)—Trial of minority stockholders of the Elberta Oil Company of San Luis Obispo to unseat its board of directors on the ground that they are attempting to sell the company at a disadvantage to best interests of the company went into its tenth day today with plaintiff counsel directing a searching examination of books of the company.

Through Ruth Henderson, secretary of the company and its bookkeeper, the plaintiffs were attempting to show that assessments on some of the Elberta stock were held over and that others were closed and the stock sold at auction.

The campaign of the plaintiffs has been through questioning of the defendant directors to prove the contention in the complaint that minority stockholders "were frozen out" after the Elberta well came in at 400 barrels a day, proving up a field of 1400 acres, and valued at $2,000,000, according to the plaintiffs.

WARNING ISSUED ON DIGGING OF POTATO

BAKERSFIELD, May 17.—With potatoes being shipped from the county in car lots at this time, Gus R. Israel, assistant farm adviser, today warned growers in the county against digging too early.

"This practice results in putting immature potatoes on the market," Israel said. "These potatoes do not have the keeping qualities necessary and result in spoilage before reaching the consumer. Thus the whole market for early spuds is demoralized and lowered prices result."

Assembly Gets Down to Work at Atlanta

Gov. Smith Called "Threat of Democrat Party"

ATLANTA, May 17. (AP)—With election of Dr. Harris E. Kirk of Baltimore, Md., as moderator to succeed Dr. Robert F. Campbell of Asheville, N. C., the sixty-eighth general assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States got down to business today.

Receipt of the report from the new committee on the assembly's work, with the recommendations for a budget of $3,000,000 for the next church year, and hearing of executive secretaries on the various departments of church activities occupied the assembly.

The work committee's recommendation for a budget of $3,000,000 for church causes marked an increase of $171,600 over the previous fiscal year.

Mention of the Presidential campaign was made during the report on home missions by Dr. Homer McMillan of Atlanta, who referred to Gov. Smith of New York as "the threat of the Democratic party."

Citing that "the vast majority of our adult population in this country make no profession of any religion of any kind," Dr. McMillan declared it up to the church to intensify its missionary life.

"Other bodies and organizations of various kinds are fostering their special interests," he declared. "There are thirty-eight organizations laboring for the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment and Gov. Smith is the threat of the Democratic party."

Needs of City Government at Fresno Totaled

FRESNO, May 17.—Estimates of the chiefs of various city departments of the cost of operation of the city government during the next fiscal year aggregate $1,235,970 it was announced today by Commissioner of Finance Glass with the receipt of the last of the departmental budgets.

The estimated 1928-29 budget total is $82,172 lower than estimated for the current year but is $11,999 higher than the budget as adopted by the city commission, the finance department records show. The city's basic tax rate, based upon the preliminary estimate of the budget would be $2.01, an advance of two cents per $100 of assessed valuation over that of the current year. However, material reductions in various departmental budgets are expected by the city commission when it is convened to discuss the city's requirements for next year.

The largest reduction already effected is that of the department of public safety and welfare, the aggregate budget for which is approximately $86,000 lower than that of the current year. With further reductions that are expected to result from the city commission sessions, and increase in the city's assessed valuation it is predicted that the basic tax rate will be about $1.94, or a reduction of five cents.

Law May Cite Use of Flag

FRESNO, May 17. (AP)—Improper use of the flag, if an ordinance introduced before the City Commission by Mayor Al E. Sunderland is adopted, will become a misdemeanor in Fresno, punishable by a fine not to exceed $50 or imprisonment in the County Jail not to exceed ninety days or both.

Mayor Sunderland offered the ordinance at the request of Representatives of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, who informed the commissioners that it had been modeled after the report of the 1924 flag congress. The ordinance sets forth the proper and improper uses of the national colors.

PARKS CELEBRATION PLANNED SATURDAY

THREE RIVERS, May 17.—Combining forces, the Woodlake Service Club and the Three Rivers Woman's Club, have arranged a program for the annual national park celebration to be given at the Frazer ranch near here, Saturday night. A barbecue dinner will supplement the usual program.

A natural amphitheater will be the setting for the entertainment features, which have been arranged by Dr. Morton W. Frazer, Sequoia National Park physician. Stephen T. Mather, director of the National Park Service, and other park service officials are expected to speak. Motion pictures of the high Sierras, campfire singing and specialty numbers by two artists from San Francisco will also be given.

RULING BENEFITS GROWER

Federal Trade Commission Strengthened Order for Labeling of Imitation Fruit Flavoring

FRESNO, May 17.—California fruit products, such as grape juice, will find an enlarged market as a result of a ruling by the Federal Trade Commission announced from Washington. The California Vineyardists' Association has been informed by Otis B. Johnson, secretary of the commission, that the commission has reaffirmed its policy requiring that imitation fruit flavoring and coloring in bottled beverages be so labeled in plain type.

This policy of the Federal board has been opposed by an organization of carbonated beverage bottlers.

All imitation fruit juices shall be compelled to display in conspicuous type that such product is not made wholly from fruit and the label shall clearly indicate "Imitation coloring and flavoring used."

It is stated by officers of the California association that such ruling from the Federal Trade Commission will now make it possible for the manufacturers of grape products, especially those manufacturing a fruit beverage, to now be able to enter the field of competition with those manufacturing an imitation product, and this should mean that it will be possible for many additional tons of low-grade varieties to pass through the crusher to be manufactured into fruit beverages made from true fruits.

WRECKED SHIP TALE MYSTIFIES

Beach Patrols Unable to Discover Trace of Vessel Reported Seen Sinking

SYDNEY (N. S.) May 17. (AP)—Beach patrols sought in vain today for trace of a steamer which three men say they saw swallowed in a heavy sea off the northern coast of Cape Breton this morning.

A gale-swept coast disclosed no bit of wreckage and no distress signals were discovered to support the story of George Durdle and two companions who said they saw the craft wallow through a heavy sea, ride the crest of a huge wave and then plunge from sight in the darkness a short distance off the coast. Heavy seas prevented any boats from attempting to reach the scene off New Waterford.

Durdle and his companions said visibility was good and that the steamer could be plainly seen before it disappeared. The vessel had raised decks fore and aft, one funnel and two masts, the men said.

A small fishing steamer put into North Sydney shortly after 10 a.m. today and for a time it was thought this was the vessel described by Durdle but the descriptions of the two craft did not tally.

Authorities said they did not doubt Durdle and his companions believe they witnessed the sinking they describe but suggest a mistake is not impossible.

SPANISH ANARCHIST PAIR SENT TO PRISON

LYONS (France) May 17. (AP)—Two Spanish anarchists, Ascaso and Durutti, were each sentenced to serve six months in prison today for returning to France after being expelled. The men were expelled last July after having been arrested for plotting against King Alfonso of Spain when he visited Paris in 1926.

CLAIMS BOARDS TO BE MERGED

Single American-Mexican Commission to Function

Hague Court Scheduled to Name Neutral Member

New Step Reduces Expense for Both Governments

MEXICO CITY, May 17. (Exclusive)—The two American-Mexican claims commissions, the special and the general, are to be merged into a single commission with the appointment of a neutral member by the Hague permanent Court of Arbitration, thereby eliminating part of the expense, borne by both governments equally, for maintenance of the two commissions. One of the commissions, the special, up to the present has been almost a complete failure.

Credit is given to Ambassador Morrow for obtaining the Mexican government's consent to the merger of the commissions following the formation of which in 1923 diplomatic relations between both governments were resumed. The merger of the commissions is looked upon by close observers of relations between the United States and Mexico as a further step, toward ironing out pending questions between the two governments.

The recent announcement from Washington that both governments had extended authority to allow the Hague tribunal to select the neutral member for both commissions explained that he probably would act in a dual capacity as neutral jurist on both commissions, but not until today did it become known that the two courts will be formed into one, greatly facilitating their proper functioning and easier settlement of pending cases.

"Old Gold's smoothness was so obvious" said Miss Anne Morgan
after the Blindfold Cigarette test

"A decorator once told me that to appreciate the texture of a fabric or the glaze of a vase one's eyes should be closed. And to enjoy the fragrance of a perfume one should close one's eyes . . . one's other senses seem all the keener. That was the convincing thing about the blindfold test. The aroma and the flavor of one cigarette were so marked . . . the smoothness so obvious that I chose it instantly. It proved to be the OLD GOLD."

SMOOTHER... BETTER

MISS ANNE MORGAN
Miss Anne Morgan, the daughter of the late J. P. Morgan, resembles her distinguished father in both ability and breadth of vision.

Why you can pick them . . . even in the dark

In this scientific cigarette test a blindfolded smoker tries four leading brands. The only question asked is, "Which one do you like best?"

Why should one cigarette win time after time? What gives OLD GOLDS their captivating charm? The answer is very simple: heart-leaf tobacco. No heavy, coarse top leaves of the tobacco plant . . . no withered ground leaves. Only the cool and fragrant heart-leaves are good enough for OLD GOLD.

It's sheer quality that gives OLD GOLDS their honey-like smoothness. Do you wonder that they win . . . even in the dark?

Mandell, McLarnin Tilt Will be Staged Tonight at Polo Grounds

BY JACK FARRELL

NEW YORK, May 17.—Sammy Mandell and Jimmy McLarnin did not fight fifteen rounds for the world's lightweight championship tonight at the Polo Grounds for two reasons—weather conditions were unfavorable and so was the advance sale. Promoter Tex Rickard will make another effort to send the boys on their way tomorrow night if the skies are clear and regardless of what the advance sale totals up.

Sammy Mandell

Rickard kept in constant touch with the weather sharps this morning. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon, as the principals were being weighed in at the office of the State Athletic Commission, the forecasters informed Tex that rain was in the offing and he immediately called the show off until tomorrow night. No rain had fallen up to an early hour tonight.

Mandell was a quarter of a pound overweight when he stepped on the official scales. He was given time out to take

Hack Wilson Hits Home Run and Three-Bagger

Windy City Squad Captures Tilt by 2-0 Score

CHICAGO, May 17. (AP)—Pat Malone held Boston to five hits today and the Chicago Cubs won their eleventh consecutive victory, 2 to 0.

Hack Wilson hit his fifth home run of the season in the fourth inning. The other tally came in the second, when Stephenson led off with a double, went to third on Grimm's sacrifice and scored on Gonzales's single.

Malone held the Braves to one hit until the seventh inning. In addition to his home run Wilson cracked out a triple to lead the Cubs' attack.

As Cincinnati lost to Brooklyn, the Cubs took possession of first place. Before their winning streak began, the Cubs were in sixth place.

FIFTEEN-INCH TROUT RUNNING AT RAINBOW

According to Leigh Garnsey, manager of the Rainbow Angling Club, many members of the organization have planned to spend Sunday at the club. The site of the trout now being caught at Rainbow is proving quite a lure, Garnsey adds. The fish run from ten to fifteen inches long.

"Members and agents of the club soon will be afforded something to their liking," continued Garnsey. "A rustic cafe is being built at which trout will be cooked any way a member orf a guest wants them."

ANGELS SCORE THREE RUNS IN SIXTH TO ANNEX TILT

Bespectacled Right-Hander Twirls Six-Hit Ball to Blank Mission Squad by Score of 3 to 0

BY BOB RAY

Norman Plitt, who has pitched sensational ball his last two starts, let the Mission Bells down with six scattered hits in yesterday's Wrigley Field attraction and Marty Krug's Angels came out on the long end of a 3-to-0 score.

Plitt, the bespectacled right-hander, pitched faultless and was especially tough in the pinches. Four times the Bells had runners in position where a hit would have meant runs, but on each occasion Plitt hitched up his belt, wiped off his glasses and then proceeded to fool the Mission batters into doing nothing that would air their cause.

NORMAN PLITT

Herman Pillette, who opposed Plitt on the mound, also hurled some fine ball but the sixth inning proved his downfall. Three of the six Angel hits made off Pillette were bunched with an error by McDaniel in this round and the net result was that all three Seraph runs were made. Pillette was taken out in the eighth for a pinch-hitter and Nelson hurled the ninth against the Home Guards.

The Angels now have a 2-1 lead in the series and Krug says they're off on a spurt to the top. Marty still claims he has the best club in the circuit and that the Seraphs will be right there or thereabouts from now on.

OLYMPIC FIELD HOCKEY PRIZE MAY GO TO INDIA

AMSTERDAM, May 17. (AP)—India's field hockey team ranked as a decided favorite after showing in the opening of the Olympic hockey series today. The team's speed and offensive generalship was unequaled by any of the other contestants in action today. All except Belgium appeared at either the Olympic stadium or the so-called "old stadium," across the way.

In the opinion of coaches of various nationalities, Germany has the best chance to rank second at the close, with a possibility of Holland placing third and Denmark and Belgium contesting for the next position.

As every team meets every other team, however, there is plenty of room for vision of this judgment.

In every position except right back, France was outclassed by the opposing Hollanders, who won, 5 to 0.

Austria, although much heavier than India, was defeated, 6 to 1, the winners developing a powerful offense.

Denmark and Switzerland engaged in a slow lumbering tussle with the 2-to-1 victory of the Danes fairly expressing their relative strength.

Tomorrow's line-up will send Belgium against India and Denmark will oppose Austria.

Dean Cromwell and his University of Southern California track athletes pull out tomorrow night at 6 o'clock for Cambridge, Mass., where the boys will compete in the annual I.C.A.A.A.A. meet.

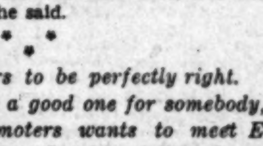
CHARLEY BORAH

Cromwell will take either nine or ten men with him. They are Charley Borah, Weldon Draper, Capt. Lee Barnes, Cliff Reynolds, Chuck Webber, Hart Miller, Jimmy Payne, Alex Graham and Jesse Hill. The tenth athlete, if he makes the grade, will be Jack Williams, pole vaulter, Cromwell says Williams has to clear 13ft. in practice this afternoon or he will not be taken on the trip. The Trojans are doped to score anywhere from 20 to 30 points in the meet, with Stanford a heavy favorite to win top honors.

DEAN CROMWELL

RABBIT PUNCHES

BY PAUL LOWRY



ALL over the country there seems to be a dearth of good fighters. Those in the limelight are getting older and young ones with color are slow in developing. The apathy of the fans is general. It is not confined to any one sector. It's the same in Los Angeles, San Francisco, Chicago or New York. Even the latter city, with its tremendous population to draw from, is not "going" any too strong for the fistic fare dished up by the promoters. When a good shot like the McLarnin-Mandell bout comes along it's different. But there aren't many bouts like that lying around loose.

If there were it would tickle the promoters pink. Assemblyman Harry Morrison, who promotes at the Armory in San Francisco, has been here for several days, but after pecking around here and there declares we are just as bad off as San Francisco. "We haven't got any good matches in sight for the summer, and you haven't either. All the talent's back East, and there isn't enough to go around there," he said.

Mr. Morrison appears to be perfectly right. The Fields-Callahan match is a good one for somebody, but so far none of the promoters wants to meet Eddie Sears's terms for Callahan. Outside of that championship bout there is nothing in sight here for the summer except a possible Uzcudun-Sharkey scrap, and that is very uncertain. Sharkey is still looking for a chance to edge in against Tunney in place of Heeney. Hudkins and Walker probably would have done just as well here as in Chicago. Walker is popular there, but Hudkins is just another fighter to the Windy City fight fans. He fought at East Aurora once. But here again excessive demands robbed Los Angeles of the match. Kearns wanted everything but the flagpole at Wrigley Field. Mr. Morrison is returning to San Francisco convinced

NEW YORK COPS FROM ST. LOUIS

Chicago Rallies to Defeat Athletics, 6-5

Boston Red Sox Take Clash from Detroit, 5-3

Cleveland Trips Senators by 8 to 3 Margin

NEW YORK, May 17. (AP)—The Yankees ran their winning streak to seven straight here today by winning the first of four engagements with the St. Louis Browns, 4 to 3. The game was featured by Ruth's twelfth and Gehrig's sixth home runs, but these drives were matched by circuit blows from the bats of Lou Blue and Otis Brannon.

After the home-run battle had ended in a draw, Crowder relieved Harold Wiltse with the bases filled in the ninth and forced the winning run home by walking Combs after Durst had struck out. Stanley Coveleskie went the route for the Yankees for the first time this year. Score:

WHITE SOX WIN

PHILADELPHIA, May 17. (AP)—The Chicago White Sox rallied in the closing innings of their first game here today and nosed out the Athletics, 6-5.

The Pale Hose overcame a 3-0 lead by knocking Ossie Orwoll out of the box in the seventh inning and scoring four runs. In the eighth Pitcher Tommy Thomas helped win his own game by scoring two more runs with a long double.

Joe Hauser hit his eighth home run of the season in the fourth with none on base. Score:

RED SOX COLLECT

BOSTON, May 17. (AP)—The Boston Red Sox went into fourth place in the league standing here today by defeating Detroit, 5-3. Sensational fielding was responsible for the Red Sox victory as Russell allowed the visitors nine hits. Ken Williams drove in three runs and prevented Detroit from scoring at least two tallies when he made a remarkable save on Fothergill's long drive to left center in the fifth inning. The bases were filled and two were out at the time. The game was the Red Sox's sixth straight victory, the longest winning streak in many years, and the seventh consecutive defeat for Detroit. One Bad Inning Loses Game for Herman Pillette details. Gale Staley opened this fruitful round with a rollicking single over second. Bobby Jones dumped a neat bunt down the first-base line and all hands were safe when McDaniel heaved the ball, instead of into Finn's waiting glove, into Bobby's collar band. Berger followed with a single to left that scored Staley. Burkett was then sent in to run for Jones, who was still in bad shape from that clout on the neck. Tolson also singled to left and Burkett tallied. A wild pitch moved the runners along a sack. Rodda threw Hood out at first, but Berger scored and Tolson moved to third on the play. Pillette fanned Schulmerich and retired Dittmar on a grounder to Slade to pull out of the inning without any more runs coming over.

The Bells made their first bid for a run in the fourth when Finn reached second after two were on, because Dittmar dropped Sandberg's throw to catch him stealing. Plitt got rid of Fuzzy Hufft on a roller to Tolson to end that threat.

In the fifth McDaniel and Weis led off with singles, the latter's being a bunt that went for a hit when Plitt and Sandberg didn't know who was going to pick it up and compromised by neither of them grabbing it. Slade attempted to sacrifice, but succeeded in hitting only a pop fly to Plitt. Schulmerich speared Whitney's long fly and McDaniel took third after the catch. That left it up to Pillette, but the lanky hurler went down on three strikes.

FINN HAMMERS DOUBLE

Finn got a double with one away in the sixth, but Plitt retired Rodda and Hufft to leave Mickey stranded on second. In the eighth Whitney led off with a single, but Bodie, Rose and Finn were easy infield outs as a result of Plitt's twirling wiles.

The Angels also missed out on a couple of chances to score, Wally Hood sending a roller to Pillette for the third out in the first inning after Berger and Tolson had worked their way to third and second. Staley busted a double after two were out in the seventh, but Burkett, who had replaced Jones, couldn't supply the punch needed to drive Gale home.

Bruce Cunningham, who has become known now as an in-and-outer, will take the mound for the Angels today. Carl Holling, who has turned in a one-hit game this season, will probably see action for the Bells. Score:

PETER B. KYNE IS FOOTBALL PATRON

TRACY (Cal.) May 17. (AP)—Peter B. Kyne, California author, became a patron of sculpture and football here tonight when he presented the Kyne permanent trophy to students of the Tracy High School.

The gift, an action statuette of a football player, was modeled by Haig Patigian of San Francisco, noted for his figure exhibits.

McLarnin Sue for Breaking Partner's Jaw

NEW YORK, May 17.—while he was weighing in today for his fight with Sammy Mandell, postponed to tomorrow night, Jimmy McLarnin, challenger for the lightweight championship, was served with a summons in a $20,000 damage suit brought by one of his sparring partners, H. J. Mogren.

Papers in the suit allege that McLarnin was unnecessarily rough while sparring with Mogren at his training quarters last May 8, delivering a knockout blow which broke Mogren's jaw.

HOLLYWOOD NINE LOSES TO LINCOLN

Railsplitter Ball Players Take Another Step Toward City League Title

Coach Frank Mallete's powerful Lincoln baseballers established themselves as strong contenders for the City League pennant by virtue of a 7-to-3 win over the Hollywood baseball club in game played yesterday afternoon on the Franklin High School diamond.

As usual, Mallete's men came through with hits when runs were most needed, scoring five runs in the last three innings of play. Three pitchers were used by the Tigers, allowing the Redshirts eleven hits. Johnson, stellar Sheik chucker, hurled all nine innings, giving the Tigers but twelve hits. Vejar, hard-hitting Hollywooder, clouted a circuit in the sixth inning with one on base to swell the Hollywood score.

Manual Arts and Jefferson High are scheduled to tangle this afternoon on the Toilers' diamond in the feature game of two games slated. These two nines will fight it out for the right to play Lincoln for the pennant. Jefferson is doped to take the game handily. The other game will find Poly mixing with Franklin on the Kiteflyers' diamond. Los Angeles High draws a bye.

ANGLERS LAND BIG BARRACUDA CATCH

Anglers in the waters off Hermosa Beach and Redondo yesterday were treated to one of the heaviest runs of barracuda recorded this season and surpassing the best run of last year. Guests on barges watched with glee while the live-bait boats circled the anchored schooners in an endeavor to hook the big game fellows.

Numerous fishermen on board the barge Olympia pulled barracuda out of the waters almost as fast as they could bait hooks, snaring them both on live and dead bait.

Many record catches of sand dabs, halibut and sculpins, besides the usual heavy harvest of mackerel was noted on the barge during the day.

nothing but a stroke of luck will save the summer season.

For a man who hasn't stepped into a gymnasium since he fought Gene Tunney at Chicago last September Jack Dempsey certainly looks in good shape. Outside of a little fat about his stomach he is a perfect physical specimen.

Naturally, he puffs and blows a little more than usual when he bangs away at the bag or works the pulleys, but who wouldn't after nearly a year's layoff. The old legs aren't what they used to be, but he can still get up on his toes and let go a punch. I saw him dynamite the bag at the Manhattan the other day with a wallop that came from the balls of his feet—not from his heels. It would have been just too bad for anyone to have caught that wallop on the whiskers.

George Hussey, at Dempsey's behest, avers he is going to open up another mulligan stew joint. The one he had on North Vermont avenue was sold recently after George had done a land-office business for over a year. George decided he and his wife needed a vacation, but he's going to start up again, he claims. George, by the way, is reducing his bay front through the Jerry McCarthy system, which includes a radical system of diet. George hates that, but it has done the business as the looseness of his vest indicates.

Ole Windy Winsor certainly is overlooking no bets to keep his boy Phil Floto in the limelight. He trotted him out at the Manhattan the other day when Dempsey was working out, and the gorgeousness of his costume nearly stole the show from the ex-champion.

Floto was decked out from head to foot in a violent purple outfit that would have knocked 'em dead on Central avenue. He leaped into the ring while Dempsey was pulling the pulleys and shadow boxed as if he were training for a world's championship fight. I don't know whether the wheezes were stage effect or not, but anyway the passing pedestrians on Spring street must have wondered where the steam shovels were excavating. He's a green prospect, but the big fellow looks good and should be heard from. He has been heard of—much. Windy has not been asleep on the job.

CINCINNATI IS DODGER VICTIM

Dazzy Vance Gets Credit for 4-to-2 Triumph

CINCINNATI, May 17. (AP)—Brooklyn got off to a victory over Cincinnati, 4 to 2, in its 1928 debut on Redland Field here today and broke the tie existing between the Reds and Cubs for first place. Chicago won and went into undisputed leadership. Dazzy Vance got credit for the victory, breaking his losing streak of four straight. He was removed for a pinch-hitter in the seventh, which saw the Robins score two runs and take the lead. Doak finished for Brooklyn.

Eppa Rixey and Jakie May shared the pitching for Cincinnati. Score:

SHELLENBACK STOPS SEALS

bagger by Sprinz, Mitchell's infield out and a sacrifice fly by Mishkin. Pinelli was hit by a pitched ball and Averill was walked. A long clout by Suhr would have put the Seals in the game, but his best was a fly that Twombly gloved.

The visitors picked up two more tallies in the seventh, the round in which Shellenback was wounded. Bassler began it with a single and took second on a wild pitch. He scored on Shellenback's hard drive. Lee laid down a bunt and in trying to head Shellenback off at second base, Mitchell hit the tall pitcher on the back of the head and stretched him cold. McNulty was put on to run for him and scored on Pinelli's wild throw.

KINNEY TO RESCUE

Mulcahy took the place of Shellenback in the box in the last of the seventh and Jolley and Welch greeted him with safe hits. That was the last of Mulcahy. He went out and in came Kinney. Rhyne popped out to Kerr and Sprinz hit into a double play, so that promising set-up was ruined.

Hits by Wera and Bassler and an infield out gave the visitors their fifth and last run in the eighth. The Seals scored their second run in the ninth on a pass to Averill, a hit by Jolley after Suhr had been dropped on strikes and Rhyne's two-bagger. Score:

SCHOOL GOLF LEAGUE

Twelve southern schools have organized the South Atlantic High School Golf Association to control competition on the links.

Junior Olympic Athletes Clash in Meets Today

Boys from more than fifty schools of Los Angeles city and vicinity will meet today in three big district meets which are part of the Los Angeles county competition in the Junior Olympic Games. The three meets scheduled for today are:

2 p.m.—Lincoln High district at Lincoln High (D. V. Parker.)

3 p.m. — Centinela Valley district at Inglewood High (Virgil Dahl.)

3:30 p.m.—Huntington Park district at Huntington Park (R. E. Squire.)

Tomorrow probably twice as many boys will compete in six more meets in Los Angeles county and city. These meets will bring together boys from points scattered all over the city and county. They are:

9 a.m.—Fremont High district at Fremont High (G. C. Dirck.)

9 a.m.—Belmont High district at Belmont High (S. D. Witherow.)

9:30 a.m.—Pasadena and vicinity at Pasadena High (Melvin Chase.)

1 p.m.—Manual Arts district at Manual Arts High (H. E. Lougheed.)

1 p.m.—Glendale and vicinity at Broadway High (J. W. Norviel.)

1 p.m.—Antelope Valley at Lancaster High (M. H. Rowell.)

Outside of Los Angeles county there will be terrific competition between the athletes of several neighboring counties for the county titles and medals and for the privilege of representing the various counties in the final Southern California championship meets June 2. These county meets scheduled for tomorrow are:

Kern county—Griffith Field, Bakersfield, J. W. Byfield.

Orange county—High School, Santa Ana, Walter L. Scott.

Riverside county—Poly High, Riverside, H. E. Wilson.

San Bernardino county—Junior College, San Bernardino, D. P. Wieman.

San Luis Obispo county—Cal. Poly, San Luis Obispo, A. P. Agosti.

Ventura county—High School, Oxnard, H. K. Belford.

Contestants in the various meets in Los Angeles county are meeting for the purpose of picking representatives of these districts to participate in the Los Angeles county finals one week from tomorrow. The winners in the meets in the outside counties will have two weeks in which to prepare for the Southern California finals.

WEATHER HALTS TITLE CONTEST

off the extra poundage and after a light workout in an outer office came back and moved the beam at the 133-pound notch.

McLarnin was checked at 134½ pounds.

In view of the fact McLarnin's natural fighting weight is 138 pounds, the twenty-four-hour respite should be beneficial to him. If the fight comes off tomorrow night, neither man will have to weigh in again, but if another postponement is necessary they must go through the procedure followed today, on the afternoon before the battle, whether it be Saturday or next week.

The fighters rested in their respective hotels in town tonight. Both will do a little limbering up exercise upon arising tomorrow.

The postponement had no visible effect on the betting odds. Mandell remained a 6-to-5 choice to win the decision, in some quarters and 7 to 5 in others. There is no knockout money in sight.

Trojan Riders in Polo Clash

The far-famed Trojan horse, the subject of many of the University of Southern California songs and stories, will actually figure in the S. C. sport activities today. The Trojans take to horseback in the flesh at the Ventura Boulevard field when they make their bow as polo players in a game with a squad of Uplifters' Club riders. The Trojans, under the coaching of Lionel Pedley, have lined up a fast squad of mallet swingers for the game, which is the first polo tilt ever staged by Southern California students. On the Trojan team are Bob Magnus at No. 1, Jim Dailey at No. 2, Pedley at No. 3 and Sequoia Herd at back.

The Uplifters will send the following team into the game: Frost at No. 1, Feys at No. 2, Dr. Wilson at No. 3 and Clair Brunson at back. If the Trojans get by the Uplifters they intend to seek other games with Coast polo outfits.

SACRAMENTO COPS FROM DUCKS, 5-4

SACRAMENTO, May 17. (AP)—Sacramento's Senators, with the Junior College rookie Tom Flynn, on the mound, turned back the slugging Portland Beavers here today, 5 to 4, taking a one-game lead in the series. Flynn, a southpaw, got off to a wobbly start, but after the second frame, held the visitors in check. Home runs in succession by Sheely and Severeid accounted for the victory. Score:

FRANCE AND ENGLAND IN TITLE PLAY

Mlle. Le Blan Battles for British Women's Title at Hunstanton Today

HUNSTANTON (Eng.) May 17. (AP)—Mlle. Manette Le Blan, France, and Miss Sylvia Marshall, England, battered down stiff opposition in the semifinal round of the British women's golf championship today, and will meet in the title match tomorrow.

The French player put out Miss Enid Wilson, 1 up, while Miss Marshall, feminine star of Sandy Lodge Club, removed Miss Judith Fowler by the same narrow margin.

Mrs. Dorothy Campbell Hurd, last of the American contingent in the competition, lost in the morning round which also brought the elimination of Miss Mabel Wragg, rough-weather golfer, who eliminated Miss Glenna Collett, yesterday. The weather today repented of its chill boisterousness of yesterday and turned a smiling sun upon the surviving players.

Mrs. Hurd kept pulling her shots against Miss Fowler and even on the greens was frequently to the left of the cup after her putts. Miss Fowler took an early lead and went on to win, 3 and 2.

ADVANCE AGENT OF PYLE'S BUNION DERBY ARRIVES IN GOTHAM TO STEAM UP RACE

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER

C.C. PYLE

NEW YORK, May 17.—Mr. Will "Slim" Pickens, who is associated with C. C. Pyle in the trans-continental trudge of the limping bunionists and other enterprises calculated to elevate the living standard of C. C. Pyle, has arrived in New York in advance of the footrunners to stimulate local interest in the finish of the race which will occur at the new Garden about ten days hence. Ordinarily, in his position as advance man for great scientific and educational spectacles, Mr. Pickens would describe himself as being "on ahead," but in this case he makes a fine distinction, saying, "I am merely here in advance; I have never been ahead of Mr. Pyle."

Your correspondent has received several inquiries lately which indicated that the public was insensible to the finer aspects of the bunion derby and interested almost solely in something that might be termed a sordid detail, namely the financial element. Deprecating this commercialism, Mr. Pickens nevertheless has been prevailed upon to explain why some fifty men of supposedly sound mind have run all the way from Los Angeles to the western tier of New York State and will continue to run, if possible, until they fetch up Eighth avenue, New York City.

"Well, I will tell you," Mr. Pickens said. "A number of enterprising gentlemen living in Southern Missouri and Oklahoma became envious of Kansas City and the towns along the old Santa Fe Trail to the Pacific Coast. So they put through an alternative highway called United States Highway No. 66, from St. Louis southward through Springfield, Joplin, Tulsa, Oklahoma City, Amarillo and so forth, to Los Angeles. But people did not know about this fine highway and they continued to travel west by the Santa Fe Trail, so one day Mr. Pyle was invited to address the Highway 66 Association at Sprinfield. They built a special soap box of reinforced concrete for Mr. Pyle and when he got through addressing them about his plans for the bunion derby, as it has been termed by the thoughtless element, it was impossible to tell whether they had sold him the idea or he had sold it to them.

"These gentlemen then returned to their respective cities and persuaded their respective chambers of commerce and so forth to pledge funds for the support of this fine contribution to the glory of American athletics. Tulsa and Oklahoma City subscribed $5000 each; Joplin, Springfield, Amarillo and East St. Louis put up $1500 each; Miami, Okla., put up $1000; Chandler, El Reno, Chelsea and Bristow, Okla., guaranteed $750 each; Gallatin, Mo., and Claremore, Okla., put up $500 apiece and there was $400 apiece from Sapulpa and Elk City, Okla.

"Appreciating the fine spirit of these cities, Mr. Pyle did not scorn even the most modest contribution. He even accepted sums as modest as $200. A large coffee company entered into the spirit of the thing and decided to furnish coffee free of charge to the athletes in Mr. Pyle's troupe. This touched Mr. Pyle very deeply and he agreed to let the company furnish the coffee and place its advertising matter on the convoy cars in consideration of the purely nominal sum of $5000, cash in hand. A drug company showed a similar spirit, offering to furnish liniment for the runners and Mr. Pyle granted them permission to do this, for the same nominal sum. Another firm, wishing to assist in the great enterprise by furnishing arch supporters and other appliances for the feet, was able to offer only $2500 but Mr. Pyle did not have the heart to refuse. He said, 'It isn't the amount; it's the spirit of the thing,' and he took the $2500.

"Then in order to restrict the field to runners who really had a sincere desire to inculcate a love of athletics in the youth of our country and keep out mere triflers, Mr. Pyle charged all starters a nominal entry fee of $25. These fees amounted to $6400, a trifle, I grant you, but received in the spirit in which it was given.

"But, of course, Mr. Pyle is treating the runners in a very generous manner in keeping with the character of the man. He is giving a $25,000 prize to the winner of the cross-country race and other prizes, making a total of $48,000. However, he has made provisions to protect all prize winners from exploitation by unscrupulous managers. He has made contracts with all of them somewhat similar to the contracts between Simon Legree and his subordinates, whereby Mr. Pyle will receive 50 per cent of all their earnings from athletic exhibitions, testimonials and what not, for a period of two years.

"He did overlook one thing, I believe. He does not receive 50 per cent of their prize money, but the best of us make our slips and he is only human."

"But Mr. Pickens," your correspondent protested, "this running 3500 miles is a great strain. Aren't you afraid somebody will come out of it with an enlarged heart?"

"That is possible," Mr. Pickens replied. "But it won't be Mr. Pyle."

GEORGE GODFREY MAY RETURN SOON FOR BOUT WITH CLISBY

George Godfrey may return to California after his match with Johnny Risko at Ebbets Field June 20 to box Neal Clisby, Matchmaker Wad Wadhams believes such a bout would be the real black natural of the country due to the present steam shown in Clisby's wallop.

Clisby meets John Lester Johnson next Tuesday night at the Olympic. Ordinarily a club offers the winner another match, but in this case Johnson figures himself out in advance.

Johnson would never box Godfrey and Godfrey has refused many times to fight Johnson. Wadhams once offered George a Johnson match, but it was refused.

Clisby is receiving on an average of three or four offers a day for matches in all sections of the country since his fifty-six-second kayo of Mack House. He prefers to box at California clubs if there is a chance of getting another Godfrey match.

Johnson arrived yesterday and opened training. He is in splendid shape due to his recent bout with Long Tom Hawkins at San Diego. Hawkins has been winning regularly. Not long ago he took seven out of ten rounds from Jack Renault.

Johnson flashed his old-time form and defeated Hawkins with comparative ease. Those who saw John Lester in action against Hawkins say he looks better than when he boxed here over a year ago.

John Lester travels alone. He carries no manager. He makes his own terms. Clisby and Lester weigh about the same and they will be evenly matched.

Dario Barron is facing one of the best boys San Francisco has developed recently in Sammy Offerman. The winner of this bout will probably box Mike Watters. Baby Sal also figures, but he is lighter than either Barron, Watters or Offerman.

Jimmy Dougherty is slated to come to the Coast with Joe Anderson, arriving here not later than next Tuesday. Anderson boxes Jack Willis the 29th inst.

Wadhams is planning to use a double main event on June 5 featuring Phil Floto and Vigo Doman in one of the ten-rounders.

CECILY CUNHA SETS RECORD IN HOLLYWOOD SWIM MEET

Miss Cecily Cunha, representing the San Clemente Swimming Club, established a new Pacific Coast record in the 150-yard free-style event for the feature of last night's Olympic tryout and exhibition swimming meet staged at the Hollywood Athletic Club. Miss Cunha, who is expected to land on the United States Olympic swim squad, negotiated the 150 yards in 1m. 48 2-5s., which is just three seconds slower than the world's record. Marjorie Lowe, also of San Clemente, S. C., finished second in the race, which was a handicap affair.

Another feature of the evening was Weston Kimball's 2m. 26s. performance in the 220-yard free-style event for a new Southern California mark. The old record was held by Wally O'Connor at 2m. 22 2-5s.

Kimball, who swims for the Hollywood A. C., wasn't the only paddler to beat O'Connor's record for in the high school meet held before the tryouts, Austin Clapp, Hollywood High merman, splashed the distance in 2m. 22s. Clapp's time established a national interscholastic mark.

Johnny Weissmuller, most famous of modern swimmers, was present at the meet and gave an exhibition of speed swimming. Weissmuller also put on a comedy swimming act that drew a big hand from the large crowd of fans.

Other results follow:

100-meter backstroke for men—Won by Harold Kloeffel (H.A.C.;) A. Bixler (P.C.C.,) second. Time, 1m. 14s.

100-meter free style for men—Won by Weston Kimball (H.A.C.;) Bela Kendall (U.S.C.,) second; Norman Kettering (P.C.C.,) third. Time, 1m. 1s.

200-meter breast stroke for men—Won by Jerry Ballou (L.A.A.C.;) Van Giles (Glendale,) second. Time, 3m. 8 2-5s.

100-meter backstroke for women—Won by Olive Hatch (L.A.A.C.;) Irene O'Byrne (S.C.,) second. Time, 1m. 34 1-5s.

220-yard breast stroke for women—Won by Margerite Gould (L. A. A. C.;) Ethel Lush (L.A.A.C.,) second.

Newcomers in Banning Race Track Entries

New cars and new faces will make up one of the fastest entry lists in the history of the Banning American Legion Speedway Memorial Day, when thirty odd knights of the roaring road vie for honors in the first big racing program of the year. Banning's famous speedway, long recognized as one of the fastest tracks on the Pacific Coast, is being groomed and regraded for the first time in a year.

Legionnaire sponsors of the speed classic expect to see new records established over the famous track on Memorial Day when the daredevil drivers battle for the Pacific Coast championship and the largest purse on the Coast.

Gorchakoff Downs Vines in Straight Sets

Mrs. Bundy Enters Women's Singles Finals

Jack DeYara, former Franklin High Schol luminary, and holder of the city municipal championship, featured the play yesterday in the Southern California senior tennis championships when the local product eliminated Phil Neer of San Francisco, second in the men's seedings, and one of the title favorites, by scores of 6-3, 7-5.

DeLara gave his northern rival little, if any, chance to get started. The winner got off to a flying start, grabbing a 4-1 lead in the initial set, but Neer came back to cop two straight gains and trail the 3-4. Neer had an advantage point in the eighth game to tie the count, but a double-fault and two net errors lost his service. With the score 5-3 in his favor, DeLara ran through the next game for a first set win.

The second frame resulted in the most brilliant display of tennis for DeLara. The local youngster showed uncanny ability for volleying at the net, which, combined with some very speedy backcourt drives and steady backhand placements, turned the tide in his favor after Neer had evened the count at 5-5, and held a pair of advantage points for the eleventh game. DeLara proved too steady, however, breaking Neer's delivery and copping his own with ease.

Ben Gorchakoff, Occidental collegian, entered the semifinals along with De Lara, by defeating Ellsworth Vines, 6-4, 6-4. Gorchakoff broke his adversary's service at will, and seemingly had little trouble in copping his own. Ellsworth showed flashes of ability at the net, especially on the overhead smashes, but the variety of attack of his foe proved too much, and he succumbed.

Mrs. May Bundy, women's title favorite, romped through Miss Joe Cruickshank, 6-3, 6-3, to enter the singles final. The ex-world's champion kept her youthful junior foe on the run at every stage of the game, and so tired the youngster, that she was unable to win her most crucial points.

Today's card offers some very interesting tilts. Clif Herd and Frank Gove clash in one singles with Joe Saunders and Gene Warren in the remaining singles battle. Gorchakoff meets the winner of the latter contest tomorrow, while DeLara faces the winner of the former pairing on Saturday also.

Miss Gladys Patz and Midge Gladman, old junior Southland foes, will cross rackets in the feature tilt of the women's division. Though Miss Gladman is the favorite, the University of Southern California court star will be closely pushed for victory.

Phil Neer and Ben Gorchakoff tangle with James Ruscher and Ellsworth Vines in the doubles semifinal at 4 o'clock.

Yesterday's results:

Brown Bows to Bill Tilden

ST. LOUIS, May 17. (AP)—William T. Tilden, Philadelphia, captain of the United States Davis Cup squad; George Lott, Chicago, and John Hennessey, Indianapolis, won their matches in the second round of the Davis Cup trials here today.

Capt. Tilden defeated Wray Brown, leading St. Louis player, in a thrilling five-set battle, while Lott won from Wilmer Allison, Fort Worth, Tex., in straight sets. Hennessey won by default from Arnold Jones, Providence, R. I., after two sets had been played. Jones suffered a sprained ankle and was unable to continue. Hennessey was leading, 6-4, 7-5, at the time.

The Tilden-Brown match closed the afternoon's program. Tilden won by scores of 6-3, 3-6, 6-3, 5-7, 6-4. Only eight points separated the two players. Tilden scored a total of 181 points while Brown's count was 173 at the end of five sets.

Bowling Notes

Diamond Dick Ladies of Los Angeles with scores of 820, 817 and 846 totaled 2483 to take first place in the five-women team standing of the women's auxiliary of the Pacific Coast Bowling Congress at the Dome Recreation, Ocean Park, yesterday. The former record was held by the Jensen Parrots who finished second with 2361, twenty-one better than the total of 2340 which won them the championship last year at Oakland. The former high mark was topped for the third time when the Angelus Academy five finished with 2353 for third position. Hazel Taylor, anchor woman, rolled by a three-pin spare on her last ball, which if registered would have placed the team in second place. Bimini Bowl five registered a 2015 total to replace Setser Recreation of Santa Monica, for the leadership in the 650 booster team division.

The high mark set by the new leaders may prove to be the winning bid for the five-women title. Only a remarkable exhibition by the four San Francisco quintets, who are scheduled May 21 will prevent the Los Angeles five from carrying away the 1928 championship, five gold medals and a purse of $300.

Memorial Race for Lockhart Attracts Aces

Aces of the roaring road are highly interested in the program scheduled for Sunday, May 27, at Ascot, when forty or more pilots will go to the post in the events scheduled to result in a fitting memorial for Frank Lockhart, youthful Los Angeles driver who was killed last month on a Florida beach while attempting to lower the world's speed record.

Speed Hinckley, one of the veterans who drove against Lockhart during his sensational career at the Alhambra-avenue oval, was one of the pilots who took the dust thrown up by the spinning wheels of old No. 27 under the handling of Lockhart, and he was one of the first to sign an entry blank. Until Lockhart began chasing records at Ascot Hinckley was considered the most reckless pilot on the dirt tracks of the West. After the first race he gracefully subsided in favor of the youngster who set a mad pace from the drop of the flag.

DUDLEY DOWNS DUTRA, 6 AND 5

Meets Chet Beer Sunday for "Pro" Championship

Rio Hondo Star Shoots 72 to Annex Low Gross

BY EDWARD LAWRENCE

TOM STEVENS

Ed Dudley of Hollywood meets Chet Beer of Bakersfield for the Southern California professional golfers' championship in a thirty-six-hole match at Fox Hills Sunday morning.

Olin Dutra was at his best yesterday, but his best was not quite good enough, particularly when Dudley had another 67 for the morning round. Dutra had a 70, good enough to win most matches on most courses, but at the end of eighteen holes found himself four down. The match ended 6 and 5 with Dudley still shooting better than par golf.

Dudley's performance at Fox Hills has been one of the most brilliant in his long career. His work on the greens has been particularly notable and one-put greens are the rule with him rather than the exception.

Chester Beer, who hails from the Stockdale Golf Club of Bakersfield, won his way to the finals by defeating Tom Stevens, 6 and 5. They were even at the end of eighteen holes, but Stevens went higher than a kite in the afternoon round.

MARTIN SHOOTS 72 AT LA CUMBRE

Dave Martin, Rio Hondo's brilliant golfing youngster, won low gross in the qualifying round at La Cumbre yesterday with a 72. The tournament is being played in connection with Santa Barbara's annual golf week. First round play is scheduled today, two rounds tomorrow, a consolation round tomorrow afternoon, and mixed foursomes Sunday.

Low net was won by Howell Smith, 81-10-71.

Martin faces Danny Sangster of Potrero today. Sangsters qualified in the championship flight with an 81. Jack Neville, former State champion, had a 77, Ray Palmer a 78, and W. W. "Bill" Campbell, Johnny Arneill, Earl Barker, and Harry Westbrook, 79's.

Pairings and scores were as follows:

David Martin (72) vs. Danny Sangster (81.)
Earl Barker (79) vs. H. S. Robbins (82.)
Harry Wesbrook (79) vs. Babe Julian (83.)
A. S. Durkee (81) vs. Ray Palmer (78.)
Jack Neville (77) vs. Peter Cooper Bryce (81.)
Johnny Arneill (79) vs. W. Buckerman (82.)
H. K. Backelber (80) vs. Norman Macbeth (83.)
Howell Smith (81) vs. Bill Campbell (79.)

SAN BERNARDINO PREP GOLFERS WIN

Redlands high school golfers lost their first match of the season to San Bernardino, 12 to 3, on the Country Club course yesterday.

Results:

Redlands (3)—Bartlett (0,) Blodgett (0,) Rabe (0,) Woessner (0,) Anshutz (3.) San Bernardino (12)—Stockton (3,) Derring (3,) McInerny (3,) Lyda (3,) Shepherdson (0.)

MRS. TAYLOR WINS BRENTWOOD TITLE

Mrs. Rex Taylor won the Brentwood women's championship yesterday when she defeated Mrs. H. R. Erkes, 2 and 1. Mrs. Ray Molks won Class B over Mrs. M. C. Clancy, 3 and 2.

GIRARD TOURNAMENT IN THIRD ROUND

Second-round results in the annual spring handicap at Girard Golf and Country Club were announced yesterday by Manager Perry Ferguson.

Jimmie Johns defeated Eddie More 2 up, and Bill Jacks defeated Choedy Jennings 1 up, in the first flight. Matches between Bob Robinson and Perry Ferguson and Bill Jelliffe and Roger Eaton were postponed because of the participation of the players in the Lakeside classic, but will be played off before the semifinals on the 26th inst.

In the second flight Doug Stahl defeated Ed Sanford 1 up, G. D. Harrington defeated Ed Radcliffe 1 up and Frank Winne defeated Les Silvera 2 and 1.

AHLBERG SHOOTS 83 AT SUNSET FIELDS

The B. H. Dyas Company fifty-four-hole medal play tournament, now in the second round at Sunset Fields, is bringing to light some excellent golf. Of those who played yesterday K. Ahlberg, with a score of 83-14-69, was out in front as far as gross scores go. L. York, with 85-15-70 was close on his heels and in an excellent position. Among the other good scores turned in to the main B. H. Dyas store last night were: J. Hollywood, 97-20-77; C. Kay, 92-20-72; J. Cody, 94-15-79; E. Von Goerlitz, 94-22-72, A. Kreiger, 93-15-78; M. Case, 110-38-72, and H. Haggerty, 100-27-73. The second round of play, scheduled at Sunset Fields, must be completed this week.

Baby Sal is After Barron

Frankie Boldt of St. Louis meets Baby Sal Sorio in the main event at the Main-street club tomorrow night.

Sal is in excellent condition and is anxious to defeat Boldt for more than one reason. Frankie is all that stands between Sal and a return bout with Dario Barron at the Olympic.

George Carpinson has been signed to meet Leo Wolf in the semi-wind-up of the week-end show. George is going good and should be able to take Leo. Mickey Fuente meets Dud Eades in the special event.

BY LEE SHIPPEY

YESTERDAY I was sitting at ease, feeling comfortable and happy and not worrying about anything, when a thinkless ass came in and spoiled it all with the bright, original remark: "Gosh, ain't it hot!"

Then I suddenly began to sweat and feel gummy and worry about the ice bill and the laundry bill—and the more I worried the more I sweated—and the more I sweated the more I worried—and the more I sweated and worried the more I suffered.

Any time that any man comes up and makes an entirely unnecessary remark about how hot or cold it is it's evidence that misery loves company. A man like that can make 85 feel like 110 in the shade of the icehouse.

I don't believe in lying to ourselves and vowing everything is perfect when a lot is far from perfect. But when anybody can see how imperfect things are, what's the use of talking about 'em unless we can improve 'em?

But the trouble is, we lie the wrong way. Just to be saying something we speak of a really invigorating evening as if it were dangerously chilly, or a little wholesome midday heat as if we were in the midst of the Sahara.

We seem to feel we're not really appreciating ourselves unless we magnify our experiences into ordeals, and so many of us manage to really suffer when we haven't any real right to.

Yes, Palomine, you can always find something to kick about. But when you do, you're the thing that ought to be kicked about—or out.

INDIAN CHIEF TELLS GOVERNOR WHITE MEN NEED PEACE PIPE

SACRAMENTO, May 17. (AP)—The white man needs the peace pipe of the Indian, said Standing Bear of Pine Ridge, S. D., chief of the Sioux tribe, into which President Coolidge was inducted last summer, when he called upon Gov. Young this morning to discuss California's arrangement for the care of Indians within her borders.

"When the Indian touched his lips to the peace pipe, that ended the conference and sealed the bargain," the chief said. "A promise thus made could not be broken. Chiefs suspected of treachery could not smoke the pipe. But white men put their hands on a Bible, swear and then go out to break their promises."

The chief also expressed disapproval of motion picture representations of Indians. "The motion-picture people think," said the chief, "that a chief must always be a big man and habitually wears his ceremonial headdress and costume. But the biggest chief of them all, Crazy Horse, did not wear the headdress and he was a little man, smaller than I am." Standing Bear is of medium height.

He said the gesture of uplifted palm with which cinema Indians greet each other is used by real Indians only when they want to stop a runaway horse, while the statuesque pose with folded arms is no more a typical pose with them than it is with the white men who sometimes assume it to rest their arms.

EN VOTERS' AGUE UPHELD

Denies Restraint on Civic Interest

Work Not Opposed, She Asserts

Urged to Activity in Politics

, May 17. (AP)—Miss president of the California League of Women Voters, in today and tomorrow in her annual report through its nonpartisan activity of its political parties, she said, "that women should educate themselves in citizenship, should take their responsibilities in voting seriously, and should take an active part in politics.

WITH RESERVATIONS

"Certain officers of the league, such as presidents, because of the nature of their duties, might endanger the nonpartisan standing of their leagues by advocating particular parties or candidates for public office. Any member of the league, therefore, is urged to enter political parties and work for candidates, but officers of the league should discuss with their boards of directors the advisability of entering politics during their terms of office."

Reports of officers and standing committees followed an address of welcome by Miss Edith N. Stanton, director of Asilomar and member of the Monterey Peninsula League of Women Voters, and responses by Mrs. George P. Costigan, northern vice-president, and Mrs. Nellie Hall Root, southern vice-president.

NEW VOTER UNITS

Mrs. Benton Grant, chairman of the new-voters committee, announced formation of new-voter sections at the University of California at Berkeley and at Los Angeles.

The girls have adopted slogans and give tags to those who vote for student officers, she said. They claim this method is successful in getting the student vote.

'Big Bill' Held Child Tempter

CHICAGO, May 17. (AP)—Mayor Thompson's entertainment of Chicago school children at an amusement park was under fire today from the Juvenile Protective Association.

Through the Mayor's efforts the children, 2000 or more at a time, are being released from school for one day to spend the time at the park. One or more schools are closed daily to enable the children to make the park excursion.

The protective association, in a letter to the Mayor, said conditions at the park were a bad influence upon the children.

"We deplore the fact that the children are urged by the chief executive to go in such large numbers to a place where they are subjected to temptation and urged to patronize gambling machines operated in defiance of law," the letter said.

"The most detrimental influence upon the children is the penny arcade. These machines were all being used by children under 16, some so small that they had to be lifted up to see the highly improper pictures."

NEW FAWCETT RUMOR NAILED

Dyott Fails to Find Trace in Burite District

Trucks Chartered for Trek Across Plains

Next Halt Will be Made on San Manoel River

BY COMMANDER GEORGE M. DYOTT

(Copyright, 1928, in all countries by North American Newspaper Alliance.)

COMMANDER GEORGE M. DYOTT

BURITE (Brazil) May 17. (Exclusive) (by radio)—We have made extensive inquiries regarding the supposed appearance of the missing explorer, Col. P. H. Fawcett, in this district, but there apparently is no truth to the rumors. He has not been seen or heard from since May, 1925.

This expedition to rescue Fawcett, which I am leading in the interest of the North American Newspaper Alliance, has traveled the road where, according to these rumors, he was almost devoured by mosquitoes. Oddly enough, there is not a mosquito in this zone. The nights are chill, and there has been a temperature of 61 since we have been here.

WAS NOT FAWCETT

If any stranger was seen by the wayside, as the reports had it, that stranger certainly was not Fawcett, and everyone we have spoken with says the rumors are entirely without foundation.

During our brief pause at this mission station we are arranging our cargo before continuing on to the San Manoel River, 150 miles northeast. As our route there traverses the open plains we have chartered motor trucks to carry our luggage, which, with the food supplies, weighs more than three tons.

Forty-five bullocks have been assembled on the banks of the San Manoel to transport us farther afield, to Bakairi, where Fawcett was last seen. Our direction then depends on what indication we find of his movements.

IN GOOD CONDITION

All in my party are in good condition, with a fine appetite for rice and beans as well as for the adventures which lie ahead in the savage, trackless wilderness. The long delay in starting was hard on us. But our preparations have been made carefully, and we will reap the reward.

On such expeditions there always are large elements of risk, and we could not afford to enter the wild country badly prepared. Three men at one of the government's outposts were killed by Indians recently, and consequently it is hard to get men to help us. We have selected five good camaradas, and the government is assisting in friendly fashion.

SAN MANOEL NEXT

You will next hear from us at the San Manoel River, where we shall require several days to ferry our cargo across and to load it on the bullocks for Bakairi, two days' march to the north.

We are receiving broadcast programs on short wave, much to the astonishment of the few persons met. So far we have found no large game, and our only encounters have been with fleas and ticks.

Much apprehension is expressed regarding the outcome of our search for Col. Fawcett. If we listened to one-quarter of what is told we would consider ourselves dead and buried.

Stewart Makes Second Plea to Bar Indictment

WASHINGTON, May 17. (AP)—A second special plea to bar the indictment of Robert W. Stewart, charged with refusing to answer questions asked by the Senate oil committee, was filed today in the District of Columbia Supreme Court.

The new plea set up the argument that because Stewart answered the questions and did not defeat the purpose of the oil investigation he had committed no crime.

Argument on the first special plea, which asked dismissal of the indictment on the ground that Stewart answered questions on April 24 that he had refused to answer February 2 and 3, were heard by Justice Siddons Tuesday. The justice had expected to hand down his ruling this week. The new plea will require arguments which are expected to be heard Saturday.

Figures Reveal Baptist Growth

WASHINGTON, May 17. (Exclusive)—The Department of Commerce announced today that there were in the United States 7612 churches of the northern Baptist convention in 1926, with 1,290,438 members, as compared with 8148 churches and 1,232,135 members reported in 1916. The 1926 figures are exclusive of 105 federated churches, each consisting of a northern Baptist unit combined with a unit of some other denomination.

These federated churches whose Baptist units are regularly affiliated with the northern Baptist convention, reported a Baptist membership of 5392. If these federated churches, with their Baptist membership, be added to the data given above for the northern Baptist churches, the total number of churches becomes 7717 and the total Baptist membership 1,295,830. In the census of 1916 there were 243 colored churches included with the northern Baptist convention, which in this census, because of their membership in colored associations, are included with the negro Baptists.

'Lupin' Cleared In Gem Scandal

NEW YORK, May 17. (AP)—Noel C. Scaffa, private detective, charged with compounding a felony in connection with the return of $687,000 in stolen jewels to Mrs. Jessie Woolworth Donahue, 5 and 10-cent store heiress, was ordered acquitted by the court at his second trial today. The jury at the first trial disagreed.

The jewels, including a $500,000 necklace, were stolen from Mrs. Donahue's hotel room in 1925 and a few days later were returned by Scaffa after he had been authorized by Mrs. Donahue to pay a reward of $65,000 to an otherwise unidentified "Sam Layton," described as an underworld go-between.

MADRID-TO-LISBON PHONE LINK OPENS

MADRID, May 17. (AP)—Telephonic communication between Madrid and Lisbon was inaugurated today by Col. Tafur, director of communications, who spoke to his Lisbon colleague. Gen. Primo De Rivera from his office in the Ministry of State exchanged greeting with President Carmona of Portugal. After the preliminaries King Alfonso had President Carmona on the wire and they exchanged greetings. Then the service was opened to the public.

SICK WORKERS PROVE COSTLY

Two Billions Yearly Loss Borne by Industry

NEW YORK, May 17. (AP)—An economic loss of $15,000,000,000 annually is incurred in America through accident, sickness and death, Charles H. Herty, adviser to the Chemical Foundation, Inc., today told the annual meeting of the National Industrial Conference board.

The cost of illness as represented in lost wages, reduced production and necessary medical care, Herty said, is estimated at $2,250,000,000 a year. Hospital maintenance, the capital value of lives lost and economic loss occasioned by unpreventable disease and death bring the total loss up to the $15,000,000,000 estimate.

At the conference were leading executives of industry, transportation, mining, commerce and finance, employing many wage earners, and the heads of national and State associations comprising more than 50,000 industrial concerns.

FOREIGN LOANS AT HUGE TOTAL

Six-Year Period Aggregate Put at $492,729,075

Twenty Nations Benefit in American Capital Flow

Federal Department Gives Investment Data

WASHINGTON, May 17. (AP)—In the six years from 1922 to 1927, inclusive, American investors have acquired securities of foreign financial institutions to a total value of $492,729,075.

A Commerce Department study of the flow of capital abroad into this character of investment points out today that nearly twenty foreign countries have benefited by the loans.

The largest American investment in foreign financial institutions is in Germany, amounting to $205,000,000, and the next largest is in Chile, in excess of $48,000,000.

Nearly all the American money is reported by note and bond issues of the foreign banks and lending institutions, but a considerable amount of stock also has come into the United States

The figures include only the total of publicly offered foreign institution issues, and it is believed that privately arranged purchases have resulted in substantial quantities of like securities being acquired in this country.

BILL PROVIDES FOR IRRIGATED LANDS SALE

WASHINGTON, May 17. (AP)—Lands in Mesa division, Yuma (Ariz.) auxiliary project, hereafter would be subject to sale in tracts of ten to 160 acres under a bill by Senator Ashurst, Democrat, Arizona, which was ordered reported favorably today by the Senate Irrigation Committee. The price of the land would be fixed by the Secretary of Interior and would include estimated costs of constructing and providing necessary works for its irrigation. The purchase price would be paid in forty equal annual installments, first of which would be payable at date of purchase.

CHANGES MINOR IN TAX CUT BILL

Prospect of Final Action in Senate Tomorrow

Employees of City and State Corporations Exempt

Effort to Boost Insurance Assessments Beaten

WASHINGTON, May 17. (AP)—Minor changes were made in the tax-reduction bill today during an all-day attack by proponents of the twenty or more amendments aimed at the measure and the dragging debate carried the Senate into its third week of consideration of the bill, with only a prospect of final action tomorrow.

An amendment by Senator Frazier, Republican, of North Dakota, increasing the exemptions allowed clubs from the 10 per cent club taxes from $10 to $25 was approved. Senator Brookhart, Republican, of Iowa, submitted the amendment on behalf of the North Dakotan, explaining it was proposed in an effort to relieve many golf and other small clubs which have dues only up to $25.

CITY EMPLOYEES EXEMPT

After a strenuous fight Senator Vandenburg, Republican, of Michigan, won his amendment to exempt salaries of officers and employees of State and municipal corporations from the income tax. This will affect thousands of employees of State and municipal waterworks and street-railway companies who are now taxed. State and city salaries are not subject to Federal taxation under the Constitution, but the Internal Revenue Bureau has been charging taxes against State and municipal corporation employees.

This amendment was carried by a vote of 40 to 30, but another attempt by Senator Vandenburg to allow refunds to the public-utility employees of taxes collected since 1926 under the present law was rejected, 49 to 23.

Senator Reed, Republican of Pennsylvania, renewed his attempt to have insurance companies include in their gross income which is subject to taxation the profits received from sale, or disposition of property. He was defeated, 45 to 21, after a sharp discussion.

INHERITANCE TAX DELAYED

The Pennsylvanian argued the insurance companies were escaping considerable tax payments through their dealings in property from which heavy gains were made but opponents to the amendment arose on both sides of the aisle to protest against increasing taxes.

The proposal of Senator Bingham, Republican of Connecticut, for repeal of the inheritance tax was put over until tomorrow because of the absence of the Senator from the [illegible] independents are prepared to wage a real fight against repeal of this tax but there were indications tonight that they would let it come to a vote tomorrow, confident of ability to defeat the Bingham amendment.

With this out of the way leaders believe the measure which now provides for a total reduction of $224,000,000 can be brought to an early vote.

Crop Insurance Inquiry Favored

WASHINGTON, May 17. (AP) — A bill authorizing the Secretary of Agriculture to investigate all phases of crop insurance and to disseminate information regarding insurance was passed last night by the Senate and sent to the House. The measure, introduced by Senator McNary, Republican, Oregon, also would have the department gather and analyze all data pertaining to crop insurance.

Wireless Meet Fund Proposed

WASHINGTON, May 17. (AP)—President Coolidge has recommended that Congress appropriate $12,350 for participation by the United States in the international judicial congress on wireless telegraphy in Rome October 1, 1928.

Sweden, Guatemala, Siam, Mexico, Ecuador, Denmark, Peru, Finland, Russia, Norway and Jugo-Slavia already have accepted invitations

Army Housing Bill Passed

WASHINGTON, May 17. (AP)—The Senate late today passed the Army housing bill, adding more than $6,000,000 in new projects to the $13,000,000 authorized in the House bill.

It now goes to conference for consideration of the Senate additions.

BARGE LINES BILL PASSED BY HOUSE

WASHINGTON, May 17. (AP)—The government barge lines, operated by the Inland Waterways Corporation on the Mississippi River, would be extended to that stream's principal tributaries under the Denison bill passed today by the House and sent to the Senate.

CLERKS ASSURED TRAIN NOT LOST

Mystery of Lopsided Schedule to Sacramento Solved by Espee Agent

SAN FRANCISCO, May 17. (AP)—Because the Southern Pacific advertises fifteen trains daily from the bay district to Sacramento and fourteen daily from the capital to the bay the harmony of its clerical force has been almost disrupted.

Is the company losing a train every day? If so, does it go to the port of missing trains? If not, where is it?

So many inquiries in this vein have been received that F. S. McGinnis, passenger traffic manager, finally threw his hands aloft in despairing surrender and solved the riddle so the clerks can get some work done. It seems the fifteenth train comes back as a mail train, hence it is not listed for the benefit of passengers.

expenditures. Circularizing the State cost $12,028; advertising took $8542, and the radio accounted for $887.50.

The Reed campaign cost $3675 in the north and $8730 in the south, a total of $12,405, as shown by reports from William P. Hubbard, president of the Reed-for-President Club, San Francisco, and Milton K. Young, chairman of the Reed-for-President campaign committee of Los Angeles.

RESOLUTION EXTENDS COMMITTEE'S AUTHORITY

WASHINGTON, May 17. (AP)—A resolution extending the authority of the Senate Presidential Campaign Funds Committee to embrace the activities of "political committees and party organizations and agencies" was introduced tonight by Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic leader and author of the resolution under which the committee is exploring the activities of the various Presidential candidates themselves and their immediate supporters.

In addition the resolution authorizes the committee to sit during the recess of Congress and reaffirms the authority of the investigators to summon witnesses, books and papers, administer oaths and to compel the attendance of witnesses.

The resolution supplements the original one introduced by the Democratic leader several weeks ago creating the committee. It would remove any doubt of the right of the committee to sit during the recess of Congress and to examine the responsible officials of national political organizations.

HEFLIN TURNS FIRE ON HOOVER AND SMITH

WASHINGTON, May 17. (AP)—Senator Heflin of Alabama again today brought Herbert Hoover, as well as Alfred E. Smith, within the range of his fire in a long and vigorous speech in the Senate. Referring to the testimony before the campaign funds committee concerning expenditures for the leading Republican and Democratic candidates as "astounding and diabolical," the Alabaman said the $250,000 sum given as the total for the Hoover campaign is "not a drop in the bucket to what he really has spent."

Testimony that only $103,000 had been spent on Smith's behalf is "enough to make Tammany Tiger laugh," he said, adding that in his judgment $10,000,000 has been spent on the Smith campaign since the 1924 Democratic national convention.

WITNESSES SCORED

Adverting to the testimony yesterday of William F. Kenny, wealthy New York contractor, and three other contributors to the Smith campaign fund, Heflin declared it is "unmitigated gall for these people to come to the Capitol and tell the Senate that they are going to buy the nomination for the Presidency.

"I never have seen such a bold and brazen attempt to intimidate the government," the Senator shouted. "When the time comes that a man can buy the nomination—backed by a powerful Catholic political machine—it's time we looked into it closely."

"If Smith is nominated at Houston he will run third in the November election," Heflin asserted. "The Republican party will run first; that is maybe it will; the Jeffersonian Democratic party will run second and the Roman Catholic machine ticket will run third."

FLING AT SENATORS

Shaking his finger vigorously at Republican Senators across the dividing aisle of the chamber Heflin said:

"That is why you Republicans are pushing Smith on us. If he is nominated you know that the Democratic party will cry like Paul 'Who will deliver me from the body of this dead?'"

Reiterating again and again that Smith will not be nominated at Houston, Heflin finally said:

"We've got his number. We've got him blocked and he will not be nominated at the Houston convention. I would rather have the Democratic party defeated in November than to have Smith nominated."

Naval Plane at Honduras

WASHINGTON, May 17. (AP)—Arrival at Tela, Honduras, of the marine transport plane that took off early today from Miami, Fla., was reported this afternoon to the Navy Department by radio. The message said the plane, which was attempting a nonstop flight from Miami to Managua, Nicaragua, landed at Tela at 2:35 p.m.

COLOMBIA AVIATOR PREPARES FOR FLIGHT

NEW YORK, May 17. (AP)—Lieut.-Col. Camilo Daza, head of the army air force of Colombia, arrived today to fly from Mitchel Field to Bogota, Colombia, over the route taken by Col. Charles A. Lindbergh on his good-will flight. Col. Daza expects to hop off before June in a Swiss plane with a Gnome motor. The plane arrived here two weeks ago and will be assembled at Mitchel Field.

Trade Commission Next to Enter New York

WASHINGTON, May 17. (AP)—The Federal Trade Commission inquired into the public relations work of the North and South Carolina Public Utilities Information Bureau today and recessed its public utility financing investigation to the 28th inst., when the activities of utility interests in New York will be scrutinized.

Samuel E. Boney of Raleigh, N. C., director of the Carolinas' bureau, was the only witness today. His testimony developed that he had written articles of utility publicity that were distributed to 6500 newspapers, civic clubs and individuals in the bureau's monthly bulletins under the names of persons prominent in his territory.

His testimony also showed that he had conducted a campaign against municipal ownership, surveyed the textbooks used in colleges and planned to remove those deemed unfavorable to the industry. And that he had circulated publicity against government operation of Muscle Shoals and the building of Boulder dam.

The bureau's membership consists of twenty-one street railways, electric and gas companies.

The witness said the bureau is being operated for interstate operating companies and that approximately $14,000 is spent annually in furthering public relations. He testified that the bureau co-operates with the National Electric Light Association, the joint committee of National Utilities Associations and the State utility bureaus in the exchange of literature and methods of obtaining publicity.

TURKEY THEFT "FORGOTTEN"

Senate Clears Army Record of Spanish War Veteran After Twenty Years

WASHINGTON, May 17. (AP) The Senate last night passed a bill clearing the military record of a Spanish War veteran who was dishonorably discharged from the army more than twenty years ago for the theft of two turkeys valued at $3.

Cromwell L. Barsley, the veteran, was restored to good standing by the measure which already had passed the House.

Triangle Killing Suspect Jailed

CHANUTE (Kan.) May 17. (AP)—Charged with first-degree murder, Roy Wilhite, a laborer, was held in the City Jail here today for the killing of Charles P. Baxter, prominent oil man. Wilhite's wife, a waitress, who said she had been intimate with the oil man, also was held pending an investigation.

Appointee ex-Democratic Committeeman

WASHINGTON, May 17. (AP)—Patrick J. Farrell of the District of Columbia was nominated by President Coolidge today to be a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission, succeeding John J. Esch of Wisconsin.

The appointment brings to an end the President's effort to retain Esch on the commission. The Senate refused to confirm Esch's nomination last December, whereupon Mr. Coolidge gave him a recent appointment under which he has served until this time.

Farrell now is chief counsel for the commission. He formerly was a member of the Democratic State committee of Vermont and a delegate to the Democratic national convention in 1896. He was born in Quebec.

CHICAGO VOTE FRAUD SHOWN

Recount Reveals "Stuffing" in Thompson's Favor

Clerks Will be Questioned by Special Jury

Machine's Loss Averages 37 Votes a Precinct

CHICAGO, May 17. (Exclusive)—Glaring descrepancies in favor of the Small-Thompson-Crowe candidates in the April 10 primary election were discovered today when the ballot boxes of ten selected precincts were opened and the ballots in them recounted in compliance with orders from Judge Jarecki, who is in charge of the Cook county election machinery.

In just these few precincts, the Small-Thompson-Crowe candidates were found to have been given several thousand more votes by the judges and clerks of election than were actually cast for them.

As a result of the disclosures, the judges and clerks of these precincts are to be ordered to appear before Judge Jarecki and explain, if possible, the descrepancies. It also is expected that the results of the recount will be called officially to the attention of Atty.-Gen. Carlstrom and the special grand jury that is to investigate the vote frauds in Chicago.

The old "ring system" apparently was worked. That is the system by which one ballot is first bought or stolen. It is then marked and given to a "stinger"—a man who votes in another man's name. The "stinger" takes the marked ballot into the polling place, obtains a clean, unmarked ballot, goes into the booth, folds the clean ballot and puts it in his pocket, comes out and deposits in the box the ballot marked for him in advance. Then he returns the clean ballot to the vote buyer, who repeats the operation until he has the ballot box stuffed to his satisfaction.

The precincts recounted show an average loss for the Thompson-Chowe-Small candidates of twenty-two to thirty-seven votes a precinct. If the 284 yet to be counted show the same average amount of fraud, the Small-Thompson-Crowe candidates will be 5680 to 9372 votes further behind their opponents on a recount than they are shown in the official canvass, it was said.

More vessels are passing through the Panama Canal than at any previous time in its history.

GOLF DRIVE MAY COST $20,210

Plaintiff Says Player Hit Him in Eye With Ball and Didn't Cry "Fore"

SACRAMENTO, May 17. (AP)—A long drive, one of many during the course of a golf game at William Land Park here on May 18, 1927, may cost W. L. Rose $20,210.

A. L. Brown has sued Rose for this amount, asserting Rose's ball hit him in the eye, causing a fractured nasal bone, suffusion of both eyes with blood, permanent impairment of eyesight and associated shock. He also asserts Rose didn't cry "fore."

Standard Cites Agreements on Burton Process

CHICAGO, May 17. (AP)—An attorney for the Standard Oil Company of Indiana today told a Federal court that one of the early conditions upon which the company granted licenses to use the Burton cracking process was that the using company refrain from shipping gasoline into territory where the Standard operated.

The Federal Court is hearing a government petition to recommit its suit charging violation of the Sherman antitrust law to a master in chancery. One master, Charles Martindale of Indianapolis, advised the court there are no grounds for action.

Virtually all the larger oil companies are defendants.

Judge Anderson, one of the three Court of Appeals members sitting as district judges, asked R. Wiles, attorney for the Standard, if the Burton license provision is not a restraint of trade.

"Yes, those early agreements did constitute restraint, but it is a legal restraint," he replied.

Many of the early provisions of the licensing, it has been argued, have been dropped, including the territory factor.

The government contends the oil companies entered into a conspiracy to obtain patents and after obtaining ownership of them sought to restrain trade and credit prices. The master found the patent-pooling agreements improved trade and cheapened gasoline prices.

Assistant Attorney-General Urged as Team-mate

Congressman Says Farmers Back Californian

Secretary Wants Name Put Up by Own State

BY ROBERT B. ARMSTRONG
"Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 17. (Exclusive)—Representative Albert Johnson, veteran member of Congress from the State of Washington, and chairman of the committee of the House on irrigation, comes back from a trip across the country, in which he visited many States, convinced that Herbert Hoover of California is to be the next President of this country. He is confident that the Kansas City convention will nominate him on an early ballot and that the farmers of the West, many of them fearful that the equalization fee of the McNary-Haugen Act would be a real danger, will support him.

Representative Johnson has figured out just how Hoover will be nominated and is strong for having Col. William J. Donovan, Assistant Attorney-General of the United States, nominated for Vice-President with the Secretary of Commerce at the head of the ticket. He stresses his being a dry and his fine war record.

Representative Johnson believes a Hoover-Donovan ticket will be unbeatable in November. Mr. Johnson, returning to the capital from a trip through Illinois, Missouri, Kansas, Arizona, California, Oregon and Washington, reported the sentiment in all these States is overwhelmingly for Hoover.

"A movement is on foot in the Pacific Coast States, when the time comes on June 15 for the nominating speech, for California to yield to Pennsylvania so Senator David A. Reed may, in a fifteen-minute speech, place Secretary Herbert Hoover in nomination for the Presidency, with the words that Hoover not only is a favorite son of California but is the favorite son of the nation," Mr. Johnson said.

"Pacific Coast residents think the Hoover-Donovan ticket will be unbeatable. Mr. Donovan is dry. He served as captain, major, colonel and assistant chief of staff of the Twenty-fifth Division in the World War. He was wounded three times and awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor and the D.S.C. for extraordinary heroism in action."

HOOVER WANTS CALIFORNIA MAN TO NOMINATE HIM

WASHINGTON, May 17. (AP)—Herbert Hoover wants a delegate from his home State of California to nominate him for the Presidency at the Kansas City convention, and his personal choice is understood to be John McNab, a San Francisco attorney. There is some expectation here, however, that McNab may prefer to have some other member of the California delegation place the Commerce Secretary in nomination.

Tentative plans call for Theodore Burton, the veteran member of Congress from Ohio, who has been one of Hoover's outstanding supporters, to make one of the seconding speeches. As yet it has not been determined who else will be Hoover seconders, although it is planned to include a woman in that group.

This program for placing the Cabinet official's name before the Republican convention was outlined by his political associates today after Representative Johnson, Republican, Washington, had said in a statement that Senator Reed of Pennsylvania might be given the honor of nominating Hoover.

LOWDEN RESTS HIS CANDIDACY ON FARM AID

CHICAGO, May 17. (AP)—Frank O. Lowden rests his candidacy for the Presidency on the Republican party's willingness to meet the farm problem.

"If the party is unwilling to meet the issue I do not want the nomination," he asserted here today, to a select audience of four reporters. The former Illinois Governor, emphatic in his declaration, punctuated his statements with short-arm jabs to the nearest reporter's chest.

"I do not want the kind of fame that rests on an unsuccessful campaign," he observed.

Lowden, on his way from Washington and New York to his down-State farm, sees the possibility of defeat if the party does not accept farm relief as one of its duties.

Agents Smell Cargo of Liquor

NEW YORK, May 17. (AP) — Rare wines, brandies and whisky valued at $30,000 were seized aboard the Munson liner Minamar from Nassau today after government agents had smelled their way to the hiding place of 2800 bottles.

John McAdams headed the group of three Federal officers engaged in searching the Minamar by the usual methods. They discovered a strong odor of alcohol but there was nothing in sight to arouse suspicion except a trickle of water from the ship's aft tank. McAdams dipped his finger in the water and touched it to the tip of his tongue, and found that it had a special flavor suggestive of punch.

The tank was drained of about eight feet of water and the agents discovered the 416 burlap bags on the bottom. The bags were filled with bottles containing an assortment of wines and spirits. Some ten bottles had been broken during the trip.

Values Safeguarded

It is a very significant fact that in almost any group where new communities are being discussed, Rancho Santa Fe, by common acceptance, is put in a class by itself.

This acceptance is due largely to the Rancho Santa Fe plan, a new and unusual method of safeguarding community interests and individual values.

This plan has so touched the imaginations of successful people that 85% of the orchard estates at Rancho Santa Fe have been sold.

Yet what remains is to many people the choicest of all... a group of small estates overlooking the $200,000 golf course now under construction. You are urged to make an early visit to these.

Radio All Ready to Care for Conventions

Every Detail Will Go Out o Sound Waves

Famed Announcers Plan for Broadcast

NEW YORK, May 17. (Exclusive) Politics is scheduled to break loose on the radio world next month in the most extensive feat of radio reporting yet attempted by broadcasters.

The Republican and Democratic political conventions will be brought into the homes of radio-owners in their entirety, from fiery speeches and orchestral selections to "mass murmurs and roars and the colorful pictures of the assemblies."

IN MANY LANDS

M. H. Aylesworth, president of the National Broadcasting Company, Inc., announced today that the convention broadcasts now being arranged will shatter all existing records for radio coverage in an event of international importance. They will be heard in South America, Europe, Asia and New Zealand.

An extensive network of more than seventy stations, utilizing 10,000 miles of special radio telephone circuits including two transcontinental lines, will carry the proceedings from Kansas City and Houston to every corner of this country and beyond.

Graham McNamee, one of the foremost radio announcers of the country, will head a large staff of reporters and broadcasters, assisted by Marley Sherris.

WRITERS TO TALK

Political writers and analysts who have attended other conventions in the past also will speak, interpreting the proceedings.

An enormous technical staff in charge of Eugene F. Grossman, operating engineer, will go to the conventions to make certain the reports will be free of static.

The din will penetrate the peaceful corners of the earth by way of the short wave broadcasts from station KDKA in Pittsburgh and station WGY in Schenectady.

LEAGUE TO OPEN SUGAR CRISIS QUIZ

Special Committee Asks Early Investigation of World-wide Problem

GENEVA, May 17. (AP)—An exhaustive inquiry into the crisis in the sugar industry by the League of Nations seems a certainty.

The special sugar committee of the International Economic Conference agreed today upon the text of a resolution emphasizing the worldwide importance of the problem and the desirability for its urgent treatment. The resolution recommends that the council request the League's economic organization to undertake, as soon as possible, an investigation of all the factors influencing the production, consumption and international commerce in sugar. The council subsequently will decide whether a special international conference will be the best means of finding a solution.

A telegram was received from the Beet Sugar Federation of Prague emphasizing the importance of the beet sugar industry to European economy and declaring that no durable solution of the sugar problem is possible without taking into account the interests of beet sugar producers.

The conference also voted to ask the League to investigate the crisis in the coal industry.

Mexico Founds Economics Board

MEXICO CITY, May 17. (Exclusive)—President Calles has signed a decree authorizing the establishment of a permanent national economics board for studying and advising upon all phases of national economics. The board will be composed of thirty representatives of government departments, chambers of commerce and financial and industrial groups. The board will act as adviser to government secretaries on all national economic questions.

Bakers Strike in Mexico City

MEXICO CITY, May 17. (AP)—Approximately half of Mexico City's bakers are on strike for higher wages. The strikers, numbering about 1200, have not worked for several days and while the bread supply is short, the situation is not serious.

The Chamber of Commerce, fearing that the strike may spread and possibly develop into a general sympathetic walkout in other industries, has appealed to President Calles to intervene.

Another case was where a rich man left his wife and legitimate children only $150,000, but his mistress and illegitimate children $7,500,000. The problem was raised by Viscount Astor demanding the appointment of a district committee to inquire whether a change in laws governing such matters was necessary, in insisting that the wife and children have first call on a husband's estate.

The present lord chancellor and two former chancellors during the debate united in condemning Viscount Astor's proposal stressing to the opposition that any step was likely to cause more washing of soiled family linen in the public courts, whereupon Viscount Astor withdrew his demand.

P.-T.A. ELECTION BATTLE LOOMS

Convention Begins Monday at Santa Cruz

Mrs. R. L. Cardiff May Get Into State Fight

Burlingame Woman Only Regular Nominee

SAN FRANCISCO, May 17. (Exclusive)—Indications were received here today that the California congress of parents and teachers faces a lively time in electing officers when the annual State convention goes into session at Santa Cruz next Monday. It is expected a fight will center around the naming of the State president, with district skirmishes adding fuel to the flames.

As the situation now stands, only one ticket for Stae offices is in the field, this having been selected by the nominating committee recently at San Diego. It is headed by Mrs. W. J. Hayes of Burlingame.

BOOM MRS. CARDIFF

Prior to the announcement of the ticket, Mrs. R. L. Cardiff of Santa Cruz, who is general chairman in charge of arrangements for the State meeting, was tacitly in the field and it is understood her friends will make a stand for her at San Diego. The single ticket selected apparently indicated a difference of opinion and nothing further was heard of the probabilities of Mrs. Cardiff as a contender for State honors until today.

Then came statements from Santa Cruz to various club women who are members of the P.-T.A. setting forth a summary of Mrs. Cardiff's history in connection with the organization and speaking of her in glowing terms. Without hesitation, the communications were characterized as indication that Mrs. Cardiff is still to be considered in the allotment of State officers and that she and her friends may make a determined effort to put an opposition slate into the field from the floor of the convention.

MANY ACTIVITIES

Mrs. Cardiff now is third vice-president of the State association and director of its extensions. She has been an active member for fifteen years and is credited with having introduced the existing State budget system while acting as State chairman of finance. She is a former first vice-president of the State organization, serving in that capacity when Mrs. Hugh Bradford was president. She is the mother of five children and is first vice-president of the California public safety conference.

At least one other factional dispute is in prospect, and that is in the second district P.-T. A., where it is understood several members have turned longing eyes on the places of section counselors. That this may develop further is seen in the calling of caucuses for the various sections so their ambitions may be threshed out and simplified before going to the general sessions.

BOY TO BE SOUGHT IN RIVER NEXT

Sand Pile Fails to Give Clew to Lost Youth and Playmate Tells New Tale

CHICAGO, May 17. (Exclusive)—Dragging of the Chicago River will be started tomorrow morning by police, following the latest story told by Bruno Bogdon, 9 years of age, concerning the mysterious disappearance last Monday of his playmate, John Pyrek, 8, son of a city fireman.

Bruno's first story was that John had been kidnaped by a strange man and was imprisoned in a box car. A sand pile story followed a vain search of several hundred box cars. He and John had played on the sand pile, the sand slid and buried John—that was the second story.

When the last shovelful of the vast pile of sand had been turned over late this afternoon without revealing the body of the boy, Bruno was unabashed at the failure of the search which he had been directing.

Bruno then led police to the river bank about two blocks from the sand pile that had been searched. "John was fishin' for crabs and when he reached for one he fell in," Bruno added.

CHURCH COURT DEPOSES BAST

Bishop Unfrocked Following Trial at Kansas City

Place as Minister Retained Pending Danish Action

involved—which declaration is "false."

A final appeal to the judiciary committee of the general conference remains open to the suspended bishop. He did not indicate today whether an appeal will be taken, but in discussing the trial court's action indicated that the verdict is no surprise to him.

As the case stands, Bishop Bast's future rests in the hands of his annual conference, which must give him a charge unless he is unfrocked by that body after trial.

DECLARES INNOCENCE

"In my heart I still know that I'm innocent," Bishop Bast said. "For some time I have foreseen such a verdict might come, because the church would not care to establish the precedent of going against secular court decisions.

"My call still is to preach." He indicated he will be content to become a Methodist minister in Copenhagen.

Bishop Bast was temporarily suspended from his area in Northern Europe by a church tribunal at The Hague in March, 1927, following his conviction in Danish civil courts on a charge involving his management of "The Lighthouse." He served a three months' term in jail.

The church court's verdict was reached after a trial lasting nearly two weeks, during which the bishop was called several times to give and hear defense evidence. He did not hear the church's evidence, which was basd largely on documents brought from Denmark.

OTHER CHARGES IMPEND

Bishop Bast's conviction threatened to open up charges of connivance against Bishops Edgar D. Blake of Paris and John L. Nuelsen of Zurich, who have had supervision over Bishop Bast's area since his suspension.

Bishops Blake and Nuelsen face complaints preferred by Rev. Andrew W. Shamel of Pasadena, Cal., that they withheld important information from church officials in America in reporting the Bast civil trial. It is understood they told American church officials Bishop Bast had obtained a "moral victory," as his conviction was solely on a technical count.

Mr. Shamel said today he will decide tomorrow whether the charges will be pressed following a conference with interested parties.

FIVE PRELATES GIVEN RETIREMENT

KANSAS CITY, May 17. (Exclusive)—Formal action was taken by the Methodist Episcopal general conference today retiring five bishops who have reached the age limit; Berry of Philadelphia, Wilson of New York; Oldham of Buenos Aires; Thirkield of Chattanooga and Warne of Bangalore, India. The retirement takes effect at the close of the present general conference.

Some days ago the conference ordered a committee of five bishops to visit each of the national conventions and urge a dry plank in the party platforms. E. H. Cherrington of the Anti-Saloon League, obtained a modification of that order, so that committees will be sent, but not necessarily composed of bishops, since it might be impolitic to send a committee made up entirely from the episcopal board.

During a discussion of the Eighteenth Amendment, the Fourteenth and Fifteenth amendments intruded themselves into the debate. Several negro delegates insisted that, if one amendment which is widely disregarded is to be urged for rigid enforcement, two other amendments even more generally evaded should be included. Final consideration of everything relating to the Fourteenth and Fifteenth amendments was deferred, but today's action practically serves notice on the conference that the negro delegates will insist on the strongest possible utterance concerning the denial of the franchise to negroes in the Southern States.

Another resolution was strongly phrased in defense of dry workers who are "under fire" in various ways. In its last paragraph there is a demand for the enforcement of all laws in general and of the Eighteenth Amendment in particular. Before the report was adopted this was changed so as to refer only to the Eighteenth Amendment.

BOMBING AROUSES CHICAGO

Action Taken for Wholesale Jailing in Terrorism Plot Seeking to Free Notorious Gunman

CHICAGO, May 17. (Exclusive)—The dynamite bomb that late Wednesday night blasted the home of Fred W. Eicke, one of the jurors who dared the enmity of Chicago's gangland by voting to send one of their number, Eugene (Red) McLaughlin to the penitentiary for fourteen years, will find a speedy echo in a grand jury investigation to run down and punish the bombers, it was promised today.

The plan of action outlined by the authorities in a series of conferences late today was for the grand jury to vote a series of blanket indictments against those involved in the terrorist methods used in an effort to free the notorious gunmen and gangsters and for Judge John P. McGoorty, in whose court the case was tried, to swing into action at once with direct-contempt action and immediate jailing of the culprits so far named.

HEAVY BAIL IMPOSED

So far as McLaughlin is concerned, Judge McGoorty made sure of his incarceration by setting a record Criminal Court bond of $100,000. This amount of bond, which means a schedule of $200,000 worth of real estate, has never before been set in the Cook County Criminal Court for a single offense.

As a result of last night's "pineapple" tossing Judge McGoorty arrived in his court today prepared for war. "The situation at present seems to this court to be unprecedented in the history of Cook county," he declared. "We have had testimony that witnesses have been intimidated in this case and a prospective juror approached with bribery and threatened.

"Now, on the heels of that, comes this bombing of the home of that juror. This act presents a challenge from crime that cannot be dodged, and this court is prepared to meet it."

Robert McLaughlin, president of the Checker Cab Company, who is credited with scaring away Walter J. Newman, New York jewelry salesman, for the robbery of whom "Red" McLaughlin was sentenced, and Joseph McLaughlin, another brother, together with Gustav Steinweg, secretary and treasurer of the chauffeurs' and teamsters' union, all are to face Judge McGoorty tomorrow morning.

Robert McLaughlin is to answer for threats made by him to Newman and trying to intimidate the salesman to change his testimony. Joseph is to be asked about threatening the life of Francis Healy, attorney of the Jewelers' Association. He is credited with saying to some of his companions before Healy, "That is the bird responsible for Red's sentence."

Steinweg's plight is brought about by his appearing at the home of Juror Eicke with another man and telling Eicke that "Red should get a fair deal in the jury room and you will be taken care of." Steinweg admitted going to the juror's home, but denied saying the things Eicke charged him with.

"It was a fellow named Donaghue I took to Eicke's home," Steinweg said. "He came to me Saturday and said he was an investigator of prospective jurors and wanted me to go see a fellow who might be on the McLaughlin jury.

WANTS CONSPIRACY CHARGE

"I didn't even know we were to see Eicke, whom I know, until we got there. This Donaghue merely asked him to give McLaughlin a fair trial if he got on the jury."

Frank J. Loesch, president of the Chicago Crime Commission, declared that to safeguard the rights and peace of mind of future jurors, the State's Attorney should get indictments immediately against the men responsible for the attempt to intimidate jurymen and for bombing the Eicke home.

"And they should be indicted," he said, "for conspiracy to commit murder. It is extremely important that future jurors know they have the protection of the law."

Mr. Loesch said the bombing of Eicke's home is still another example of "the amazing conditions that confront the city of Chicago."

Radio closed $1 a share higher at $190.50 after bobbing up and down between $182.50 and $192. General Motors rallied from an early low of $195.12½ to $201.87½, closing at the top for a net gain of $3.62½. American International opened at $108.25, ran up to a new high record at $125, and closed at $122.37½ for a net gain of $11.50. American Telephone showed consistent strength on buying influenced by the cutting of another "melon," soaring nearly $15 a share to a new high record at $211, and then yielding to $208.25 on profit-taking.

The erratic nature of the day's fluctuations kept many traders from the market with the result that total sales fell more than 1,000,000 shares below yesterday's record-breaking session of 4,887,400 shares.

FLEET SEIZES PEARL HARBOR

ly defeated the land planes defending the fortifications before sunrise, affording the naval planes free opportunity to spot and report land battery positions.

In the breaking daylight the destroyer squadrons swept in from the sea before the advancing dreadnaughts, laying down a smoke screen from Diamond Head to Barber's Point. The battlecraft poured a steel hail onto the forts in an hour's artillery duel from behind the screen, silencing the land batteries.

The only definite technical casualty suffered by the "attacking" fleet was the sinking of the submarine V-2 by a naval torpedo plane in the opposing ranks.

SPECTACULAR SIGHT

The exercises presented a highly spectacular sight to observers on land. The giant searchlights of the fortifications throughout the night swept over the offshore waters, while hours before the attack torpedo planes of the defending fleet released huge flares from thousands of feet in the air in an effort to locate the attacking squadron.

The work of the aircraft, both in observation and combat, and that of the destroyers in effectively cloaking the advance of the battle craft, was highly commended by Admiral Louis R. DeSteiguer, commander-in-chief, and Maj.-Gen. Fox Conners, commandant of the Hawaiian department, who witnessed the mimic battle from the flagship California.

Both commanders emphasized the importance of adequate air forces as adjuncts to land batteries in repulsing attacks from the sea.

AIR CONTROL ESSENTIAL

"Control of the air is the first essential in modern naval and military tactics," Gen. Conners said. "The fleet's air superiority this morning proved a deciding factor in the engagement."

More than 100 vessels and 30,000 men composed the battle or "Black Fleet" under Admiral DeSteiguer and the "Blue" or defending fleet under the command of Rear-Admiral Pratt, while 20,000 men of the Hawaiian army forces were engaged simultaneously in the maneuvers. There were no casualties among the personnel.

The fleet will return to Honolulu for week-end liberty. It will be based on Lehina Roads for final phases of tactical exercises, while the U.S.S. Texas is scheduled to sail from Hilo on the 21st inst. for San Francisco. Admiral Henry A. Wiley will be aboard her en route to Washington for duty on the naval selection board beginning June 4.

CONSUL SCORES TEXAS PRELATE

Funeral Oration Held Blow at Good Relations

Archbishop Accused of Trying to Start Conflict

Drossaerts Insulted Calles, Official Charges

SAN ANTONIO (Tex.) May 17. (AP)—A direct charge that Archbishop Arthur J. Drossaerts of San Antonio sought to precipitate a "grave international conflict" by his recent funeral oration over the body of Bishop Ignacio Valdespino of Aguascalientes, Mex., is made in a formal statement issued by Enrique Santibanez, Mexican Consul-General, here today.

The statement denied that there is religious persecution in Mexico and suggested that the Catholic Church has "resuscitated in Mexico the Byzantine epoch in which thousands were killed in a canonic dispute as to whether the Father and Son were the same."

Archbishop Drossaerts in his funeral orations over the bodies of Most Reverend Jose Mora y Del Rio, archbishop of Mexico City and head of the Mexican hierarchy, and Bishop Valdespino referred to conditions in Mexico as being comparable to the early Roman persecutions. In the latter address he also intimated that "a manly gesture" on the part of the United States is appropriate if this country is to maintain its ideals of liberty. He denied that he or any Catholic prelates want armed intervention.

KILLINGS ADMITTED

Senor Santibanes in his statement admitted the two prelates died here in exile, that they were the exemplification of virtue and that a number of priests have been shot in Mexico.

"The origin of all of these difficulties," he said, "was a simple disposition of the Mexican government to the effect that every clergyman should inscribe himself in a register. The Catholic priests denied Mexico the right to open such a register, stating that they would not accept orders from any source except the Vatican, and, in order to compel the Mexican government to retract, they discontinued their religious services. This disobedience provoked the civil war, as several priests raised armed parties and fought against the Mexican Federal Army.

REBELLION SUPPRESSED

"The bishops did not condemn this attitude. They declared themselves in open rebellion to law, and this and nothing else caused their expulsion from Mexico. . . . Therefore, those who have opposed the law are living in exile and those who have opposed the law by arms have perished.

"He (Archbishop Drossaerts) has taken advantage of his position and character to insult the President of my country, and he (Drossaerts) intends to involve the two republics in a grave international conflict.

"I will invite him to exercise across the border all the courage he has shown in the sacred cathedral and to convert his filibuster of words into a filibuster of deeds."

ARMY OFFICER AND COUNT [illegible] DUEL OVER NEGRO JAZZ [illegible]

PARIS, May 17. (Exclusive)—The persistent attentions of a Hungarian cavalry officer, Andrew Czlovoydi, to Josephine Baker, a negro cabaret singer of Harlem and later a sensation in the music halls of Paris, have provoked a duel between that officer and the reputed husband and manager of the singer, Count Pepito di Abatino.

One thing to which the Count took special exception was a passionate poem in French by the cavalryman which he addressed to the singer and in which he characterized her as "the black sun of the city of light."

The duel occurred in St. Stephen's Cemetery in Budapest the singer now appearing in a revue in that city. Prior to the so-called affair of honor the two men met in a night club and soon after they confronted each other there was an exchange of face-slapping, followed by the issuance of a challenge by the Count.

Seconds arranged the meeting at dawn amid the cemetery tombstones.

ICE-AGE RELICS FOUND IN EGYPT

Nile Valley Yields Antiques of Far-Gone Era

Claims of Fundamentalists Held Disproved

Biblical Chronology Wrong, Says Scientist

CHICAGO, May 17. (Exclusive)—Discoveries made by the expedition under his direction in the upper valley of the Nile dispose for once and all the last arguments of the fundamentalists who take the chapters of Genesis for their scientific textbook, is the belief of Dr. James H. Breasted, professor of oriental history at the University of Chicago, who returned home today from the survey in the Bible lands.

Implements of chipped stone—arrow and spearheads principally—found imbedded in the banks of Nile must have been made by the hands of men who lived several hundreds of thousands of years ago, the Egyptologist stated.

ANTIQUITY ASSERTED

"The discovery of these implements was most important," Dr. Breasted said. "Heretofore, scientists have met only with surface indications in this region. Now we have geological evidence. These men must have lived in the Pleistocene Age, which corresponded with the Ice Age in Europe.

"Fundamentalists argue that the traces of prehistoric man found in Western Europe are really traces of degenerate man. Our survey traces prehistoric human implements found in the Bible land of Egypt imbedded in earth strata which furnish the data to determine their geological age.

"I recently received a letter from a fundamentalist, who wrote: 'I don't believe that men existed before the date of creation in the Old Testament.'

DATES EXPLAINED

"Of course, there was no date of creation given in the Old Testament," Prof. Breasted said, pointing out that Archbishop Ussher, primate of Ireland, about 1650 formulated a scheme of Biblical dates which someone inserted as marginal notes in some editions of the King James version.

"However, evidence we have found in Egyptian river valleys antedates the archbishop's dates by several hundreds of thousands of years."

The discoveries in the Nile Valley are only a part of the university's field work in the Orient. Other expeditions are at work in Palestine and Asia Minor.

PRE-GREEK SKELETONS

The Hittite expedition, Dr. Breasted reported, has uncovered the first skeletons of pre-Greek days found in Asia Minor. Thirty-one complete skeletons were given to the scientists by the Turkish government. Dr. Breasted praised the co-operation of the Turks warmly.

"If they are given fair and honest treatment," he said, "they are as fair and honest as anybody. Heretofore they have not received that kind of treatment."

The skeletons Dr. Breasted dated at the thirteenth century before Christ. He brought back a large number of facsimiles of temple inscriptions made by a new process.

United States Minister Sent To Abyssinia

WASHINGTON, May 17. (AP)—Diplomatic relations have been reestablished by the United States with the Empire of Ethiopia, or Abyssinia, as it has been known, whose reigning Queen, Empress Waizeru Zauditu, daughter of the late King Menelik, and the heir and Prince Regent, Ras Taffari, 27 years of age, assert descent from King Solomon and the Queen of Sheba.

Addison E. Southard of Louisville, Ky., who was appointed by President Coolidge as Minister resident and Consul-General at Addis Abeba after a special representative of the Empress had visited Washington and asked the President to resume diplomatic relations, which had been suspended since 1909, reached the Ethiopian capital February 24. In a resort to the State Department just made public he describes his reception as very friendly.

Florida City's Heads Indicted

SOUTH JACKSONVILLE (Fla.) May 17. (AP)—Mayor Harris, Police Chief Steinhauser, Paul C. Marion, president of the City Council, County Commissioner Belote, Fire Chief Smith and several other prominent men of South Jacksonville have been indicted by the Federal Grand Jury on liquor charges, it was announced today by Francis L. Poor, assistant United States District Attorney.

Three indictments, two charging conspiracy and the other a misdemeanor, were returned.

Mayor Harris, Chief Steinhauser, Lieut. J. F. Jones of the police department, and others of importance were granted a reasonable time in which to post bond ranging from $1500 to $2500.

Two Agrarian Chiefs Killed

MEXICO CITY, May 17. (AP)—Dispatches from Espinazo, State of Nuevo Leon, today said differences between two agrarian groups had resulted in a clash in which Tomas Soso, Agrarian leader, was killed. Jesus Garcia, who did the killing, was later knifed to death by agrarians from Bajan as was Atanasio Garcia.

A Federal detachment was rushed from Saltillo and captured six asserted ring leaders, restoring order.

BOSTON VICE QUIZ NAMES POLICEMAN

Arrested Broker Involves Officers in Revelation of Liquor Conditions

BOSTON, May 17. (AP)—To five men arraigned yesterday on secret indictments by a special grand jury investigating liquor and vice conditions in this city there has been added today the names of five policemen, including three headquarters inspectors who are asserted to be involved.

John F. Mullen, Boston broker, who was charged with conspiracy to obstruct justice and conspiracy to steal, is reported to have been the man to furnish the District Attorney's office with the additional information.

Mullen was committed to jail in default of $14,000 bail, $12,000 of which was required to cover a long-standing larceny charge against him. Last night he is said to have summoned Asst. Dist.-Atty. Doyle to his cell and to have implicated the policemen in a long statement.

Besides Mullen those indicted are James A. Hatton, former assistant United States District Attorney; Nicholas C. Cockinas, an agent of the Watch and Ward Society; Albert K. Sidlinger, Boston, and Ralph E. Gross, Lowell. All except Cockinas surrendered voluntarily.

The men pleaded not guilty and were released on bail.

Judicial Trial for Guardsman Attacker Asked

WASHINGTON, May 17. (AP)—Rear-Admiral Billard, commandant of the Coast Guard service, told the Senate Commerce committee today that he desired a judicial tribunal to fix the blame for the shooting of Jacob D. Hanson, the 6th inst., by a coast guardsman.

The commerce committee is investigating the case at the request of Senator Copeland, Democrat, New York. Hanson was shot by a Niagara Falls guardsman when he failed to obey a command to halt his automobile. No liquor was found in the car.

World Combine of Ink Makers Being Discussed

NEW YORK, May 17. (AP)—Negotiations for a world-wide consolidation of printing ink and varnish manufacturers in which the Ault and Wiborg Company in Cincinnati will figure as one of the leaders, is being conducted by Dillon Read & Co., New York financiers, it was learned today.

It is understood that the merger will be financed by a holding company whose capital stock will be issued in the form of common and preferred shares for public offering.

Convict Makes Tamper Charge

SACRAMENTO, May 17. (Exclusive)—Charges that his individual witnesses had been tampered with by other defendants and their counsel, flung by Albert M. Stewart, "lone wolf" in the trial of six Folsom convicts here, caused a sensation in court today.

Stewart, who is acting as his own counsel, is estranged from the other convicts because, in their first trial, he voluntarily took the stand and turned State's evidence.

Just before adjournment today, Stewart arose in court and asked the judge to instruct the other defendants and their counsel to "leave his witnesses alone." He complained that his fellow-defendants are interfering with witnesses he has called on his own behalf.

Angeleno Pays Forest Fire Fine

SACRAMENTO, May 17. (AP)—California's first forest-fire prosecution in 1928 cost Joseph Harris, Los Angeles salesman, $50. Harris was arrested in Mendocino county by E. E. Roach, State ranger, for having set fire to a box of rubbish and thrown it into the grass along the highway.

Roach, who was near by, extinguished the fire before the box was burned and trailed Harris through his name, which had been written on the box. Harris was tried and found guilty in Hopland.

Family of Five Drowned in Bay

ANNAPOLIS (Md.) May 17. (AP)—Everett Insley, 30 years of age, Baltimore barge captain, his wife and three children were drowned when the barge Calvert, in tow, bound for Urbana, Va., with crushed stone, sank suddenly in the middle of Chesapeake Bay about twelve miles south of here, early today. Insley and his family were asleep in the cabin. A watchman on the barge was rescued.

Fifty Arrested in Kansas City Raid

KANSAS CITY, May 17. (AP)—Fifty persons were arrested this afternoon in police raids on two asserted gambling houses. Police said horse race betting was under way when the raids were made. Four persons were booked as game keepers and forty-six as frequenters.

One place raided was in the old University Club Building where a watchman was killed several days ago in a bandit raid on a dice game.

PARENTS URGED TO FIGHT COLDS

Whooping Cough Unusually Prevalent in State

Isolation of Sick Children Held Important

Disease Most Contagious in Its Early Stages

SACRAMENTO, May 17. (AP)—Alarmed by the unusually large number of cases of whooping cough being reported in California this year, Dr. Walter M. Dickie, director of public health, today broadcast a warning to parents to guard their children, especially the younger ones, from what may appear to be contact with only an ordinary cold.

With 3232 cases already reported, Dr. Dickie said indications are that there will be a higher incidence of whooping cough this year than at any time since 1925, when 10,469 cases resulted in 470 deaths.

Isolation of all children suffering from what in its early stages appears to be a cold was urged by Dr. Dickie as an important step in controlling the spread of the disease. One of the difficulties in combating whooping cough, he said, is that the characteristic cough may not appear for a week and if sick children are not isolated until the cough appears, they will broadcast the disease, as it is most contagious in its earlier stages.

Dry Agent Asks $50,000 in Suit

SACRAMENTO, May 17. (AP)—George W. Brady, deputy prohibition administrator of Nevada, today filed a suit in the United States District Court for $50,000 damages against John Braessani of Plumas county, which the plaintiff asserts should be paid him for the humiliation suffered when the defendant had him arrested on a grand-larceny charge.

The defendant filed a demurrer, which was overruled by Federal Judge St. Sure. In overruling the demurrer, the court gave the defendant twenty days in which to answer.

The complaint sets forth that Braessani charged Brady with the theft of $100 following a raid made on Braessani's premises in Plumas county. Brady was brought to trial on a grand-larceny charge and acquitted. As a result he filed the damage suit against Braessani for "malicious arrest."

Plans for Further Expansion Pend in Texas

Directors of the Emsco Derrick and Equipment Company yesterday declared a 50 per cent stock dividend, payable immediately to stockholders of record December 31, last, and a cash dividend of 1 3-4 per cent, payable the 19th inst. to stockholders of record the 15th inst., according to an announcement made by Joseph Smith, secretary and treasurer of the company.

On November 1, 1927, the business and assets of the D. & B. Pump Company of California were acquired by the Emsco Derrick and Equipment Company and a deal is now pending for the local company to take over the management and ownership of the Emsco Derrick and Equipment Company of Houston, Tex. Upon completion of the latter deal, capitalization of the combined companies will aggregate $5,000,000, consisting of 50,000 shares of $100 par value, of which $4,500,000 will be available for subscription.

Net profit of the Emsco Derrick and Equipment Company and the D. & B. Pump Company for the first quarter of 1928, before Federal taxes, but after depreciation and depletion, amounted to $251,597. Sales for the same period totaled $1,524,265. Earnings for the current quarter are running slightly higher than last year, Mr. Smith stated. Net profit for 1927 after all charges amounted to $946,191, and sales totaled $5,712,277.

Emsco Derrick and Equipment Company is recognized as one of the leading manufacturers of steel oil well supplies in the United States, and shipment of its products are being made to oil fields in all parts of the world, Mr. Smith said. The company employs approximately 700 men in its Los Angeles plant and 150 men in its plants in Houston and Dallas, Tex.

Officers of the company are E. M. Smith, president; W. A. Trout, vice-president and general manager; E. W. Goeser, vice-president and manager of production; Charles Wagnor, vice-president and sales manager and Joseph Smith, secretary and treasurer.

TELEPHONE HOLDINGS GROW

American Bell Policy of Subscription Rights Builds Investment Total; Appreciation Traced

BY EARLE E. CROWE

American Telephone and Telegraph is the outstanding illustration of the benefit to the stockholder in maintaining a long pull position in a high-grade stock on which subscription rights are regularly declared. The stockholders in this premier public utility were notified yesterday of the terms under which this year's allotment will be sold, and the stock promptly marked up a new high in the New York market.

On the final price for American Telephone the day before the announcement was made the theoretical value of the rights is around $14. Yesterday the stock sold up to a high of 211, a gain of 16 points over the previous close, and finished at 208 1-4.

SHARES MULTIPLY

Since 1916 American Telephone has offered subscription rights at frequent intervals to stockholders. The stockholder who has exercised his rights during this period has benefited materially on the basis of existing quotations and has accumulated an investment that has grown one and one-half times in number of shares.

One hundred shares at the average price of 128 in 1916 cost $12,800. Including the latest allotment, subscription rights have been offered six times during this period, the ratio varying from 1 to 10 to 1 to 5, while the price has uniformly been $100. The exercise of these rights has increased the cost of the investment to $28,400, and the stockholder now has 256 shares, including the number accruing under the present offering. The average cost is $111 a share.

Assuming that the stock sells around $200 ex-rights, the 256 shares are worth $51,200. This is an increase of 80 per cent in the value of the total investment, or an average annual increase of 6.2 per cent.

Moreover, the stockholder has been receiving an annual dividend of $9 a share since 1921, and prior to that time the rate was $8 for a period of fifteen years. American Telephone and its predecessor have paid regular quarterly dividends at the rate of at least $7.50 annually during each of the last forty-six years.

SHARES WIDELY HELD

The widespread investment interest in the stock of this company is demonstrated by the figures showing an increase in number of individual holders from 7535 in 1900 to 423,580 at the end of 1927. Of the total stockholders at the end of the year 57 per cent were holding but from one to ten shares each, and not one of the stockholders owns as much as 1 per cent of the total outstanding stock.

From the statement of policy made in the last annual report by Walter S. Gifford, president, these stockholders can anticipate the regular offering of new stock, and can look forward to a continuation in the growth of their investment if the rights are exercised, as the foregoing figures show. But stockholders cannot expect extra or special dividends, they were told. President Gifford stated:

"It is the policy of the company to pay only reasonable regular dividends and, for part of the new capital needed, to offer from time to time new stock to its stockholders on favorable terms, for it believes this method of financing will provide the money needed for the business cheaply and with more certainty in good times and bad than any other."

Change in Name Comes Up Today

Proceedings will be instituted today to change the name of the California Petroleum Corporation, a California corporation, to the Texas Company, also a California corporation, Jacques Vinmont, president, announced yesterday. Hereafter the new name will be used to describe all operations formerly conducted under the name of the California Petroleum Corporation, Mr. Vinmont said.

The Texas Company will function as the operating company for the Texas Corporation in California, although the California Petroleum Corporation, a Virginia corporation, will remain in existence. The stock of the latter company was exchanged for shares of the Texas corporation on a two-for-one basis. To date more than 97 per cent of the stock has been presented for exchange.

Revised Report Issued on 1927 Cotton Output

WASHINGTON, May 17. (AP)—Revised estimates of last year's cotton crop, announced today by the Department of Agriculture, place the area in cultivation on July 1 at 41,905,000 acres, the area picked at 40,138,000 acres, the yield of lint cotton per acre at 154.5 pounds and the total of cotton actually picked at 12,955,000 equivalent 500-pound bales. Ginnings of the 1927 crop totaled 12,950,473 equivalent 500-pound bales, as announced by the Census Bureau.

These figures compare with a June 25 area of 48,730,000 acres for the crop of 1926, a harvested area of 47,087,000 acres, a yield of 18.26 pounds of lint per acre and a total production of 17,977,000 equivalent 500-pound bales.

The area picked and the estimated total production in equivalent 500-pound bales, by States, follow:

Rumor Afoot of Merger in Milk

SAN FRANCISCO, May 17. (Exclusive)—Unconfirmed reports were circulated in the financial district today that a merger impends of Golden State Milk Products Company, National Ice and Cold Storage Company and the Los Angeles Creamery Company.

Lacking confirmation, the reports were attributed to financial experts analyzing several mergers which have taken place in the milk and milk products field in the last several months.

L. E. W. Pioda, chairman of the board of directors of the Golden State Milk Products Company, did not clarify the situation when he commented only that, "our company intends to continue to expand along sound lines. We are primarily interested in the wholesale end of the business."

F. B. Whipple, president and general manager of the National Ice and Cold Storage Company, was reported out of the city.

LONDON, May 17 (By Wireless) The violent slump in Wall street yesterday was reflected in all industrial markets here in which American money has been active. Prices opened flat, but recovered slightly by noon.

Recovery in oils was especially weak. Investments, however, were firm, apparently because it was considered that they would not be specially sensitive to any rise in the New York bank rate owing to the comparatively small American balances in London.

NEW FRUIT AUCTION SETS DAY TO START

Operation of the new California Fruit Auction Company in the Produce Terminal of the Central Manufacturing district will begin on the 24th inst., George A. Charters, president of the company, announced yesterday. It proposes to hold the first sale at ten in the morning and will close Saturdays and Sundays. The facilities of the auction service will be open to all shippers and buyers of fruits and produce.

THE STOCK MARKET

BY CHARLES A. DICE,

Professor of Finance, Ohio State University

NO. 15. BROKERS' RATES

The broker, in accepting the customer's order, agrees to attend to all the technical details involved in the buying or selling of stock on the exchange. For this service he receives a commission. If the stock is to be carried on a margin he borrows the money at his bank to pay for the stock. In borrowing he regularly pledges the customer's stock for the loan of funds. He must pay interest on the borrowed funds and, therefore, he charges his customer a rate of interest on the accommodation.

The rates of commission charged by members of the exchange are net. No rebates, discounts or allowances of any sort, either direct or indirect, may be given by the broker.

COMMISSION RATES

Since November 1, 1924, the following scale of minimum commissions has been in force:

	Per share
On stocks selling below $10 a share	7½c
On stocks selling at $10 to $25 a share	12½c
On stocks selling at $25 to $50 a share	15 c
On stocks selling at $50 to $75 a share	17½c
On stocks selling at $75 to $100 a share	20 c
On stocks selling at $100 to $200 a share	25 c

On stocks selling at $200 a share and over, 25 cents a share for the first $200 in price and 5 cents a share additional for each $50 increase in price or fraction thereof.

INTEREST CHARGES

The broker charges interest on debit balance and pays interest on credit balances. Since an active trader will be buying and selling frequently his balance with the broker will be changing almost every day or even many times the same day. Interest is computed on the balance as it stands at the close of business each day. At times the account will show a credit balance. The time during which a credit balance draws interest is computed from day to day the same as on a debit balance. A flat rate of 6 per cent is customarily used to compute the interest on both the credit balances and the debit balances. At the end of the month the interest on the debit balance is adjusted to the rate allowed on credit balances.

The rate at which the adjustment is made is ascertained by finding the average rate the broker has paid on all his borrowed money. To this average rate he adds a small charge for his service in managing the loan, perhaps ¼ to ½ of 1 per cent. The rate allowed on credit balances is the result of many competitive factors which need not be taken up at this time.

PROFITS UP FOR FOSHAY UTILITIES

Annual Report Reveals Net Increase in Period of 6.55 Per Cent

Net earnings of the Public Utilities Consolidated Corporation, available for interest, depreciation and dividends, amounted to $484,901.70 for the twelve months' period ended March 31, last, a gain of 6.55 per cent over the same period of last year, it was reported by the company yesterday. The corporation is controlled by the Foshay interests.

Gross earnings for the period aggregated $1,238,445.98, as compared with $1,179,049.27 in the corresponding period of last year, an increase of $59,396.71 or 5.04 per cent. Operating, administrative expenses and taxes amounted to $753,544.28, an increase of $29,596.06 or 4.09 per cent.

Net operating income for March, amounted to $31,985.42, a gain of $1441.20 or 4.72 per cent over March, 1927. Gross earnings for the month totaled $92,748.88, as against $91,552.96, last year, an increase of $1195.92 or 1.31 per cent. Operating and administrative expenses decreased .4 per cent or $245.28 to $60,763.46 over March, 1927.

M'Cargar Quits Banking Field

SAN FRANCISCO, May 17. (Exclusive)—Jesse B. McCargar, vice-president of the Crocker First National Bank, former president of the California Bankers' Association and one of the most widely known financial figures in the State, today announced his resignation. He has been connected with the Crocker institution since 1905. His resignation follows that of James J. Fagan, also a vice-president of the bank, through whom McCargar first became associated with the Crocker institution.

"I am going fishing," McCargar said when asked his reasons. "I need a vacation and I propose to put on some boots and old clothes and go out into the wilds and forget for a time all about financial and other business matters."

Queried as to whether or not he planned to retire from active business life, McCargar replied:

"Retire? Well I should say not. No, I have just resigned. As to my future plans, I do not care to say at this time. Wait until I return from my fishing trip."

Bancorporation Adds to Chain

United States National Bank of Salem, Or., has passed to the control of West Coast Bancorporation, which was organized last week with a capital of $5,000,000, and which has already acquired the West Coast National and Peninsula National banks of Portland, it was announced yesterday.

United States National is the second largest bank in Salem, according to the report, and has deposits of $3,000,000. Some of the directors are expected to be appointed to the board of the West Coast Bancorporation. Assets of the two Portland banks taken into the company approximate $10,000,000. These figures do not include Western Securities Company, owned by stockholders of the West Coast National, which also will be taken over.

Ford of Canada Reports Slump

TORONTO (Ont.) May 17. (AP)—The annual statement of the Ford Motor Car Company of Canada, Ltd., for the year ended December 31, last, shows a decrease in net profits from $76.30 a share to $2.45. The decrease was attributed to the cessation of production caused by the change in models.

Accounts receivable were down $3,600,000 and inventories showed a reduction of approximately $2,400,000. Total sales showed a drop of 50 per cent to $37,280,548. Cash on hand and Dominion of Canada bonds, however, showed an increase of close to $5,000,000.

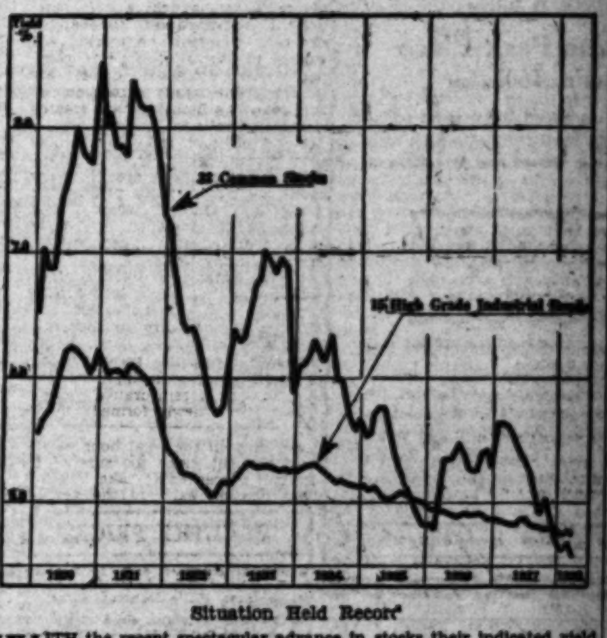
Mr. Robbins will discuss the operation of the reserve corporation.

BANK OF ENGLAND STATUS REPORTED

LONDON, May 17. (AP)—The weekly statement of the Bank of England shows the following in pounds: Total reserve increased 426,000, circulation decreased 384,000, bullion increased 41,000, other securities increased 150,000, public deposits increased 6,090,000, other deposits decreased 5,405,000, notes reserve increased 311,000, government securities increased 120,000. The proportion of the bank's reserve to liability is 40.91 per cent, compared with 40.78 last week.

YIELD OF STOCKS TURNS DOWN

Return Drops Below That of Bonds



Situation Held Record

WITH the recent spectacular advance in stocks their indicated yield has fallen until dividend-paying industrial shares now yield less than high-grade industrial bonds.

From the above chart, it will be seen that the average yield on thirty-three dividend-paying common industrial stocks now is 4.57 per cent. The yield on fifteen high-grade industrial bonds is 4.77 per cent.

Never in history has the yield on common stocks been so low as it is at the present time.

Glass Factory Output Heavy

Factory production of the Illinois Pacific Glass Corporation from the first of the year to date has practically equaled the average yearly output of the company, Max Cohn, active head of the corporation, declared yesterday. The company has a plant under construction in this city.

Upon completion of the Los Angeles plant, which is expected to be in operation before the end of the year, substantial economies will accrue from the elimination of freight rates between here and San Francisco. The new plant also will operate with a lower ratio of expense, according to Mr. Cohn, who states that earnings of the company will be considerably increased as a result.

Salt Issue on Market Today

Financing of the largest producer and distributor of salt on the Pacific Coast was announced yesterday with the offering by Mitchum, Tully & Co. and Schwabacher & Co. of an issue of Leslie Salt Company stock, priced at $37 per share, to yield about 6.05 per cent.

Taylor, Ewart & Co. and C. D. Parker & Co., Inc., are offering $1,100,000 Rhode Island Ice Company first mortgage 6 per cent sinking fund gold bonds, due 1948, and priced at 94½ and accrued interest, to yield about 6.50 per cent.

Lehman Brothers, Field, Glore & Co. and J. H. Holmes & Co. are offering 40,000 shares of common stock of a company that will acquire all the assets and liabilities of Joseph Horne Company, Pittsburgh's oldest department store.

OUTSTANDING IN THE PRODUCTION OF AN IMPORTANT F

The Largest Packer of a Staple Food Product

The value of the canned salmon pack, according to latest government figures, is greater than such important foods as canned peas, tomatoes, milk, beans, peaches and pears.

The Pacific American Company, outstanding in this industry, is the largest packer of salmon in the world.

In its 23 years of profitable operation the Company has paid out cash dividends of $4,698,000 and stock dividends of $2,625,000 and its assets have increased from $450,000 to $7,424,038 in 1927.

WALL STREET PARAGRAPHS

[Copyright, 1928, New York Evening Post, Inc.]

NEW YORK, May 17.—Suffering a chill one moment and becoming feverish the next, the stock market today oscillated violently, showing a complete absence of everything verging on definite trend. A raging battle of opposing speculative forces surged along the entire market front, and where one group was successful in putting prices higher, the other was equally successful for a spell in forcing severe recessions elsewhere. Touching off of stop-loss orders on the reaction was effective in working for drastic declines in many directions before scale-down support which was in evidence throughout the day was influential in stemming the tide. Market movements were determined almost wholly by efforts to discount action or inaction on the bank rate when directors of he Federal reserve bank met later in the day. The volume of business contracted acutely, permitting the ticker to keep fairly well abreast of trading after a temporary lapse in the forenoon.

Telephone and Telegraph Soars

Going above the 200 level for the first time in its long history, American Telephone and Telegraph provided the day's outstanding performance on the side of the advance. Strength in this top-notch investment issue was helpful to sentiment for a time, but when the market weakened again in the afternoon a liberal part of the 15-point advance shown at top levels was canceled. At the peak of the session the market value of the 11,114,319 shares now outstanding had been lifted by the sum of $166,714,000. In a word, the value of the subscription "rights" accruing to shareholders under the offering announced yesterday estimated at 14½ on the basis of prices prevailing, was added to the stock's value.

Support in the Leaders

Scale-down support for the leaders was apparent throughout the day, but little or no aggressive effort was made to stop selling. Lack of periodical reaction in the course of the last twelve weeks has been generally regarded as placing the market in a distinctly unhealthy technical position, and evidently some interests, while enirely satisfied by the prospect of something in the way of a wholesome correction, were interested in keeping the leaders orderly.

Rallies Follow Reactions

The effect of these scale-downs was apparent from the ease with which the leaders, like General Electric, General Motors, Steel and Radio, among others, rallied following the opening surge of selling. Liquidation and speculative offerings by traders seeking to accelerate the reaction once more assumed large proportions when the demand money rate went to 6 per cent in the early afternoon, but the leaders again headed upward in a brisk rally in the final hour as the bear element, none too sure of its ground, proceeded to take in short lines put out early in the day.

Many Companies Formed in Recent Months As Field of Risk Writing Grows

BY WILLIAM RUSSELL WHITE

[Copyright, 1928, by New York Evening Post, Inc.]

NEW YORK, May 17. (Exclusive) One of the interesting developments in the field for new capital in recent months has been the appearance of several new insurance companies or combinations of small concerns.

Conditions have been generally favorable for launching new underwriting companies, for capital has been plentiful and market advances in stocks of old-line companies have attracted public attention. The steady expansion of this country's industry has created a need for units in the field.

Moreover, new risks are coming into prominence daily, and enterprising underwriters are becoming more willing to write policies for almost any kind of hazard. Rain insurance, for instance, has come to be accepted as a necessary coverage in many fields.

In the expansion of the business reinsurance has come into greater prominence. Diversification of risks is as necessary in insurance as it is in other lines, and carefully managed companies spread a part of their business among companies specializing in reinsurance.

One of the newly formed companies in this field is the Transportation Reinsurance Company of New York, formed under the sponsorship of William H. McGee and other executives of William H. McGee & Co., Inc., underwriters of insurance since 1883.

The McGee company has branch offices, agents or correspondents in almost every city of importance in this country, as well as in some of the principal points of Canada and the West Indies. Thus the new company will benefit from the experience and contacts the McGee firm has had for many years.

The company proposes to write general fire and marine reinsurance only. Its operations will be under the supervision of the New York Insurance Department, as well as the supervision of similar departments in other States in which it may operate.

The company will have outstanding 100,000 shares of capital stock of $10 par value and a surplus of $1,500,000.

The directorate includes, besides Mr. McGee, M. C. Brush, Gresham Ennis, John M. Lee, Noah MacDowell, Jr., E. A. St. John and other bankers, insurance-company executives and capitalists.

METAL MARKETS

CLEVELAND, May 17. (Exclusive)—Daily Metal Trade today says:

Although competition is keen on steel strip, several district producers are receiving a great deal more business than during April. Shipments in some cases are 25 per cent greater. Pittsburgh strip operations vary from 75 to 85 per cent. This has kept strip producers active at 85 to 90 per cent of capacity.

Prices of steel wire and nails have strengthened in the Cleveland district. Beehive coke prices are slightly higher, chiefly because of low production.

Copper is less active at 14.37½ to 14.50 cents. Most zinc sellers are asking 6.07½, St. Louis, although 6.10 is still quoted. Lead is unchanged at 6.00, St. Louis. Tin is weak at 52.00, New York.

SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, May 17. (AP)—The market continued lower on the San Francisco Stock Exchange today, but in several instances the stocks made slight recoveries toward the close.

Bancitaly Corporation opened at 215 and sold up to 215½, then dropped to 214½ at the close, losing 1¼ points. Bank of Italy opened at 299½ and slumped to 295, closing off 4 points at 298. American Company gained slightly after selling down to 173½, recovered to 181½ and closed at 180, advancing 2½ points.

Byron Jackson Pump was active and strong, opening at 47 and selling up to a new peak at 52½, but eased to 51¾ at the close, gaining 5 points. Caterpillar Tractor touched 75½, then receded to 74 and closed down ⅛ at 74½. Kolster Radio Corporation opened weaker at 57½ and sold up to 60, closing at 58¼, off ¼.

Magnavox Company opened at 2.55 and sold down to 2.40, but recovered to 2.60 at the close, gaining 10 cents. Golden States Milk Products sold up to a new peak at 44½ and closed with a gain of 4½ points at 43½. Zellerbach Corporation opened at 48 and slumped to 47½, where it recovered, and under steady buying advanced to 49½, easing to 48⅞ at the close, up 1½ points. Fageol Motors common touched a new high at 7¼ and closed at 7, gaining ¼.

The oils were weaker. Richfield Oil opened at 48, and after touching 49, sold off to 48¼ at the close, losing 1½ points. Standard Oil of California ranged from 60½ to 59½, down ⅛. Shell Oil opened at 28½ and closed even at 28¾.

Totals sales: Bonds, $31,500; stocks, 170,787 shares of $11,082,848 market value.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, May 17. (Exclusive)—The market made a good rally in today's trading, with prices going up 40 points, or $2 a bale from yesterday's closing, before this movement ran its course by the end of the fourth hour. It brought May contracts here to near 21½c again, July 21¼c, October of the new crop to 22c and December 21.05c and January 21c.

This sudden upturn in the market from the reactionary tendency shown in the late trading of yesterday, was entirely due to a renewal of support from local and New Orleans trade bulls, causing a good deal of covering of shorts. The Liverpool market followed the early upturn here and closed firm at the top prices, about 11 English points net advance on the day against 1 to 2 due to have met our closing of yesterday.

There was a good deal of profit-taking late in the afternoon from today's advance, but it was sufficiently well absorbed to enable the market to hold most of the forenoon's good rise in prices up to the close.

EIGHT BUSSES BOUGHT BY SANTA MONICA

SANTA MONICA, May 17.—The City Commissioners signed a contract yesterday for eight auto busses of the standard city-passenger type, to be used on the Santa Monica municipal bus line, now in operation between the beach and Los Angeles. The busses will seat thirty-one passengers each, and the eight cost $80,000, according to Commissioner Frank Helton.

They are to be paid for over a period of two years, and the commissioners expressed confidence that the municipal enterprise would pay for the busses without adding to the city tax rate.

The cars are capable of a speed of thirty-five to forty-five miles per hour when fully loaded. The present municipal line, which is said to show increasing revenues, operates on Pico Boulevard as far as the terminus of the yellow car line in Los Angeles. The City Commissioners toray were considering the addition of another route, to traverse Wilshire Boulevard and operate as far as La Brea and Third street in Los Angeles.

HEALTH SERVICE MAY BE EXTENDED

HUNTINGTON BEACH, May 17. The service of the Orange county health department will be made available to the city of Newport Beach if the offer made to the City Council by W. W. Chandler, Orange county health officer, is accepted.

In the past the health inspector here has been a local physician. Chandler introduced Dr. H. K. Sutherland, county physician, who explained the work of the health office in providing inspections, laboratory analyses and health protection for a fee of $1 a year.

SOMETHING NEW IN BEACH BEAUTY SHOWS

REDONDO BEACH, May 17.—What the well-dressed bathing beauty will or will not wear this summer is to be demonstrated here Sunday, June 3, in a beach fashion review.

The revue differs from the usual bathing-girl affair, in that the suits have already been selected by artists from the best the stylists offer and local girls are being recruited to fill them. The event precedes the annual summer opening on June 15.

POLICE MAY GET RISE

ALHAMBRA, May 17.—Alhambra police may find bulkier pay envelopes after July 1. Increases in salary have been recommended by City Commissioner George A. Houser and the city will consider the advance in preparing the city budget for the coming year. The budget committee, consisting of City Manager Stockburger, City Clerk Wallace and R. M. Lawson, special auditor, has been instructed to give special consideration to the proposed increase.

First Mortgage 6% Bonds	$1,250,000	$1,225,000

*As of June 15, 1928.

The following information has been furnished by Mr. St. John Whitney, President of the Company:

HISTORY: Leslie-California Salt Co., a Delaware Corporation; represents a consolidation of Leslie Salt Refining Co., established 1902, California Salt Co., established 1902, and Continental Salt & Chemical Co., established 1900, all of San Francisco. Through two-thirds ownership of Golden West Products Co. of Los Angeles, it controls California Rock Salt Co., and it also holds a one-third interest in the Long Beach Salt Co., which controls Consolidated Salt, also of Los Angeles. The Oliver Salt Co., established 1872, is a wholly owned subsidiary.

BUSINESS: The Company, together with subsidiaries and controlled companies, is today the largest producer and distributor of salt on the Pacific Coast, with offices in San Francisco, Los Angeles and Seattle. Its annual production of crude salt is approximately 135,000 tons per annum. It distributes coarse salt throughout the Pacific Coast. This commodity is used in refrigeration, food preservation, canning, tanning, ice cream manufacture and for chemical uses. In addition, the Company is the largest producer of highly refined vacuum salt in the West. This is marketed for table and other uses under the widely advertised and well known "Leslie" brand.

The Company's management is of the highest order, its executives having had many years' experience in the business.

PROPERTIES: The Company owns in fee approximately 6,775 acres of highly developed salt lands on San Francisco Bay, and controls through subsidiaries an additional 3,440 acres. Most of the lands owned and controlled (about 10,000 acres) have been in production for over 20 years. Approximately 2,000 acres are in San Mateo County on the western shore of San Francisco Bay; the balance in Alameda county on the eastern shore.

Two modern vacuum refineries are owned—one at Alvarado, the other at San Mateo, Cal. These employ the latest methods of operation, and are equipped with modern machinery of the highest degree of efficiency. Their combined capacity is 150 tons of vacuum salt per day.

EARNINGS: During the first quarter of 1928, net earnings of the Company were greater by approximately 65% than those of the corresponding period in 1927. Since the Company is presently retiring its entire issue of Preferred stock, earnings available for Common dividends will be materially increased. It is officially estimated that for the calendar year 1928 earnings after all expenses, including depreciation and Federal taxes, will amount to $4.00 per share for the Common stock.

DIVIDENDS: Directors of the Company have authorized inauguration of dividends on the Common stock at the annual rate of $2.25 per share. Initial payment will be made on September 15, 1928, to stockholders of record September 1st.

This stock is at present listed on the San Francisco Curb Exchange. In due course application will be made to admit the shares to trading on the San Francisco Stock Exchange.

We regard this stock as an excellent business risk.

Erratic Changes in Airplane Stocks Feature

NEW YORK, May 17. (AP)— long-expected increase in the York Federal Reserve Bank count rate came after close series of bewildering price ments in today's stock market, left final quotations irreg higher. Trading failed to the terrific pace set earlier week, the day's sales falling a million shares below record-breaking session.

Prices dipped 1 to 6¼ points the opening on the overnight selling orders investors and traders alarmed at yesterday's action. These were quickly sorbed and the market ward again before end of the hour, some of the volatile climbing 5 to 15 points.

Another wave of selling over the market in the early noon when the call money increased from 5½ to 6 per and many of these gains stantially cut down or wiped

Trading turned dull on the and then speculators for the vance took control again up a selected assortment in spectacular fashion just the close.

The announcement of a rediscount rate was accompanied the weekly report of Federal broker loans, which showed crease of $140,894,000, total to a new high $4,502,044,000. Banks called $30,000,000 in loans during Time money rates were from 5 1-8 to 5 1-4 per cent highest level since October,

MINERAL MINES, INCORPORATED

PLACER GOLD!

Easily accessible—bright and clean—no milling or refining—a product that knows no competition—PLACER GOLD!

Mineral Mines, a California Corporation, holdings are four and a quarter miles along McFarland Creek in one of Montana's greatest placer areas. Cedar Creek . . . $10,000,000 production; Windfall Creek . . . $200,000; Quartz Creek . . . $300,000 at its junction with McFarland, and $800,000 in its upper tributaries—these placer gold industries surround McFarland Creek within a radius of fifteen miles!

Major John F. Duling, Mining Engineer whose estimates and opinions are universally sought and respected, conservatively estimates over a million cubic yards of coarse gold-bearing gravel ready for hydraulic giant washing. Exhaustive sampling proves values in excess of $1.00 per cubic yard. Extraction expense 12 cents a cubic yard. This promises early and abundant profit.

The issue of stock to finance this gold placer industry is purposely limited, for it is scheduled for operation within ninety days. This exceptionally attractive issue at $1.00 a share should soon be taken up. Subscribe without delay.

Electrical Products and Los Angeles-First National Advance in Falling Market

Los Angeles-First National Bank and Electrical Products Corporation provided the strong spots yesterday in the trading on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange. The market, for the most part, closed weaker, continuing the downward trend which began Wednesday.

First National Bank was unusually active and advanced 4 points to close at 156½ on a transfer of more than 10,000 shares. The stock opened at 150 and was quickly depressed to 148½. Demand on the opening of the afternoon session quickly forced it into higher ground, where the greater part of the sales were consummated.

Electrical Products opened off to 176 and slumped to 170, but in the afternoon jumped 10 points to 180, where it closed for a net gain of 4 points on the day. Texas Corporation, in the unlisted division, moved contrary to the oil list and struck a new high at 64, up ⅛.

Rio Grande and Union of California were the only other oils to record a gain. Each moved up 1-8 to 32 5-8 and 52 1-8, respectively.

Richfield was strong throughout the morning session but in the afternoon receded to 48 5-8 for a net loss of 1 3-8. The preferred, with warrants, dropped 3-4 to 19 1-4. Standard of California lost 3-4 to 60.

Pacific National Bank reacted 5 points to 205 and Pacific National Company closed off 10 to 145. The rights lost 8 to 42. Bank of Italy slumped 4½ points to 297 and Bancitaly, 1 to 214½. California Bank lost 4 to 168, while Merchants' National held firm at 280. Union Bank and Trust Company of Los Angeles closed off 14 points to 255. Bank of America dropped 7 to 302, while United Security advanced a point to 285.

Stock transfers totaled 314,202 shares. Bond transactions amounted to $43,000.

LOS ANGELES MARKET

CATTLE—Demand was rather narrow and trading on yesterday's moderate supply was slow. Sales made were barely steady with the closing undertone weak. A car of mixed medium and low good 1020-pound grass steers topped at 10.75, while half a load of medium 1009-pound grassers made 10.00. A short load of plain 804-pound yearling steers went over for 9.85, with odd head of common steers down to 9.00 and below.

A small lot of good 887-pound cows cashed for 9.00, with odd head of good weighty cows from 8.50@8.90. A load of good 1121-pound grass cows scored 8.70, while three loads of plain grass cows cashed from 7.25@7.75. Odd head and small lots of cows, mostly dairy types, turned from 6.50@8.25. A few cutter and low cutter cows turned from 3.00@6.00, the latter price also taking a small lot of 798-pound averages for feeding purposes. A few good bulls sold around 7.50, while the majority, medium kinds, went over from 7.00@7.25. Odd head of common bulls sold down to 6.00. Late Wednesday two cars of 1001-pound Imperial Mexican steers cashed for 10.10, while a load of 867-pound Imperial cows brought 8.50.

CALVES—The small supply on offer was cleaned up at about steady prices. A car of good 228-pound vealers made 13.00, with 303-pound averages out at 11.50. Small lots of other vealers turned from 11.00@12.50, while cull and common kinds and plain heavy calves went over from [illegible]

Wheat Futures Weak and Off; Corn Up Shade

CHICAGO, May 17. (Exclusive)—Liquidation by houses with eastern connections was on in wheat, with a break of 3⅝@4⅛c from the finish of the previous day, with May leading. The finish was at net losses of 3⅝@4c, with May leading. Corn showed stubborn resistance to pressure and there was also closing of spreads between corn and wheat, and the former gained ⅝@⅞c for the day. Oats broke sharply and finished ⅛@⅝c lower, with July leading, while rye was off 1⅞@1⅝c.

Scattered showers in the Canadian Northwest were shown on the weather map, and while too light to be of lasting benefit to the spring wheat crop, served to increase selling pressure, and with stop-loss orders uncovered, prices declined sharply, with all deliveries at a new low on the present movement, with May at the inside of 26⅛c and July 23⅝c from the high of three weeks ago. The break was checked by buying against bids and by short covering. Further rains were reported in the winter wheat belt, with generally fair predicted from the Northwest.

Weather conditions continue to be the dominating influence in the wheat market and erratic price changes are in order. There was buying of wheat here against sales at Winnipeg to close spreads, as the latter market has been showing more strength than Chicago, and at the last was off only 1⅛@1⅝c for the day, with October showing the least decline. Liverpool finished 2⅛@2⅞d lower, with pressure of Canadian offerings a factor.

Export demand at the seaboard showed improvement, with sales of 500,000 to 600,000 bushels in all positions, largely Manitobas to the United Kingdom and the continent. May wheat here weakened, due to selling of that delivery by longs, who replaced with purchases of July, and there was also spreading the other way. Crop comments from the Southwest were more favorable, but those from the Northwest were decidedly spotted, with a noticeable shortage in moisture at many points.

Buying of corn against sales of wheat to close spreads was a factor in giving the former grain independent strength, and the close was about the top. There was buying of September against sales of July and the difference widened fractionally, being 1⅛c at the last. So far this week shipments from leading primary points are about 1,900,000 bushels in excess of the receipts, and the trade is looking for a liberal reduction to be shown in the visible supply statement on Monday. Spot basis was firm.

Longs in July oats sold freely and stop-loss orders were uncovered, causing a bad break early. The July-September difference narrowed to 7⅞c at the last, compared with 10⅝c earlier in the week, with fair buying of the September in evidence on the declines. Cash interests took the May. Crop reports were more favorable, due to the recent rain. Houses with eastern connections were on the selling side of rye, and with the break in wheat, a decline was easily attained. No export sales were reported at the seaboard.

Liberal buying of July and September lard by Rumsey & Co., who have foreign connections, took the surplus of the market so that shorts in covering later found offerings light and bid prices up 15c. The close was at the top, with net gains of 15@22½c, the latter on May. Strength in hog values, with prices up 10@15c, coupled with the advance in corn, had a good influence on the market.

Trading in meats was light and cash business was not so good. Short ribs were nominally 5@10c higher and bellies 10c higher.

Electric Public Utilities Company

Three-Year 5% Gold Notes

Dated May 1, 1928 Due May 1, 1931

Interest payable May 1 and November 1. Coupon notes in denominations of $1,000 and $500. Notes registerable as to principal only. Redeemable at the option of the Company in whole or in part at any time on thirty (30) days' notice at 101 and interest to and including May 1, 1930, and thereafter at 100 and interest. Principal and interest payable at the office of the Trustee, in the City of New York. The Company agrees to pay the normal Federal Income tax not in excess of 2%. Personal property tax of any state under any present law, not in excess of five mills per annum in any case, and the Massachusetts Income tax on the interest not exceeding 6% of such interest per annum, refundable to resident holders upon timely and appropriate application.

GUARANTY TRUST COMPANY OF NEW YORK, Trustee

Mr. R. A. Pratt, President of the Company, advises as follows:

General Information: Electric Public Utilities Company, a Delaware corporation, will operate, directly or indirectly through its subsidiaries, a group of electric, gas, electric railway, ice and water properties in over one hundred communities located in the States of Colorado, Illinois, Kansas, Louisiana, *Maryland, Mississippi, Ohio, Oklahoma and Texas. It will serve a population, exclusive of the City of Chicago, of more than 350,000.

Electric energy for light and power is supplied to over eighty-three communities in six states. Natural gas is supplied to two cities in Oklahoma. A district hot-water heating system is operated in conjunction with electric service in Findlay, Ohio. Profitable electric railway, freight and passenger service is provided between Findlay and Toledo, Ohio.

In Louisiana, Mississippi and Texas, thirty-seven communities are served with ice. In Chicago over 6,000 accounts in the Loop District will be served with ice on a contract basis, and a substantial ice business, chiefly wholesale, will be conducted in other populous centers of that city.

Security: This issue of Three-Year 5% Gold Notes will be, in the opinion of counsel, the direct obligation of the Company and will be followed by 20,000 shares of $7 Dividend Series Preferred Stock and 200,000 shares of Common Stock without Par Value. Independent engineers have valued the properties in excess of the total funded debt of the Company and its subsidiaries.

Purpose of Issue: The proceeds from the sale of these Notes will be used for the retirement of maturing obligations and for general corporate purposes.

Capitalization: The capitalization of Electric Public Utilities Company upon completion of proposed financing will be as follows:

Fifteen-Year 6% Secured Gold Bonds	$4,000,000
Three-Year 5% Gold Notes (this issue)	3,000,000
$7 Dividend Series Preferred Stock Without Par Value	20,000 shs.
Common Stock Without Par Value	200,000 shs.

NOTE: In addition to the above, the subsidiaries of the Company will have outstanding $11,397,000 par value of funded debt and [illegible] shares of preferred stocks.

Earnings:* The earnings of Electric Public Utilities Company and subsidiaries, including those to be presently acquired, for the year ended December 31, 1927, after eliminating certain non-recurring charges, were as follows:

Gross Earnings	$5,570,[illegible]
Operating costs and expenses, including maintenance and local taxes	[illegible]
Balance available for interest, retirement reserve and Federal taxes	$1,[illegible]
Prior annual interest and dividend requirements on securities in hands of the public	1,[illegible]
Balance	$ [illegible]
Annual interest requirements of this issue	$ 150,000.00

Earnings as shown above are over 4.77 times the total annual interest requirements of this issue of Notes.

*Pending final acquisition of the Maryland properties, $500,000 principal amount of the Company's Fifteen-Year 6% Secured Gold Bonds are being retained by the Trustee, thus leaving only $3,500,000 outstanding in the hands of the public at the present time. Earnings of the Maryland properties are included and interest charges include requirements for the full $4,000,000 of bonds.

All legal details incident to this financing will be passed upon and approved by Messrs. Chapman & Cutler of Chicago, and these Notes are offered for delivery if, when and as issued and accepted by us, and subject to approval of counsel. Valuations and engineering reports by Day & Zimmermann, Inc., Stone & Webster, Inc., F. W. Freeborn Engineering Corp. and Messrs. Hagenah & Erickson; examination of accounts by Arthur Young & Co.

NEW YORK BOND PRICES

NEW YORK, May 17. (AP)—Movement of time money rates to the highest since 1923 and expectations of an increase in the New York Federal Reserve Bank rediscount rate, realized after the close, made trading dull in the bond market today, with prices easier. Virtually the only feature was the decline of United States government obligations.

Third and Fourth Liberty 4¼s dropped to new lows for the year, the Third at 100-3 and the Fourth at 102-13. Treasury 3¾s and 4s moved to the year's minimum and the 3½s to a new year low of 101-24.

Similar declines were general in the industrial group. Anaconda Copper 7s slumped more than 3 points and Andes nearly 2. Bethlehem Steel convertible 6s, International T. & T. debenture 4½s and Remington Rand 5½s with warrants also were prominent in the decline. Such recent leaders in the advance as Liquid Carbonic convertible 6s and Kayser & Co. 5½s declined 3 and about 2 points, respectively.

American Agricultural Chemical Corporation refunding 7½s, which have been called for redemption August 1, and American T.&T. sinking fund 5s, responding to strength of the stock resulting from proposed increased capitalization, moved up against the trend. Atlantic Gulf and West Indies advanced, reaching a new year high at 82½.

Rails and New York traction issues joined the downward movement. Outstanding among the easier utilities were New York Gas Electric Light, Heat and Power 4s, which gained a point.

The foreign list held fairly steady, with Italian industrials again strong. Fiat 7s with warrants touched a new top at 116, and Pirelli 7s moved up nearly 2 points to a new high at 111.

The quotations represent sales of bonds (in thousands of dollars) and the high, low and closing prices in the order given. To expedite transmission, the close is omitted when the same as the low, and both low and close when same as high.

43,000 Shares
Pacific American Company
(A DELAWARE CORPORATION)
Common Stock
(No Par Value)

THE NATIONAL BANK OF COMMERCE OF SEATTLE, WASHINGTON
AMERICAN TRUST COMPANY, SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA } Registrars

The following is summarized from information submitted by Mr. E. B. Deming, President:

COMPANY: The Pacific American Company, a Delaware Corporation, was incorporated in 1928 to acquire all of the stock and good will of the Pacific American Fisheries, (it is anticipated that the latter company will soon be dissolved and the assets transferred directly to the Pacific American Company) and further to acquire other interests and extend the operations of the business.

The predecessor company was organized in 1905. The present Company with its new affiliations which are now in contractural form is today the largest packer of salmon in the world. The average pack of the combined businesses for the past five years, including 1927, has been 734,018 cases, or 12% of the entire American pack. It is entirely a self-contained company, making its own catch, owning its own steamships, canneries, can and box factories, warehouses, shipyards and equipment.

The canneries and other facilities are strategically situated in the principal salmon run areas of the world: Western, Central and Southeastern Alaska, British Columbia and Puget Sound. The products are marketed under well-known brands that have earned and retained a prestige in the industry and enjoy a world-wide market.

The industry deals with a food commodity of increasing economic importance. Canned salmon is a food product with a high comparative nutritive value. It is in the same category as meat, dairy products, fruit and vegetables, which have no substitutes. At the present prices, canned salmon is the cheapest per pound in food value.

CAPITALIZATION: Upon completion of present financing, the capitalization of the Pacific American Company will be as follows:

	Authorized	To Be Presently Outstanding
Convertible $6.50 Cumulative Preferred Stock (no par value), (Dividends cumulative from May 1st, 1928)	75,000	22,500 shares
Common Stock (no par value) (225,000 shares of Common Stock have been reserved for the conversion of the Preferred Stock.)	500,000	90,010 shares*

*Includes 10 qualifying shares.

The Company and its subsidiaries have no funded debt.

EARNINGS: During the 23 years of operation of the predecessor company, it has earned a profit every year except 1921, when, due to liquidation of the government's war supply of canned salmon, a small loss was incurred. Total operating earnings aggregated over $11,500,000 from which cash dividends have been paid totaling $4,698,998. In addition stock dividends distributed have amounted to $2,625,000. The earnings of the Company for the fiscal years ending December 31st, 1926 and 1927, are as follows:

*Earnings before depreciation	$564,013	$598,714
*Earnings after deducting depreciation, preferred Dividends, available for Common	263,662	303,975

*Non recurring items eliminated.

The earnings are equal to $2.93 and $3.37 (for 1927 and 1926) per share of Common Stock to be outstanding.

DIVIDENDS: It is anticipated that dividends on the Common Stock will be declared at the annual rate of $1.50 per share.

MANAGEMENT: The management is conservative, time tried and efficient. E. B. Deming, President, has been associated with the predecessor company since its inception, and is one of the leaders of the industry. He has had twenty-eight years' experience in the salmon canning industry, and many years in the marketing of canned products. The executive organization is well balanced and composed of men who have been with the business for many years. There is no change contemplated in the management.

It is anticipated that application will be made in due course to list these shares on the San Francisco Stock Exchange, Los Angeles Stock Exchange and the Seattle Stock Exchange.

All legal matters in relation to the formation of the Company and leading up to the issuance of these shares of Stock are under the direction of Messrs. Chickering & Gregory, Attorneys, San Francisco. The accounts and statement of the company have been audited by Messrs. Lybrand, Ross Bros. & Montgomery, for the Bankers, and George V. Whittle & Company, for the Company. This stock is offered for delivery, subject to, when as and if issued and received by us and prior sale.

SPECIALISTS ACTIVE

Special buying operations were apparent in about a dozen stocks. Ludlum Steel, in which the Fishers are reported to have acquired a large interest coincident with the reported receipt of a large order from the Ford organization, soared nearly 10 points to a record high at 68. General Alloy Steel ran to a new high on announcement of an increase of $7 a ton in alloy prices. International Harvester, which is reported to have shown a marked increase in truck and bus business, ran 11½ points to a new peak at 270, closing at 268½.

New peak prices for the year or onger also were established during he day by American Brown Boveri, merican International Corporation, tlantic Gulf & West Indies, Butte Superior, Equitable Office Build-g, International Agricultural hemical, Park & Tilford, South orto Rican Sugar and a few oth-s. Collins & Aikman and Vivaudou nk to new year lows in reflection the recent omission of dividends. Commodity markets were mixed. at declined 2½ to nearly 4 a bushel selling inspired by able weather reports. Cotton allied $2 a bale on reports of boll eevil infestation. Coffee and sugar uotations showed little change.

Foreign exchanges moved within arrow and irregular limits, sterling ables holding steady around .88 3-4.

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, May 17. (AP)—The curb market closed lower today after a wild session of unsettled trading during which total sales reached 1,405,600 shares.

Interest centered in trading in A.T.&T. rights more than 290,000 of which changed hands and in stock of the new Transcontinental Air Transportation on a when, as, and if issued basis, which had a turnover of more than 40,000 shares. Some 200,000 of the telephone rights changed hands between noon, when they were placed in trading and 1 p.m. prices rose from 14 at the opening to a high for the day at 16⅛, subsequently slumped to 13⅞ and moved back to close at above 15.

A block of 7000 shares of Transcontinental Air Transportation changed hands at 20¼ when trading began at noon. The stock was rapidly bid up to close at the day's high, 26½, or nearly three times the price at which 300,000 shares recently were privately purchased.

Increase of the call money rate to 6 per cent and expectation that the New York Federal Reserve Bank would increase its rediscount rate, which actually happened after the close, served to inspire selling movements throughout the day. A few industrial specialties moved up against the trend, among them Columbia Graphaphone, in which a stock split-up is expected; Brill Corporation "B," Deere & Co., Henney Motor and others catering to the automotive industry, and Atlas Plywood. Noranda Mining, U. S. Gypsum and others affected by favorable individual developments. Wagner Electric moved up 15 points to a new high at 120. Aero Supply A and B, active in the advance for the past two days, closed 7 to nearly 10 points lower. Aluminum Company, Bahia, most of the chain stores, Niles Bement Pond and Ford of Canada declined 2 to 14 points. Fox Theater A closed off about 2 points and General Baking about ½ point lower.

American Light and Traction, International Utilities "B," Cities Service "B," Puget Sound and Standard Power and Light were among the few utilities to resist the selling movement.

Most of the oils also closed lower. Kirby Petroleum, Mexican and a few other low-priced shares held their ground.

The closing price is omitted when same as the low, and both low and close when same as the high.

Total sales of stocks, 1,405,600 shares.
Total sales of bonds, $3,327,000.

Cooper River Bridge, Incorporated

First (Closed) Mortgage 6% Sinking Fund Gold Bonds

Dated May 1, 1928 Due May 1, 1958

Interest payable May 1 and November 1 at Continental National Bank and Trust Company, Chicago, and Guaranty Trust Company, New York. Principal payable at office of the Trustee, Chicago. Coupon Bonds in denominations of $1,000 and $500, interchangeable, registerable as to principal only. Callable, in part, for sinking fund purposes, on any interest payment date, on thirty days' published notice, on or before May 1, 1938, at 105; thereafter at a premium decreasing ¼% each year to and including May 1, 1957; thereafter at 100; plus accrued interest in each case. Redeemable, as a whole, on any interest payment date, on thirty days' published notice, on or before May 1, 1930, at 102; thereafter at a premium decreasing ¼% each year to and including May 1, 1957; thereafter at 100; plus accrued interest in each case.

It is expected that the Cumulative Sinking Fund, payable semi-annually beginning November 1, 1932, will retire this entire issue before maturity.

The Company will agree to pay interest without deduction for any normal Federal income tax not in excess of 2% which may lawfully be paid at the source, and to refund, upon proper and timely application, Pennsylvania and Connecticut personal property taxes not in excess of 4 mills, Maryland securities tax not in excess of 4½ mills, Kentucky, Missouri, California and District of Columbia personal property taxes not in excess of 5 mills, Massachusetts income tax not in excess of 6% per annum, and Michigan registration tax, all as provided in the mortgage, to holders resident in those states.

CONTINENTAL NATIONAL BANK AND TRUST COMPANY OF CHICAGO, TRUSTEE
R. G. RHETT, CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA, CO-TRUSTEE
H. M. BYLLESBY AND COMPANY, CHICAGO, FISCAL AGENTS

Mr. John P. Grace, President of the Company, summarizes his letter dated May 14, 1928, as follows:

General Cooper River Bridge, Incorporated, will construct, own and operate a toll bridge across the Cooper River under a 35-year franchise embracing, exclusively, a distance of twenty miles on either side of the bridge location, granted by the Legislature of the State of South Carolina, from a point known as Lee Street, in Charleston, South Carolina, to a point opposite thereto near Mount Pleasant. Charleston, with a population of approximately 85,000, is located on the southern end of a long, narrow peninsula separated from the mainland by the Cooper River on the east and by the Ashley River on the west. The Cooper River Bridge will afford a safe and rapid means of vehicular communication between Charleston and the mainland to the east of it.

Territory According to the good roads program of the Highway Commission of South Carolina, a complete system of hard surface highways, connecting Charleston with all points in the state, will be completed within the next two years. It is estimated that by January, 1929, the state will have completed the hard surface highway passing through Charleston as part of the most direct route from Montreal, Canada, to Key West, Florida. The Cooper River Bridge will form the connecting link between these converging highway systems, and what is designated as Route 40 will be a coastal highway connecting Key West on the south, thru Charleston via the Cooper River Bridge, with Georgetown, S. C., Wilmington, N. C., Norfolk, Va., and all points north. This highway will be approximately 100 miles shorter than any other highway between New York City and Florida.

Property The bridge will be of steel cantilever type on reinforced concrete piers and will have a concrete paved roadway 20 feet in the clear between curbs to accommodate amply two lines of traffic. With approaches, the entire length of the bridge will be approximately 14,000 feet. Messrs. Waddell & Hardesty, Consulting Engineers, specializing in bridge engineering, have prepared the plans for the bridge, which have been approved by the U. S. Chief of Engineers and the Chief Engineer of the State Highway Commission of South Carolina. The Company has contracted with The Foundation Company, McClintic-Marshall Company, Virginia Bridge and Iron Company and C. E. Hillyer for construction of the bridge. All these companies have long been indentified with successful bridge construction work.

Capitalization After giving effect to present financing, capitalization of Cooper River Bridge, Incorporated, will be as follows:

	Authorized	Outstanding
First Mortgage 6% Sinking Fund Gold Bonds, due May 1, 1958 (this issue)	(Closed)	$3,700,000
Participating Preference Stock (par value $50 per share	60,000 shs.	46,300 shs.
Common Stock ($5 par value)	186,000 shs.	186,000 shs.

Security These Bonds will be secured, in the opinion of counsel, by a closed first mortgage on the bridge structure and approaches, and on all the real property and rights-of-way of Cooper River Bridge, Incorporated, now owned or hereafter acquired, and on all rights, earnings, revenues and franchises. The proceeds from the sale of these Bonds and junior securities will be deposited with H. M. Byllesby and Company, Chicago, Fiscal Agents, to be disbursed under the disbursement agreement described in the mortgage securing this issue. The mortgage will provide for the insurance of the bridge, in adequate amounts, against damage by fire, lightning, flood, tornado, earthquake, collapse, explosion, riot, malicious action and other insurable hazards. Surety bonds and/or satisfactory assurances have been furnished, guaranteeing the completion of the structure free and clear of liens and encumbrances, in accordance with terms of contracts.

Earnings Based upon a complete detailed study of anticipated income from traffic, by Coverdale & Colpitts, Consulting Engineers, it is conservatively estimated that net earnings during the first year of bridge operation will be in excess of 1.70 times the maximum annual interest requirement of $222,000 on these First Mortgage Bonds, and average net earnings during the first five years of bridge operation will exceed 2.20 times the average annual interest requirement for that period.

Sinking Fund The Mortgage under which these First Mortgage 6% Sinking Fund Gold Bonds will be issued will provide for a cumulative semi-annual sinking fund beginning November 1, 1932, payable out of net earnings, which should retire this entire issue before maturity. Bonds may be acquired for the sinking fund by purchase in the open market or by call, in part, by lot, at the then existing redemption price.

MAPS OF THE OCEAN BED

The ocean's bottom is being explored rather energetically at the present time and the hidden deep sea bed is about to be as definitely mapped as the land areas. Great progress has been made in this work in very recent times largely owing to the marvelous improvements lately made in methods of deep-sea sounding. It is not too much to say that the past ten years have witnessed far greater progress in the technique of such operations than was accomplished in the whole previous history of hydrography, despite the large amount of ingenuity that had already been devoted to the development of sounding machines.

PUBLISHING DECLARATION

The Declaration of Independence was published three days before the signers had actually affixed their signatures to it. When it came out in The Pennsylvania Evening Post on Saturday, July 6, 1776, the only name under it was that of John Hancock. The document had been issued by the Continental Congress on July 4, 1776. The reason publication did not occur till the sixth was that The Pennsylvania Evening Post was a tri-weekly, published on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, and the draft of the Declaration was not finished till too late on Thursday, July 4, to make the edition of that date.

NOTAS TELEGRAFICAS

Servicio Telefónico Entre Madrid y Lisboa

MADRID, 17 de Mayo.—Se acaba de inaugurar la comunicación telefónica entre Lisboa y Madrid, realizándose con ello un gran adelanto en las buenas relaciones entre Portugal y España.

El general Primo de Rivera fué el primero que hizo uso de la línea telefónica, para dar sus congratulaciones al general Carmona, presidente de la República de Portugal. En seguida, el coronel Tafur, secretario de Comunicaciones, habló a su colega de Lisboa. Por último, el Rey Alfonso XIII envió sus cordiales felicitaciones por teléfono al presidente Carmona.

El Presidente Calles Forma un Consejo de Economía Nacional

CIUDA DDE MEJICO, 17 de Mayo.—El general don Plutarco Elías Calles ha firmado un decreto autorizando la creación de un Consejo de Economía Nacional, el cual estará integrado por representantes de cada una de las entidades federativas, de las cámaras de comercio de todo el país y de varios grupos de la banca, industria y comercio de la República. Este consejo se dedicará a estudiar permanentemente todos los problemas que se refieran a la situación económica del país, y va a ser el farol orientador del gobierno en la resolución de los dichos problemas.

No Pagó los Gastos a un Mejicano

CHANDLER (Arizona) 17 de Mayo.—F. P. King, de Los Angeles, ha sido redimido por el jurado que entendió su caso, de pagar el entierro y las atenciones médicas que necesitó el mejicano Antonio Navarrete, el cual pereció en una colisión de su automóvil con el carro de King, habiéndose exigido a éste responsabilidades en el caso, de las cuales quedó libre en virtud de haberse encontrado que el caso fué puramente accidental.

Dos Jefes Agraristas Muertos en Méjico

CIUDAD DE MEJICO, 17 de Mayo.—Telegramas procedentes de Espinazo, estado de Nuevo León, y sitio ya famoso por ser el Campo del Dolor, donde radica el taumaturgo más notable que ha producido Méjico, el Niño Fidencio, explican que a consecuencia de las diferencias habidas entre dos grupos de agraristas, se verificó un encuentro armado en el que resultó muerto el líder Tomás Sosa, siendo después matado su asesino por amigos del muerto, todos procedentes de Baján.

Un destacamento fué enviado inmediatamente de Saltillo para poner en paz a los agraristas, habiéndose capturado a seis de los responsables y estableciéndose el orden inmediatamente.

Orientaciones para Estudiantes de Español

El español, con el inglés, es el idioma que tiene mayor campo de acción en todos los países de civilización occidental o europea. Su importancia se divide en dos aspectos: el comercial y el literario. Para los individuos que se dedican a los negocios en Estados Unidos, es de capital importancia dominar el español, pues se realizan numerosas operaciones con países de habla española que están al sur de la Unión Americana y con España misma.

Desde el punto de vista literario, la importancia del español es muy grande para el hombre que tiene aspiraciones de cultura. España es la patria del único rival de William Shakespeare en el drama de la época, y el nombre de este genio de la raza hispánica es don Pedro Calderón de la Barca, cuya valía fué reconocida singularmente por críticos ingleses entre los que se destaca el filósofo G. H. Lewes, autor de la Historia de la Filosofía.

Y Calderón de la Barca es uno de tantos, ya que abundan los poetas, dramaturgos, comediógrafos, novelistas, ensayistas, pensadores de alta significación en la evolución humana, que en España vivieron y alimentaron sus anhelos y dieron a luz excelentes obras. Actualmente España cuenta con un gran número de grandes escritores de todos los géneros, descollando en primera línea José Ortega y Gasset, quien es un insigne y luminoso pensador y una de las columnas de la intelectualidad europea contemporánea.

En todo el Nuevo Mundo, no se necesitan sino dos idiomas para ir a todas partes: el inglés y el español. La importancia que al estudio del inglés se le da en los países hispanoamericanos, no es menor que la que al estudio del español se le está dando en colegios y escuelas de los Estados Unidos de Norte América; es una feliz coincidencia que coexistan en ambas demarcaciones raciales, la misma tendencias de reciprocidad.

TURKS NOW EAT PORK

Having got rid of the dervishes and legislated her citizens out of many Moslem practices, republican Turkey, whose constitution declares that Islam is the state religion, has gone into the pork industry, the government having previously taken over the liquor monopoly from a Polish syndicate.

Both pork and liquor were proscribed by Mohammed when he founded his religion in the seventh century, A. D., based as it was upon what he knew of Judaism and Christianity. The taboo against pork Mohammed took from the Jews. But how many of Turkey's great sultans were wine bibbers! Pork, however, is a postrepublican comestible on Turkish tables.

As for the state religion being that of Islam, the President, Mustapha Kemal, whose title of Ghazi, or Conqueror, today spells "Father of His Country" to Turkish school children, has declared that Islam will not be allowed to interfere in any way with the development of Turkey along advanced western lines. Moreover, the deserted mosques in large cities may possibly be turned into school buildings, of which there is a shortage.

Today Turks eat ham and bacon and drink liquor manufactured and sold by the government. At present these pork products are imported from the Balkan states. But Adana and other places in Anatolia have herds of wild pigs which ruin the farmers' grain crops. These pigs have, as in India and other oriental countries where pork is taboo.

Hence a pork factory is to be started at Adana, which will cure the wild pigs shot by hunters into ham and bacon for domestic use and export. The farmers' pest will thus provide sport as well as profit.—[New York Times.

A GERMAN SENTENCE

The German system of forming a sentence consisting of a number of words strung together with the verb at the end, has long been the butt of jokes by writers of other countries since the days of Mark Twain and perhaps before that. A recent feat of German syntax is said to be composed of 230 words.

ACTRESS TO PLAY COURT ROLE AGAIN

Mae Murray Faces Suit on Charge She Changed Her Mind on Picture

Mae Murray, motion-picture actress who recently put in a couple of weeks "on location" at the Courthouse as a result of trouble over a house she purchased, is due to repeat her personal appearance.

MAE MURRAY.

This time, however, she will appear in the role of defendant in a suit for $110,000 damages brought by Arthur Gregor, director, who charges breach of contract.

According to the complaint, Miss Murray employed Gregor April 19, last, to direct a motion-picture version of the "Hungarian Rhapsody" at a salary of $1000 a week. Gregor asserts Miss Murray suffered a change of mind, retiring him as her director and adopting a new vehicle known as the "Guns of Paul."

Gregor says the actress' action injured him as a director and hurt his feelings.

BUSINESS OF GARAGE HELD MYTH

Buyers Sue for Damage Due to Asserted Lack of Elite Patronage

When they were dickering for a garage and were told that it was the place where Adolphe Menjou and Charles Ray, motion-picture actors, keep their cars, that the establishment held 125 cars, most of them belonging to the neighborhood elite, they assert they were so impressed they immediately purchased the place for $6500.

This is the story unfolded in a suit before Judge Turney in which D. C. MacWatters and G. E. Scheffler are suing L. J. Lang and Byron L. Ward, charging fraud and deceit in the sale of the garage located at 1766 Cahuenga avenue.

The plaintiffs assert also that Land and Ward misrepresented in saying that the lease was a ten-year one with eight years unexpired, and that the establishment was clearing $300 per month. They ask for a cancellation of the lease and damages.

All these assertions are denied by the defendants in their answer.

NEW DICKSON FIGHT STARTS

A second contest over the $50,000 estate of the late Lydia Dickson was filed yesterday by a group of relatives who contend she was unduly influenced when she drew her will leaving $500 and a residuary bequest to Isobel Priest, a friend.

LAD TAKES PROBLEM TO COUNTY JAIL

Two Uniforms Have to be Made Into One to Fit Record Height Prisoner

County Jail tailors yesterday faced a new problem when Perry Wolfe, 17 years of age, was booked on a charge of vagrancy. When the officers began fitting the youth in official prison uniform it was found necessary to piece two uniforms together to cover the frame of the prisoner, whose height is 7ft. 3in.

According to Jailer Dewar, Wolfe is the tallest prisoner ever booked in the County Jail.

Although more than seven feet tall he weighs only 180 pounds, jail records show.

INDIAN BOY WINS SUIT IN HIGH COURT

Right to Attend Public School in San Diego County Sustained

The Appellate Court yesterday upheld the right of Wesley W. Peters, 9-year-old Mission Indian boy, to attend public school in the Pauma School District of San Diego county.

Officials of the district refused admission to the school to the Peters boy on the ground that he lived on the federally-owned Pauma Indian lands and therefore was not a citizen but a ward or dependent of the United States and should look to Federal authorities for his education.

In its decision, the Appellate Court held that both the Indian lad and his father are citizens of the United States and as such are entitled to the same rights as other citizens.

Because the Indians lacked resources with which to conduct the fight for the child's education, the United States government, through U. S. Atty. McNabb, appeared as a friend of the court and gave arguments on behalf of the boy that were sustained by the decision.

Cinema Group Due Tomorrow

Thirty members of the Film Board of Trade under the direction of its general counsel, C. C. Pettijohn, will arrive over the Union Pacific Gold Coast Limited tomorrow afternoon. They are traveling on two special cars and will remain here several days.

The board members are to attend the national meeting of that organization, which is being held in Los Angeles this year. It also is planned that they will be the guests of several large film-producing companies during their visits to the leading studios in and around Los Angeles.

BODY OF BISHOP TO LIE IN STATE

Funeral Service Tomorrow from Cathedral

Clergy to Stand Guard at Johnson's Bier

Harvard Cadets Selected for Honor Post

The body of Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, Episcopal bishop of Los Angeles, who died Wednesday at his Pasadena home, 1590 Lombardy Road, will lie in state at St. Paul's Cathedral in Figueroa street today from 5 to 9 p.m.

Four Episcopal bishops of California will participate in the funeral services which will be conducted tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock in the cathedral. They are Rt. Rev. Louis C. Sanford, bishop of San Joaquin; Rt. Rev. F. L. Parsons, bishop of California; Rt. Rev. W. A. Moreland, bishop of Sacramento, and Rt. Rev. W. Bertrand Stevens, bishop-coadjutor of Los Angeles, who succeeds Bishop Johnson.

The services will be preceded by celebration of Holy Communion at 7:30 a.m. in the cathedral.

EXPECT THRONG

A vast throng of 15,000 communicants of the Episcopal diocese of Los Angeles, over which Bishop Johnson had presided since inception of the diocese in 1896, are expected to attend the services tomorrow. In addition it is expected that many of the additional parishioners of the diocese as well as many of the thousands of admirers of Bishop Johnson and his work will be in attendance.

As the body lies in state late this afternoon and this evening it will be guarded by an honor guard of clergy from the Los Angeles Convocation. They will be assisted by a special guard of cadets from the senior class of Harvard Military School, of which Bishop Johnson was the titular head.

Many telegrams of condolence reached the offices of the diocese yesterday and many more were sent to Bishop Johnson's widow, Mrs. Isabel Johnson.

PICK PALL BEARERS

Active pall bearers, selected from the Episcopal clergy of Los Angeles, will be Rev. Drs. L. E. Learned, Charles T. Murphy, Irving Spencer, Thomas C. Marshall, Steven Clarke, Jr., and Philip A. Easley.

In the services for the dead the bishops conducting the ritual will be assisted by Very Reverend Harry Beal, dean of St. Paul's Cathedral, and Rev. J. Arthur Evans, president of the standing committee of the diocese.

Honorary pall bearers will be Rev. Drs. R. B. Gordon, Charles Davidson, R. L. Windsor, J. Arthur Evans, J. D. H. Brown, Arthur Fletcher, Messrs. W. F. Knight, A. W. Morton, H. F. Brett, H. A. Thomas and Judge F. C. Valentine.

Interment, which will follow the services at the cathedral, will be in San Gabriel Cemetery.

Famous Wizard Will Visit Here

Dr. Harlan Tarbell, who has been attempting to educate the people of the United States to the ways of magicians, is due in the city this morning to learn the magic growth of Southern California and to see what part his fellow-magicians in Los Angeles and Hollywood have played in transforming desert land into flourishing orchards and adobe huts into skyscrapers.

He will be greeted by members of the Hollywood Mystic 27 and the Los Angeles Magic Club prepared to show him the biggest magic factory in the world. The factory is located at 334 South San Pedro street and is one of the things that has lured the famous wizard here.

JUSTICE FACES NEW PROBLEM

How to Care for Jailed Woman's Child?

She Wants Her Mamma

When Justice of the Peace Zaring of Belvedere sentenced Mrs. Luz Espinosa to six months in the County Jail yesterday for possession of intoxicating liquor, he unwittingly created another problem for George Contreras, chief of detectives for Dist.-Atty. Keyes, and county probation officers.

The problem was Domalina Estrada, 2-year-old daughter of the defendant, whose loud wails of protest at being separated from her mother echoed through the halls of the Hall of Justice for more than an hour.

In the end the solution of the difficulty was passed on to Maurine Eastburn and Sidney Kirkpatrick, secretaries to Contreras, and Miss Helen Stover, probation officer. The trio were ordered to placate the little girl until arrangements were made for her care.

Late last night the girl was taken to the Child's Home-finding Society of California at 919 East Twenty-fifth street. Today she will be made a ward of the Juvenile Court, which will care for her until her mother is released from prison.

BABY'S LEG CRUSHED BY STREET CAR

Dockweiler's Grandson Loses Limb in Accident; His Condition Critical

John Dockweiler, 2½-year-old son of Thomas Dockweiler, an attorney, of 27 St. James Place, yesterday suffered the loss of his left leg below the knee when he broke away from his nurse and ran in front of a street car.

The child and his nurse, Miss Emma Oakland, were crossing Twenty-third street, near Portland street, when the accident took place. The infant's leg was crushed.

The child was removed to the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital and later to St. Vincent's Hospital, where surgeons amputated the leg. The child's condition is reported as critical.

Thomas Dockweiler, the father, is a member of the law firm of Dockweiler, Dockweiler & Finch. The injured baby is a grandson of Isidore Dockweiler, Democratic national committeeman for California.

CLAY MAKER INSTITUTE ORGANIZES

Association Plans to Aid Proper Use of Products and Building Tests

Leading manufacturers of clay products in California yesterday announced the formation of the Clay Products Institute of California, designed to promote the correct use and manufacture of these products.

SEWARD C SIMONS

One of the outstanding objects of the organization is the advocacy of public tests on building materials in order that better construction may result. In developing this idea, the Clay Products Institute plans to prepare proper specifications to insure the manufacture of clay products in the best manner and also to insure their better use. This step will be followed by an effort to obtain the general adoption of such specifications in building codes and ordinances.

Robert Linton, vice-president and general manager of the Pacific Clay Products at Los Angeles, has been elected president; George D. Clark of N. Clark & Sons, vice-president, and H. B. Potter of Gladding, McBean & Co., treasurer. Seward C. Simons, manager of the domestic trade department and secretary of the construction industries committee of the Chamber of Commerce, has been named secretary-manager, and will devote his whole time to this new work.

Some thirty manufacturing organizations have joined the institute, which will have offices in Los Angeles and San Francisco.

BIERCE FATE INQUIRY BEGUN

Daughter Here Has Mexican Aid in Efforts to Clear Up Death of California Author

An investigation in Mexico intended to reveal the exact fate which befell Ambrose Bierce, California author and journalist, who disappeared in the Southern Republic in 1914 while the land was in the revolutionary grip of Francisco Villa, the bandit leader, has been undertaken, his daughter and only living relative, Mrs. Helen Isgrigg of Hollywood, revealed yesterday.

The investigation is in charge of Col. C. J. Velardi of the Mexican army, who is in Mexico City now, Mrs. Isgrigg says, and recent communications from him indicate a measure of success in clearing up a mystery which has engaged the literary world for fourteen years.

LAST WORD IN 1913

Bierce, who became noted for his caustic wit and mordant tales in profound realism in the early days of California journalism, was last heard from by Mrs. Isgrigg in November, 1913. At that time, although 72 years of age, he intimated he was adventuring and campaigning with Mexican forces. Since, the silence has deepened and many efforts have been made to solve the mystery of his fate.

George Sterling, the late California poet and protege of Bierce, was given two versions of the disappearance, both of which he left to speculation. George F. Weeks, a field correspondent, told Sterling that through friends he learned that Bierce had been treacherously shot by Gen. Tomas Urbina, a member of Villa's staff.

ANOTHER VERSION

Another version is accredited to Adolph Danziger by Sterling. After Villa's capture of Chihuahua, Sterling quotes Danziger, following a period of inaction, Bierce proposed to a peon friend they desert to the Carranzista forces. Villa, learning of the proposed desertion, had them shot down in the night. Sterling,

San Diego Hears Lipsitch Appeal for Jewish Aid

I. Irving Lipsitch, executive secretary and campaign director of the United Jewish Appeal to raise $200,000 for the relief and reconstruction of numerous national and international Jewish causes, addressed a mass meeting in San Diego last night to inaugurate the campaign there.

Mr. Lipsitch outlined the work being done by the institutions maintained and stressed the fact that these causes are ministering to millions in this country and abroad.

The meeting is one of a series held in the principal communities of Southern California.

ISLAND ADDICT COLONY URGED

State Will be Asked to Give Drug Cure Funds

New Project Outlined for "Y" Brotherhood

Scope of Narcotic Problem on Coast Shown

State appropriation of funds to establish and equip an island farm to be used as a sanatorium for the cure of drug addicts will be asked of the next California Legislature, according to plans announced yesterday by W. J. Herwig, general superintendent of the Narcotic Research Association, in an address to the United Brotherhood Club at the Y.M.C.A.

"There are from 1000 to 1500 drug addicts in penal institutions of California," said Mr. Herwig. "These unfortunate men and women should have medical treatment instead of prison sentences.

BEST LAWS HERE

"California today has the best narcotic laws of any State in the Union, but the laws in the other eight Pacific Coast States are inadequate," said the speaker. "There is a need for uniform laws in all these States and proper machinery to enforce the laws. A survey of the large cities of the Pacific Coast States has revealed the fact that in this territory there are at least 7000 criminal drug addicts. Each addict requires from five to ten grains of opium or its derivatives for daily use. The market price averages $1 per grain, which means that approximately $20,000,000 is spent each year for narcotic drugs.

"Ninety per cent of the drugs used in this area is smuggled into the country," said Mr. Herwig. "The smuggler gets his 'dope' at the rate of about $15 per ounce, dilutes his drugs 25 per cent and then sells it at a large profit. Demand for such drugs and the enormous profits derived from sales, has made possible the organization of a drug ring that operates from British Columbia to the Mexican border."

PENALIZING NO CURE

Discussing the futility of dealing with drug addicts by penalizing them, Mr. Herwig said that, following jail terms, these prisoners reenter the social world with a determination to obtain drugs at any cost.

"By means of the 'iron' or 'turkey' cure we are salvaging about 2 per cent of these victims, but I believe that with the establishment of an isolated farm, equipped with hospitals and supplied with competent physicians, 50 or 55 per cent of the unfortunates can be saved," said the speaker.

An educational campaign for teaching the effects of drug addiction should be inaugurated and carried on among parents and among students in physiology and hygiene in the schools, according to Mr. Herwig, who said that in the new textbooks, now coming out, more space than formerly is being given to this important subject.

SINGERS TO RALLY FOR HUGE FETE

Mammoth Choral Group to Be Featured During World Congress

The second rally of singers for the choruses of 1000 each to participate in the World's Sunday-school Convention, will be held in the First Methodist Church, Eighth and Hope streets, next Monday at 8 p.m. A dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. when Dr. W. C. Pearce, associate general secretary of the World's Committee, will be the guest of honor and speak of the coming convention.

Mrs. Grace Widney Mabee, chairman of music, is organizing the choruses by units and groups of singers of every kind and nationality in Southern California are invited to join. It is expected more than 3000 singers will be gathered in the Hollywood Bowl for the "Festival of Song of All Nations" on Sunday evening, July 15th.

Every evening from July 11 to 18 mass choruses of 1000 each will present the musical classics of the church. On Sunday afternoon, there will be a men's mass meeting, the topic being "World Brotherhood" and appropriate music will be rendered by an immense chorus of men. Other sessions will feature large choruses of children, women, boys' choirs, etc.

Park Workers to be Uniformed

All employees of city parks are to be placed in uniform under a decision of the Board of Park Commissioners yesterday, following a request from John F. Kennedy, watchman in Exposition Park, which states that uniforms would be a great help in enforcing regulations.

President Griffith asserted it is a good idea and should be extended to all park employees.

The board delegated President Griffith to select the kind of uniforms for the watchmen and the type to be worn by other employees. Whether the park employees are to pay for them, as is the custom in the police and fire departments, was not discussed.

PAVING REQUESTED

The paving of Lobdell Court from Brandon street to Avalon street yesterday was asked of the City Council by John J. O'Grady and other property owners, the pavement to be six-inch cement concrete.

The Lancer

by Harry Carr

Until yesterday every man, woman and child in the United States had seen the Yosemite except me.

Now I've seen it. That makes it unanimous. It is barely possible, however, that the government may continue to keep the place open with the idea that somebody might want to come back a second time.

THE SUPREME THRILL

The trouble with nearly all the great sights of the world is that your imagination works too hard beforehand.

Nearly everything is disappointing. I went through Europe in a perpetual state of feeling swindled and outraged. But the Yosemite leaves you staggered and out of breath. It just knocks you over, and that's that.

To me it has a far greater thrill than Grand Canyon. The Grand Canyon is overwhelming; but you can't comprehend it. The Yosemite is just one gorgeous picture of sublime beauty after another.

IDEALS

Nowhere do you see the United States government working so well as in these national parks.

I don't believe you could find, the world over, another group of young men so high in ideals—so oblivious to the dirty business of grabbing money as these chaps in the forestry and park services.

LITTLE WILD PEOPLE

I am writing this piece on the porch of a little cottage in the pine woods. I have an audience. Five wild deer are standing at my elbow. They come up to sniff the typewriter; then turn to each other as though to say: "By golly, this is the funniest guy I ever saw; what's he clitter-clattering about?"

THE PROTECTING WING

It gives me a thrill of drama to think that the same Uncle Sam whose great ships of war plow the ocean billows; whose great guns frown from a hundred fortresses, has—like Richelieu—drawn the sacred circle of his power around this little gray fawn, with mule ears and big eyes. That this little creature should find protection under the arm whose bulging thews give all Europe gooseflesh down the backbone.

RUNNING DEER

Last night at dusk we saw an old brown bear snooping around.

He considered our friendly advances for some time; but finally shuffled away through the forests.

A coyote came prowling around a deer herd, and they went bounding back into the woods. I had an unusual chance to see deer running at full speed. They went right past me. Their leaps are much stiffer and harder than one expects. When they come down their heads jerk with the impact.

"SPORT"

Every winter the deer stray down from the canyon into the bottomlands. Hunters wait for them in hordes. It must be great sport—shooting a deer that will come up and eat from your hand.

To prevent this annual massacre the government is trying to acquire more land at the mouth of the canyon.

LIGHTING POSTS SOUGHT

The installation of ornamental lighting posts on Florence avenue from Van Ness avenue to Angeles Mesa Drive was yesterday asked of the City Council in a petition received from Frank Paramore and other property owners.

GIRL'S TUMBLE HELD ACCIDENT

Deputies Report on Mishap in Oil Man's Home

Guest Badly Hurt in Fall from Landing

Host Says She Had Drinks Before Arriving

Injury to Faith Garde, 20 years of age, at a party in the aparment of John G. Darragh, oil promoter, at 1160 Curson street, Hollywood, when she fell from the landing of a stairway to the floor of the living-room Wednesday night, yesterday was declared accidental by Deputy Sheriff Hunter, following an investigation.

Miss Garde is in the General Hospital suffering from shock, bruises and possible concussion of the brain, the officer's report states.

Darragh appeared at the office of Capt. William J. Bright, head of Sheriff Traeger's homicide detail, yesterday and voluntarily gave his version of the accident.

According to Darrah, Miss Garde come to his apartment with a Miss Edna George at midnight Wednesday nigh at the request of Carlos Duran, a friend whom he was entertaining.

A short time after the girls arrived Miss Garde went upstairs and when returning a few minutes later she stumbled on the stairs and fell over the banister to the floor below, a distance of twelve feet.

Darragh said that Miss Garde had taken several drinks before coming to his apartment, but had been served none in his home.

NEW JOB WON BY WHISKERS

Banning Park's Foreman Selected Because He "Fits Picture"

Because he wears whiskers and has the dignity and courtly manners of a generation ago, E. R. Reese, formerly at Elysian Park, has been selected as foreman of the Banning Park in Wilmington, formerly the old Banning homestead, which dates back to the days of the dons.

In looking for a suitable foreman Supt. Shearer of the park department sought a man who would fit the picture of a place which was famous as a hospitable rendezvous in the early days of Southern California. Reese wears an imperial surmounted by a heavy moustache, both white, and waxed to acute points.

SPRINT RACE TO BE EVENT OF OLYMPIC

Interest Increased With Definite Announcement of Paddock's Entry

Greatly increased public interest in the Southwest Olympic finals and entertainment at the Coliseum on June 16 was shown yesterday, following definite announcement that the widely heralded "Race of the Century" actually will be run. This was stated last night by Robert S. Weaver, president of the Southwest Olympic Games Committeee.

Announcement that Charles W. Paddock will leave New York on Sunday for Los Angeles and will be in the June 16 contests was an incentive yesterday to the Coliseum show committee, headed by Harold B. Franklin, to increase its efforts.

Since the "Race of the Century" was first so designated two additional sprint stars have been added to the list of contestants. These are Frank Lombardi and Weldon Draper, both of whom have been running the 100 yards in almost world-record time. The others are Paddock, who recently was reported in eastern newspapers as not planning to return to Los Angeles for the event; Charlie Borah and Frank Wykoff. The struggle between these five phenomenal sprinters will draw nation-wide interest.

Italian Street Carnival to Be Given at Park

An Italian street carnival given in a colorful outdoor setting depicting a market place in old Italy will be presented tomorrow at 2 p.m. by the children and adults of Echo Park Playground at the field at Temple street and Glendale Boulevard, according to the announcement of the City Playground Department. The pageant will be offered as the 1928 edition of Echo playground's anuual spring festival, an event which has become traditional at this oldest of the city playgrounds.

More than 300 persons will be in the cast. Among the, characters will be the queen, high chancellor and Italian court, and peasants, dancers, revelers, acrobats and all of the quaint characters of an old market place.

Three other city playgrounds are planning to give spring festivals tomorrow afternoon in different sections of Los Angeles. South Park, Vineyard and Venice playgrounds will present the pageants.

Banquet Will be K. of C. Feature

John A. Holland, general chairman of the Knights of Columbus convention committee, announces that a monster banquet will be held in the Ambassador Hotel auditorium Monday night at which over 2500 Knights, friends, officials and guests will be present. Motion-picture notables will be present and vaudeville and musical artists will furnish entertainment.

Filmland will be presented by Charles Farrell, June Collyer, Lois Moran, Edmund Lowe, Lilyan Tashman, George O'Brien, James Ryan, Dorothy Dwan and others. Entertainment will be furnished by Bille Hoffman, Adeline Wykhoff, Frank and Lands Yaccolenni, Sol Hopper and Harry Duncker in conjunction with the speakers to include Lieut.-Gov. Fitts, Joseph Scott and Thomas P. White, who will act as master of ceremonies.

Beverly Area to Vote Today on Park Bonds

The people of Beverly Hills living in the residential district north of Santa Monica Boulevard will vote today on a $720,000 bond issue for the purpose of buying all the lots in Beverly Hills bordering on the north line of Santa Monica Boulevard from the easterly city limits to its intersection with Wilshire Boulevard, and all the lots on the north side of Wilshire Boulevard from Santa Monica Boulevard to the Los Angeles Country Club to be improved as a park about two and one-half miles long if the election carries.

When improved as a park it will be presented to the city of Beverly Hills for the use of all the people.

At an election held January 10, last, all the citizens of Beverly Hills voted to accept the park and maintain it if the bcnd issue carries and the park was presented to the city by the residents north of Santa Monica Boulevard.

Famous Rancho Figures in Suit Over Links Tract

Echoes of the days of the dons, senoras, senoritas, guitars and castanets were heard in Judge Blake's court yesterday in the suit over the last remnant of the Sepulveda Rancho, at one time a property which covered the greater part of Southern California.

The action was begun by Ada B. Sepulveda, descendant of the famous family, against Eloi Amar and others. The trouble is over land, once the pasture of the rancho, where efforts now as being made to make a golf links.

Mrs. Sepulveda asserts that she leased the property to Amar for fifty years for $15,000 but no rent ever was paid.

The defendants contend that after the agreement was made it was learned that the property was not in the woman's name, therefore the agreement was void.

Judge Blake has the case under advisement.

BIERCE FATE INQUIRY BEGUN

however, criticises this explanation of the disappearance.

Whatever the fate that befell the author, the facts that prompted him to join the Mexican forces, where he was swallowed up and lost, are well established, Mrs. Isgrigg says.

She points out that her father, a striking figure of leonine vitality, despite his years and notability, yearned for action, probably born of his youthful years in Civil War battles, where he was brevetted a major for gallantry and reaped material for his macabre tales of war.

SOUGHT WAR ACTION

Mrs. Isgrigg says her father went into the Mexican revolutionary centers for the precise purpose of seeing further action in battle line. He was to have gone through Mexico to Europe later, but the revolution drew the black curtain of mystery across his life and left his end unexplained.

Bierce was one of the nation's first newspaper columnists, working in San Francisco, New York and Washington. In California his prolific pen scourged his enemies with bitter invective and he was a notable figure in the State's earlier and less tame days of journalism.

Some of his works are "Tales of Soldiers and Civilians," "Fantastic Fables," "Shapes of Clay," "The Cynic's Word Book," "Write It Right," a blacklist of literary faults, and "The Shadow on the Dial."

MAIL CLERK INDICTED BY GRAND JURY

Thirteen Others Named by Federal Inquisition on Various Charges

Fourteen persons were indicted in eleven indictments returned yesterday by the Federal grand jury. Among these are Roy A. Foster, a railway mail clerk, working between Los Angeles and Arizona, accused of the theft of $6000 in Cival War and Spanish-American pension checks. It was charged that Foster cashed about $400 worth of the checks.

James Lee and Jerry Rickmeyer were accused of conspiracy to violate the immigration act by smuggling in Japanese. August J. W. Ross, John N. Holtz and Arthur E. Houchins are accused of conspiracy to counterfeit $20 Federal reserve notes. Other charges against other defendants are for violation of the white slave act, the tariff act and immigration act.

The rates carry a 10 per cent deductable clause for the first five classes and 15 per cent for the last two. All require the buildings to be insured for 70 per cent of their value.

Acquitted Negro Again Must Face Robbery Charge

Acquitted several months ago of robbing his former employer, Lawrence J. Bright, a negro, whose testimony led to Moses Davis, an attorney, being sentenced to five days and fined $500 for contempt, was arraigned yesterday by Municipal Judge Baird on a charge of conspiracy to commit robbery.

Bright's preliminary hearing was set for the 28th inst., and he was remanded to the County Jail in lieu of $10,000 bail. He is accused of conspiring with William Massengill to rob Morrell Law, 701 Gramercy Place on September 9, last. Massengill is serving time in San Quentin following conviction for the robbery, but Bright, former chauffeur for Law, was acquitted. Additional evidence brought to the attention of authorities has resulted in the conspiracy charge being filed, Dep. Dist.-Atty. McLaughlin stated.

Free Ice Cream for Cook Class

The Times free cooking class, which meets at 2 p.m. today, in the demonstration rooms of the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway, will have an unusual treat. Not only will Mrs. Mabelle (Chef) Wyman have an unusually varied and extensive menu to discuss, but Mrs. M. W. Bishop will make and later distribute to all in attendance chocolate ice cream as a demonstration of what Frigidaire will do.

Mrs. Wyman is going in largely for desserts in her lesson today. Among others, she promises lemon pie, white potato souffle, mocha sponge cake, coffee filling, Moscow tea cake and Danish pastry. She will demonstrate the way to prepare and stuff Italian squash, or zucchini, and will add stuffed baked tomatoes to her list.

Recipes used by Mrs. Wyman are available, without cost, to all who ask personally for them of the hostess.

Probation Plea Ruling Delayed

Decision on the plea for probation made by William G. Lacy, Jr., scheduled for yesterday, will not be made until the 31st inst., Superior Judge Craig ruled yesterday when probation officers requested an extension of time in which to prepare their report.

Lacy recently pleaded guilty to a charge of manslaughter arising out of the death of Jackie Goldenhar, who was struck and killed by Lacy's automobile March 3, last. Miss Hilda Smith was struck and injured in the same accident, according to officers.

Charges of failure to stop and render aid and reckless driving preferred against Lacy were dismissed at the time he pleaded guilty to the manslaughter charge.

HOW would you like to have pretty teeth, like those shown in the photograph above?

Flashing teeth . . . brilliant teeth . . . are yours if you choose your dental cream on the basis of results.

Follow the lead of those who have already kept their teeth sound and beautiful for years.

Simply adopt for your own use the dentifrice most popular among people with well-preserved teeth. The one most dentists recommend.

It is no accident that people who have used a cleansing dentifrice for years and years have teeth so sound and lovely.

In this country, and in foreign countries the world over, you will find thousands and thousands of men and women who began using Colgate's ten, fifteen, even twenty years ago, and whose teeth today are exceptionally sound and beautiful.

Many of these people are grateful enough to write to us. Some send their photographs also. Each day the postman brings a few more letters to add to an already bulging file. Many of these letters are from users who have brushed with Colgate's for at least a decade.

In such a vital matter as the care of your teeth, could there be any safer guide than the actual experiences of people like yourself?

CLEAN!

Years ago we set out to make the best dentifrice possible. We interviewed leading dental authorities. They told us that the one thing a dentifrice should do is to clean teeth. We then produced Ribbon Dental Cream—designing it to do that one thing superlatively well. It is not medicated, because all experiments in the meantime have sustained the original principle that cleansing is the only thing a dentifrice can do.

INSANITY CHARGE FAILS IN COURT

Mrs. Hertha Murray

MOTHER TESTIFIES

Mrs. Katha, mother of Mrs. Murray, testified that her daughter lived with her in their San Francisco home, but had been in New York, returning about April 27. Mrs. Katha said that Claus Spreckels arrived with her daughter and stayed at their home one day and then went to the hotel. She asserted her daughter is not addicted to drinking and that she came here to take her daughter back home

Dwight Matthiessen, 807 North Madison street, testified to being a friend of Mrs. Murray and was with her several evenings and that she had not been drinking or taking drugs except as directed by her physician.

Dr. Edwin Steele, a hospital psychiatrist, said when the woman was received at the hospital she showed no signs of having been drinking or of taking drugs.

Judge Gould then took occasion to say that there was no reason shown why the woman should have been brought to the hospital, that at the most she apparently had had but a drink or two. The charge against her was that she was so addicted to stimulants that she needed to be committed to a State institution. Andrews signed the complaint.

DETECTIVE TESTIFIES

The hearing was adjourned until Detectives McMahan and Anderson arrived. McMahan denied seeing the woman until she was taken to the Central Police Station. He did not disclose who took her there. He said he attempted to question her and that she refused to answer all of his questions. Dwight Reay, the young woman's attorney, asked him whether the unanswered questions did not relate to Claus Spreckels and McMahan said "no names were mentioned."

McMahan declared he took the woman to the hotel because she said she had been under care of a physician and she wanted to be turned over to him and her friends. He said she telephoned to many persons from the hotel, but could get none to come to her and she then was taken to the hospital. He denied that he ordered liquor for her in the hotel.

Anderson's testimony was similar to McMahan's. Judge Gould declared the facts had not warranted the woman being taken to the hospital, with its resultant expense to the county, and ordered the case dismissed.

ALL MIXED UP

The hearing did not proceed to the point where it was disclosed why Mrs. Murray was arrested. Neither did it clear up the disputed point as to who arrested her. She testified McMahan and Anderson seized her at the hotel. McMahan testified that the first time he saw her was when she was taken into the police station. Anderson did not testify on the point. McMahan did not reveal who took her to the station.

After the release of Mrs. Murray, Reay and she began a search for the ring and letters which she said she had received from Spreckels. Reay declared she had some of the letters in her possession when she was started for the hospital, but that they disappeared en route. She said the same detective who got the ring got the letters and that she managed to take from this detective a lodge emblem he was wearing. An emblem is among her effects listed by the property custodian at the hospital.

Within a few hours after the hearing ended, attaches of the lunacy court reported the disappearance of the court records containing the complaint against the woman and other documents.

Mrs. Murray, known to some of her friends as "Babe," is said to be the divorced wife of Todd Murray of a wealthy San Francisco family. She has many acquaintances here.

French Picture Star to be Feted

The local French colony, headed by P. F. Pellisier, president, completed plans yesterday to welcome Lily Damita, French film actress, on her arrival Saturday via the Santa Fe. Miss Damita comes here to start a contract with Samuel Goldwyn.

Henri Didot, French Consul, will represent the French government at the reception. The Dames de la Legion Francaise and the French Benevolent Society will be represented by officers and members, including Mrs. C. Bertrand and Mrs. John Lifur, presidents of the two organizations. The French Hospital, the Courier Francaise of the Foresters and the French Veterans' Society will be represented in numbers.

Lucien Brunswig, head of the Brunswig Drug Company, will be present to present Miss Damita with an invitation to a tea in her honor at his home the latter part of next week. The guests will be exclusively French.

Mr. Pellisier issued an invitation to friends of the French people to participate in the station reception to Miss Damita. She will be taken by motorcycle escort to the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel, which will be her Los Angeles home.

Today's Bible Text

Be Thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: and Thy glory above all the earth. Psalm cviii:5.

TAKING PAINS

What are growing pains in children prove to be lumbago and rheumatism after one has turned the fiftieth milestone. Men are but children grown up.

LIBRARY ON WHEELS

A new circulating library in New Mexico is located in a box car. In this way the railroad men in getting their literature can switch from one line to another.

A HORSE APIECE

At the debating club the other afternoon it was a dead heat over the proposition whether the guy who was lonesome or the one who was bored had the worst of it.

NO FIRE LEFT

When the chill winds of winter come it is generally found that the planks in the various political platforms will not even make decent kindling. They may have had heat in them once, but it has gone.

ORDERING POP

Students at Kansas Agricultural College are conducting a series of experiment over the discovery and efforts were pop in popcorn. The co-eds ought to help them quite a bit in this popping business.

HELEN'S POKER FACE

It is explained that Helen Wills's poker face is not due to lack of emotion but to concentration. But holding four aces is nothing to having a big string of medals pinned on the front of you after a few rounds in the courts.

QUEER INSURANCE

You can insure almost anything, at least so it would seem from the statement that Mack Sennett has insured the crossed eyes of Ben Turpin for $100,000, payable to Sennett if the eyes become normal. Why not have Ben's neck insured, too? It might take a notion to grow shorter.

NO EPIDEMICS

Cleanliness, fresh air and sunlight will dispose of any epidemic of disease. This is the judgment of a group of health officers—nearly all of them doctors. Folks who get their soap and water regularly are seldom bothered with plagues. Sunshine and pure air will do the rest.

SOMETIMES BOTH

With the Queen of England spending her time cutting daffodils with her own hands to carry to the hospitals of London, and the King of Bulgaria acting as mechanic to two stranded American motorists, it would seem that "kind hearts" and coronets sometimes go together.

PRETENDERS

More than a century ago Emerson, who made a number of wise observations, gave a good piece of advice regarding fake mystics. He said, "Beware the man who declares he is about to have an illumination." There were not so many then broadcasting the revelations they claimed to have already experienced.

HORSES IN AUSTRALIA

Trucks and tractors are being introduced in Australia to such an extent that good work horses will hardly bring $8 to $10 a head at auction. Yet it is only a few seasons since the island continent felt that its future rested entirely upon the expansion of its equine population. Everybody had to have a horse, whether he had a shirt or not.

BURIED ALIVE

The horned toad who was locked in a cornerstone in Texas for thirty years was not the first hermit of his race. An ancient volume called Mnemonika, or the Chronological Tablets, published in 1812, tells of the finding of a live toad in the heart of a stone broken near Newark, N. J., in 1806. At the time there was considerable excitement over the discovery and efforts were made to prove that the toad might have been there for eighty or a hundred years. Will some bright scientist kindly tell us how long a toad can hold its breath?

BISHOP JOHNSON

The closing years of the last century were epochal in the growth of Southern California. Early pioneers had laid the foundation. An active citizenry had risen above the handicap of a disastrous boom. That last decade of the nineteenth century witnessed the influx of a galaxy of brilliant men and women to carry forward the banner of progress.

The country was building in every direction. Able thinkers and doers were pushing its material fortunes at a pace that soon became the wonder of all observers. Culture and education were making giant strides. The natural beauties of a region exceptionally blest were augmented in every direction by architects, city planners, poets and artists. And for the supreme advantage of a community in the making its religious future fell into the hands of earnest, enthusiastic and wide-visioned workers.

So, a leader among other devoted leaders, there came to Southern California in the year 1896 a noted churchman from Detroit, a man in the prime of life, already tried and tested in the arduous labor of molding and holding the life of religious communities. A leader, loved for his humanity and highly valued for his executive ability.

At that time the Episcopal church needed such a pioneer on the Pacific Coast. The territorially far-flung diocese of California was managed entirely from San Francisco and the growing parishes and missions of the south could receive neither proper care nor attention administered from so far away. In a happy moment for the church the authorities decided to create a new diocese of Southern California, and to fill the office of bishop in this fruitful field summoned from Detroit Rt. Rev. Joseph Horsfall Johnson.

What Bishop Johnson effected during his thirty-two years of church work, not only for his fellow-communicants, but for the social, civic and industrial welfare of Southern California as a whole, is written in letters of gold far beyond the doors of St. Paul's Cathedral. He established new missions, organized missions into parishes, expanded parishes, turned an old city church into a noble modern temple.

No town or hamlet from Santa Barbara to San Diego but felt the influence of his guiding hand. Humanitarian enterprises grew in strength and usefulness through his tireless efforts. The Hospital of the Good Samaritan, the Harvard School, the Bishop's School for Girls, the Neighborhood Settlement, the Church Home for Children, the Home for the Aged are some of the monuments to his zeal and efficiency.

Bishop Johnson worthily carried on the work along religious and humanitarian lines started by Junipero Serra and the Franciscans before the dominance of the white man. He was a true follower in the footsteps of the greatest of all the Christian apostles for whom the Episcopacy has named its Los Angeles Cathedral and where the first bishop of Southern California will be given the last sorrowful rites.

How much the Episcopal church owes to this beloved leader time will tell with the expanding sphere of its ministry. Tomorrow the people of Los Angeles and Southern California will be thinking more of the human friend than of the great church leader. They will remember the kindness of a big heart before the services rendered by the active brain.

They will see the bishop seated at the table, where some struggling men's club, perhaps, had asked for his presence at an annual banquet, or some civic movement had begged his help to further a good cause, the genial host who always had a smile and a pleasant jest for all comers and who never forgot the face or the name of any one of the thousands he met in the course of his many-sided public life—however long the interval of time or place—and what finer proof than this of the deep-seated root of his affection for his fellow-man?

They will remember him as the traveled scholar who could discourse intelligently on far countries and sympathetically and sincerely on every issue that touched his home land. They will remember him as filled with the qualities that St. Paul himself advocated for all undertaking the sacred mission of spreading the gospel of the Master.

Outside his church loyalty and his strong insistence on the principles he was sworn to uphold Bishop Johnson was one who loved his fellow-man in his social instincts and his human contacts. At many future banquets and assemblies where men meet to advance good causes and noble ends, his spirit will be present and feel as Ireland's national poet expressed it,

"Too happy and blest, if amid the glad cheer
Some kind soul had murmured, 'I wish

SHIP AND FARM RELIEF

The Senate on Wednesday passed so-called relief measures for two important American industries—farms and shipping. One of these seems likely to receive Presidential approval, the other to be vetoed. In its final form, the Jones-White shipping bill is unquestionably immensely improved, compared with the Socialistic Jones measure first passed by the Senate, and while it appears to modify the shipping policy in the direction of government ownership and operation by requiring that five of the seven shipping-board members give assent to sales of vessels, the modification is more apparent than real.

This is true because the President is getting rid of public-ownership advocates as rapidly as possible. Commissioner Benson has been replaced by Rear-Admiral Cone, retired, and Commissioner Teller is slated to go when his term expires next month.

The bill increases the mail subvention for fast ships materially, and provides long-term loans in aid of ship building at low rates of interest. It does not provide as well as it might for the construction of freight carriers by the privately owned lines, but it does aid their operation by permitting the enlistment of crews in the Naval Reserve, with pay. On the whole, the measure is probably the best that could be obtained from the present Congress, and will do until a better can be had. Since the United States has fallen to tenth place in shipbuilding, having been passed even by Russia, the situation deserved a better remedy.

The bill should have contained a repealer of the more obnoxious provisions of the La Follette union-labor-sponsored seaman's act and a modernization of inspection regulations.

Concerning the McNary-Haugen bill, the adverse opinion of The Times has frequently been expressed. The new measure differs only slightly from the one President Coolidge vetoed last year, and would, if it became law, stimulate further production in an industry already suffering from overproduction, thus making matters worse instead of better. It is unlikely to be approved.

MEXICO WILL PROFIT

Mexico will be benefited quite largely by the tour of her teachers in California. Members of the present mission now in Los Angeles express themselves as having been greatly impressed by what they have seen of the schools of this State, particularly in the way of educational equipment. They say that on their return home they will procure all similar equipment possible for their own schools.

The high teaching standards of California as well as the methods of financing the schools appeal to these Mexican visitors, who hope to adopt them so far as they can. Thoroughly awake to the advantages to be gained by the extension of educational facilities, Mexico is making intensive efforts in that direction and the results have been quite satisfactory. It has established normal schools throughout the country. Education is under Federal control and is free and compulsory for all ages between 6 and 16.

The Mexican people generally are enthusiastic over the government's program for the extension of schooling. When the government called for volunteer teachers to assist in stamping out illiteracy a large number responded and more than 2000 were enrolled in a single year.

May success attend the efforts of the present Mexican educational mission to California. When its members return home may they keep in mind the pleasant fellowship and good wishes of our own educators upon whose assistance they may count with confidence at any time.

CALIFORNIA CRUMBS

The New York Times is trying to find comfort in the vote Gov. Smith received in the California primaries. The following sentence is part of the climax of the lead editorial in a recent issue:

"The cry was raised that it was 'thirsty Republicans' who swelled Gov. Smith's vote in California. Well, if so, it was not liquor that they were thirsting for, since they can get all they wish of that as it is."

The Smith majority over the other candidates of that party was doubtless satisfactory to Tammany. But the total Democratic vote was not impressive. The Republican vote was almost four to one over the Democratic ballot. In the face of these returns how it could be inferred that many "thirsty Republicans" voted for the New York Governor is a mystery. The editorial writer must have had something that enabled him to see two or more for one.

The Golden State incident may help the New York Governor to achieve the nomination at Houston; but he can hardly find even small crumbs of comfort in the California skirmish for the big battle in the finals in November.

If "thirsty Republicans" swelled the Governor's vote out here, it requires considerable stretch of the imagination to see it. And that stretch will snap back in the fall. From the majority they rolled up, the Republicans appear to have been Hooverizing in the primaries. It was the only vote with much swelling.

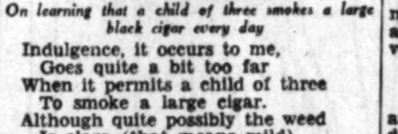
If the Tammany tiger can live on the crumbs of California comfort, it may have mistaken McAdoo's goat to feed on. Possibly this is why the New York Times is "kidding" Gov. Smith.

Evidently the elephant had the tiger's supper on primary day. And while the big pachyderm may not greatly care for tiger meat—and drink; yet its big carcass has the only swelling noticeable. It seems the more it Hooverizes, the fatter it gets.

If there were Republicans who thirsted "to return to sound principles of government," they must have had their places filled by Democrats who want Hoover. If they can get "all they wish of that as it is," why are they dissatisfied with matters as they are?

SPRING TRAINING

Ship from South America arriving the other day had thirty or forty sloths included in the cargo. After the critters have been in our traffic for a few days they will be able to jump thirty-seven feet in any direction. This is a good country to ginger up sloths.



A PROTEST

By James J. Montague

On learning that a child of three smokes a large black cigar every day

Indulgence, it occurs to me,
  Goes quite a bit too far
When it permits a child of three
  To smoke a large cigar.
Although quite possibly the weed
  Is claro (that means mild)
If it is large it may indeed
  Be hurtful to a child.

Before a youngster reaches eight
  He rarely has the price
Upon which he can cultivate
  The least expensive vice.
And if when one is only three
  He needs his daily smoke
It's rather probable that he
  At seven will be broke.

I think our darling little pets
  Within the family hive
Should all begin on cigarettes
  And never start till five.
And when they are approaching eight
  And doff their romper suits
They might with safety graduate
  To fairly strong cheroots.

I know that children now are old
  At very tender years;
I'm not the man to chide and scold
  And check their young careers,
But I was born of prudent folk
  Who dwelt in times of yore,
And I was never taught to smoke
  Till I was more than four.

"WHERE'S the best burlesque show in town, lady?" inquired a bulbous man, crowding up to the information desk in the Pacific Electric station last night and addressing Miss Grace Anstead, who was behind the counter. Before Miss Anstead could reply, a tall, Bostony-looking woman who for half an hour had been idling at the desk, apparently absorbed in literature of various resorts, turned to the inquirer.

"It's right here," she answered. Just stand here a few minutes and listen, and you'll see there's nothing else in town which can possibly beat it."

Dominecker Station

We didn't happen to be that bulbous man, but we took the advice of the tall, whimsical woman and listened in for a while. And we agree with her.

We didn't have to wait long. Pretty soon up rushed what looked like a country youth just arrived from the Middle West. He carried a "telescope" and was eloquently travel stained.

"How do I get to Dominecker station?" he inquired.

"I never heard of any such station," replied Miss Anstead. "Are you sure you have the name right? Don't you mean Dominguez?"

"No. Dominecker. I'm dead sure it's Dominecker."

Miss Anstead surveyed him pensively, searching a clew. Suddenly it flashed across her mind that she had heard of Dominecker chickens, or something like that. Then she began to think of chickens, and communities devoted to poultry raising. And then revelation came.

"You're not by any chance thinking of Wyandotte Crossing?" she asked.

"Why, sure," said the unabashed youth. "Ain't that what I said?"

Not Florence, Italy

A substantial negress offered the next problem. She came up, purse in hand:

"I want to buy a ticket for Florence," she announced.

"You must go to the ticket window for tickets, said Miss Anstead. "But there isn't any Florence anywhere around here, that I know of."

"Why, lady, you-all's crazy. They sure is."

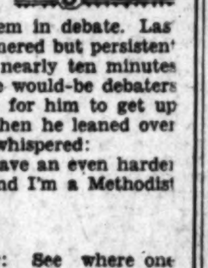
"Always glad to learn," said Miss Anstead. "Can you give me any idea where Florence is?"

The negress looked around, cautiously. Then she pointed across the waiting-room.

"Why, sure, lady. There she is settin' right over there."

Tribute From a Minister

Since the new red-line rates went into effect, the daily lives of the information clerks in the Pacific Electric station have been anything but joyous. People who seem to think they own the lines, and can change the tariffs offhand if once they are properly convinced, continually crowd up to the counter and try to engage them in debate. Last night a mild-mannered but persistent man had to wait nearly ten minutes before some of the would-be debaters would make room for him to get up to the desk, and then he leaned over the counter and whispered:



"Madame, you have an even harder job than mine—and I'm a Methodist minister."

Oh, Not Entirely

Dear Sidewinder: See where one Severiano Rodriguez was sentenced to jail for 180 days for "slashing dresses of women in congested places." Are we to understand from this that corsets aren't as out of style as we thought they were?—L. M. B.

Yere, Pup, Cummere, Cummere!

Recently this colyum told of a clever little dog which waited for traffic signals before crossing the street. H. A. F., who has lost one, writes in to ask if it was a fox terrier answering to the name of Tic Toc. Knowing what it is to lose a dog, we gladly would go more than H. A. F.-way to help in this case. But, alas, we can do little. It was a fox terrier, but whether or not it answered to the name of Tic Toc we cannot say, as we did not have our grandfather clock along when we saw it. It seemed to us to answer to the name of Cummere.

Old Order Changes

LOS ANGELES, May 7.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I read with much amusement the remarks of Councilmen Allen and Albers relative to the airport election returns. That only about one-half of the taxpayers were intelligent enough to see the thing as Mr. Allen wished them to. Thanks to Mr. Allen for his high opinion of the voters in Los Angeles.

I firmly believe the time has come in Los Angeles when the people are going to assert their rights and not swallow hook, bait, and all, as they have been doing in the past. The next election will see many changes in the political situation in Los Angeles and the old-time wire pullers can pack their stuff and prepare to retire.

A New Honor System

LOS ANGELES, May 14.—[To the Editor of The Times:] An Angeleno of the long ago who has strayed and returned I find upon my Van Winklish return that which would exhaust more magniloquent vocabularies than mine to encompass.

Prosaically I have most substantial gratification in one feature—the active survival of honored commercial names that in my school days here were household slogans. To see that these firms have weathered decades of erratic regional developments and economic vicissitudes of national scope are still securely and familiarly a part of the mercantile life of the city gives to an old-timer a glow that is indeed 100 per cent patriotic.

Now, this being the age of labels for everything—even the weeks being dedicated and cities vying for graded recognition—an idea along that line prompts me to a suggestion.

Why not, in this metropolis so incredibly vast in its aggressive adolescence, evolve a system of civic recognition for commercial longevity within its business world? Firms that have stood up under the tests of fifty years to be proclaimed by some distinguishing civic insignia. Those of a twenty-five-year existence to be accredited proportionately. It might seem that something of a sense of history-making continuity and stability would result and would give weight to the city's claims as being a sure thing and not as the uninformed in distant localities may hint "hot air."

"Hark From the Tombs"

LOS ANGELES, May 8.—[To the Editor of The Times:] The city of Los Angeles is asleep at the switch on the valuation proposition. Big business has entered the crisis of a world financial storm. Its furious forces of inflation are devastating all investment securities and undermining the integrities of rents, taxes, rates of services, prices of commodities and appraisals of properties. The larger cities are compelled to bear the brunt of these destructive forces and to assume leadership in ways and means to cope with this greatest financial crisis in history. The people will suffer from this financial crisis in so far as they support respectable stupidity in high places to deal with the valuation proposition, the master problem of our time.

Foot Watchers

SANTA ANA, May 7.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Do you want to know how the Iowa married people manage to live together so long and so well? This is the Iowa way as explained by an Ioway woman when some one asked her how she and her husband, both of them "high tempered," could live so peaceably together. "It's this way," she said, "when he puts his foot down I do not put mine down, and when I put mine down he does not put his down. Each one watches the other's foot! This gives us a chance to cool off! So we find it easy to keep the peace."

Recommend this way to the married people in other States and reduce the number of divorces.

SHOES AND TIRES

At the same time with the automotive industry the shoe industry is at peak production. In several districts, early 1928 shipments were nearly 3 per cent larger than production in the same period. This condition appears to be almost paradoxical. Why do people who ride more wear out their shoes more? Perhaps those who have no motor cars walk farther and faster trying to keep up with their more fortunate neighbors. Scattering of distributing points to make parking easier for motorists may have made it necessary for the pedestrians to foot it up and down more blocks in making their purchases. And then, too, the motorists themselves wear out many good heels and now and then do a little unusual hiking when either the motor or the driver fails to act like a gentleman. At any rate, the American public is going somewhere and going faster and oftener—both afoot and awheel.

SET HIS OWN LEG

Using first-aid methods learned as a Boy Scout, Marvin Wallerstedt, 12 years of age, of Hartington, Neb., who broke his leg in a fall on the ice, set it himself and then sent playmates for a physician. When the doctor arrived he found nothing to do but bandage the leg.

THE PROWLERS

BY EUGENE BROWN

What business has a committee of Senators—or any other group of inquisitors for that matter, in prying into the aims or motives of a reputable citizen who has merely been mentioned in connection with high office? Men who have no more chance for the Presidency than a walrus has of becoming a toe-dancer are asked what promises they have made to individuals and organizations and what instructions they have given to their delegates—if any. They must tell what money they have spent, where they got it, and how it was made. Gosh! but these birds are nosey.

So far as the general public is concerned only Hoover and Smith are to be reckoned with, yet these political prowlers have harried more than a dozen decent men who are only suspected of being Presidential timber. Nobody is safe from their speculative eyes. They do not even spare one another. If they catch a Senator buying a new hat they immediately want to know his purpose with it. Is it a sport model or a Presidential bonnet? How can he afford it? Who gave him the money for it? Does it come from the brewers' association or the prohibition club?

Perhaps the early idea was to correct the waste of money in political campaigning, but that has been expanded into an all-seeing program. The quizzers want to know whether the prospective candidate shaves himself or goes to the barber. They must know whether he sleeps in pajamas or puts faith in the old-fashioned nightshirt. If Al Smith wears a belt while Herbert Hoover holds 'em up with his trusty suspenders the Senatorial busybodies must know it. They even set traps to find out.

To indicate the thoroughness of their job the harriers wanted to know if Hoover was paying the personal expenses of the delegates to Kansas City and what arrangements had been made with them as to their second choice. That seemed to be quite a vital point with the quizzers. After the delegates had lost out on Hoover or Lowden what would become of the poor devils? Would they be sold down the river, or would they be suffered to stagger home as best they could? Or would they be disguised and rushed over to Houston to vote for Smith? For some reason or other Senators are always eager to learn the fate of a delegate.

Col. Lowden was bluntly asked whether he was a stalking horse for Charlie Dawes and whether he had not agreed to turn his delegates over to the Evanstonian after the first or second ballot. Lord Chesterfield would never have been quite as raw as that, but Senators do not have to be either courteous or squeamish. If they wish to puncture a guy they make a job of it by using an ax instead of a pin. But so far as the average citizen is concerned the only effect of the inquisition is to make the world unnecessarily distrustful and suspicious. There doesn't seem to be any sincerity left. If a man indicates honesty his motives will still be questioned. This is a coarse world and the Senatorial scavengers only keep the smell stirred up. But they see their duty and by jinks! they are going to do it.

MAKING MONEY

BY WYNONAH JOHNSON

Big automobile companies are not the only ones to rise and announce a new model—the government takes such position its very own self every once in a while. It takes just as much study and preparation, too, for the new model is the smaller-sized dollar, and for two years Uncle Sam has been laying plans for its debut, and now, with the master dies complete, the new dollar bill has gone into production.

Two-thirds the size of the old, the new one is like the currency now used in the Philippines, where its convenience has already been demonstrated and is the result of almost ten years of planning and experimentation by the Department of Federal Bureau of Engraving and Printing.

The secretly processed silk-fiber paper which costs only about nine-tenths of a cent per slip to produce, and which can be turned into a bill worth $10,000 by a thump or two from a government press, is guarded almost as carefully before it has the Treasury imprint on either side of it as it is afterward, for fear a counterfeit might get hold of a sheaf and become a competitor of the bureau.

Getting out the new bill is not so simple as it sounds, since the making and testing of the master dies took three months of intensive engraving alone, owing to the painstaking technique necessary to design each scroll and turn to prevent counterfeiting. There being about 443,000,000 paper dollars now in circulation, that number of new ones will be needed at the start, and as the life of a dollar bill is about eight months, the bureau will have to keep manufacturing. A half billion bills will be ready before the first one is introduced, and the present bills will disappear two months after the appearance of the new ones, except the stray ones in children's banks or in some miser's hoard.

WHERE THE DEAD RISE

Morrow Mayo notes that the Iowa press sometimes refers to Los Angeles as "the city of the living dead," and it is a fact that thousands who have died all their lives in other climes come to life with a bang when they reach the promised land of Southern California.

RIPPLING RHYMES

TOM HEENEY

Tom Heeney was recently chosen to battle with Tunney, we learn; Tom's assets have always been frozen, he never had kopecks to burn. He traveled with other civilians who couldn't buy bacon and eggs; and now he is dreaming of millions, of money in boxes and kegs. When Thomas decided to travel, he rode in no shining sedan; he kicked up the dust and the gravel with feet that were pleasant to scan; for they were so willing and eager they fairly kicked holes through his shoes; then Thomas's bundle was meager, and walking was good for his thews. Then Heeney was happy and jolly, he hadn't a woe or a care, and avarice struck him as folly, while he had a shilling to spare. He hunted the pestilent dingos and played with the tall kangaroos, and talked, in their various lingos, with native barbarian crews. His pleasures were simple and modest, and humble his hope and desire; his smile was the gladdest and broadest when camping alone by his fire. But now he is dreaming of money, of money in hogshead and crate; he merely must conquer Gene Tunney, to rise to a golden estate. You've noticed his map in the papers, good natured and friendly and gay; a fellow of antics and capers, who found some new joy every day. But if in a year you behold him, you'll see that he's careworn and sad; the plutes of the ring have enrolled him as one who is after the scad. True happiness goes when the scheming for oceans of money begins; it withers away when we're dreaming of rubles in boxes and bins. Tom Heeney is dreaming of piling the pieces-of-eight in a stack; and shortly his gay trick of smiling will vanish and never come back.

FORGERY ASSERTED

Neblett took forty-nine minutes for his argument, during which he declared that 400,000 shares, or $20,000,000 worth of Julian stock, at its par value of $50, bore the forged signatures of his client, Conroy. He asserted the signatures were traced by a stock transfer clerk and another person in the Julian offices. Conroy was excused from attending court several days ago and now is in Arizona taking treatments for tuberculosis.

James G. Seaborough, representing William Kottemann, Julian company's auditor, completed his argument yesterday afternon, and in a quiet address, marked by lack of emotion, declared his client was an outside employee of the company and had nothing to do with the company's internal affairs.

ROCKHOLD'S WORK WINS HIM PRAISE

Fellow Officials Award Tribute for Faithful Services to County

J. E. Rockhold, county surveyor, was the recipient of congratulations yesterday from his fellow officials on completion of twenty-one years in the service of the county.

Surveyor Rockhold's name went on a county pay roll for the first time in 1907, when he was appointed a draftsman in the office of the surveyor. He has served continuously in that office ever since, with the exception of two years when he was in the Army during the war. He was appointed surveyor in 1914.

When Rockhold was a draftsman there were twenty employees in the office. He personally inspected and approved plans for the subdivision of the San Fernando Valley ranchos, and many other large sections of the county, and literally thousands of subdivisions were approved under his authority.

There are now 500 employees under him, and in addition to keeping up the county survey, he is charged with responsibility for great construction works, including drainage, sewer and lighting projects.

FIRE HOUSE JUST CAN'T FIND HOME

Thousand Proposed Sites in Hollywood Refused on Protests

One thousand sites have been looked into during a period of two years for a new fire station in Hollywood but the Board of Fire Commissioners is still looking for one suitable to the department and property owners, it developed at the meeting of the board yesterday, when the Cahuenga Avenue District Development Association, assisting the commissioners, was given another thirty days to make a choice.

The trouble is that when a site suitable to the board is picked, property owners in the vicinity object because of the noise of fire apparatus. If there is no objection by owners, then the site is generally not suitable to the board as in a sparsely settled district.

The station is now on Cahuenga avenue in a building occupied jointly with the police department. This site was traded some time ago for a fire station site on Vine street and a police station site at the corner of Wilcox avenue and De Longpre street. Vine-street folks and the congregation of a church opposite protested strenuously. The development association is seeking to trade the Vine-street site for another.

In the meantime the fire department has to move from its present site in December.

Walter G. Brown, vice-president of the Cahuenga District Development Association, who has been doing much of the work of choosing a site, reported yesterday that he had inspected 1000 sites, working at all hours of the day and night. He was of the opinion that the commissioners should lease a temporary site until the so-called "five-fingered" traffic plan initiated by the City Council at a cost of $3,500,000 is completed in Hollywood.

The so-called "five-fingered" traffic plan is to join Vine street, Ivar avenue, Wilcox street and Argyle avenue with Cahuenga Boulevard as the main artery of a hub of street intersections in a business district.

The city is through with the condemnation suits and the damage awards to property which will be affected have been figured out.

PRUNING LISTED AS SCHOOL SUBJECT

The results of investigations on pruning and other cultural methods with grapes, as practiced in the United States and foreign countries, will be outlined in a course at the summer session in subtropical horticulture at Riverside, July 2 to August 11, under the auspices of the University of California. Prof. F. T. Bioletti will discuss the Vinifera grape. He will be assisted by Dr. A. J. Winkler of Davis.

GOLD MEASURES THESPIAN GLORY

Decision Near in Corrigan's Suit for Libel

Action for $100,000 Based on Asserted Letter

Witness Declares Actor's Kiss Offensive

"What Price Glory" is still a doubtful question, but a jury in the court of United States District Judge Henning will decide today in dollars and cents just what glory meant to Emmett Corrigan, oldtime actor who is suing Louis O. MacLoon and Mrs. Lillian MacLoon, his wife, for $100,000 for asserted libel.

The suit, which is based on a letter written by Mrs. Macloon, director of the stage production in which she said Corrigan was a "notorious trouble-maker," has been on trial for three days.

Testimony was completed yesterday and argument by John Deweese, the plaintiff's attorney, and Louis P. Pink, defense counsel, was begun. The court granted a nonsuit so far as Macloon is concerned, it being shown he had no knowledge of the letter.

Madeline Gray, who played the part of "Charmaine" in the play, was the chic witness yesterday, among nearly a score. She said that on one occasion, where she was supposed to kiss Corrigan, playing the part of Copt. Flagg, he kissed her in an offensive manner, and was offensive on other occasions. Mrs. Ingelborg Torrup, one of the actresses, said that Corrigan refused to remove his bags from a train seat to allow her to sit down. She stood up, she said.

COUNCILMEN MAKE JAUNT TO DAM SITE

City Officials Plan to Traverse Likely Route of Aqueduct

Five members of the City Council yesterday left Los Angeles for an inspection trip to Boulder Canyon on the Colorado River and over the route of the proposed Colorado River aqueduct. Those taking the trip were Councilmen Foster, Hall, Ingram, Rice-Wray and Sanborn, with Deputy City Clerk Browning, City Attorney Stephens and City Superintendent of Building Backus.

Officials from the water and power department in the party included Assistant Chief Engineer Van Norman of the Water Bureau, Chief Electrical Engineer Scattergood of the Power Bureau, J. Hunter Clark, executive assistant to Mr. Scattergood and R. E. McDonnell of Kansas City, water-distribution expert who is a member of the committee of three engineers now making a comprehensive survey of the municipal water department.

The party spent last night at Las Vegas, Nev., will inspect Boulder Canyon today, and tomorrow will be at Black Canyon going thence to Needles to spend the night. On Sunday the party will start for Los Angeles following as closely as possible the proposed route of the Colorado River aqueduct.

Fares Reduced for Exposition

Tourists who visit Southern California this summer with the intention of seeing the Pacific Southwest Exposition will be able to get reduced transportation rates, according to Charles A. Bland, traffic manager for the exposition.

Residents of Nevada, Utah New Mexico and Arizona may travel to California this summer on a sixteen-day ticket at one and one-third fare for the round trip. From further east the rate increases but little in ratio.

From all points in California the fares drop to as low as 1 1-10 cents a mile.

NEWS OF THE CAFES

An event of more than usual interest to cafe patrons and one that promises to be long remembered by those present was the opening of the Patio Restaurant and Tea Garden last evening in the 8200 block on Beverly Boulevard. Messrs. George and A. R. Lloyd, proprietors, promise to make this a rendezvous for those who prefer quiet, refined surroundings. Steaks, chops, fish, game, and a special pan-fried chicken dinner will be featured.

AT MIRAMAR HOTEL

College night will be celebrated this evening with a splendid dinner in the terrace dining-room of the Miramar Hotel, Santa Monica, followed by dancing from 7 until midnight. The affair is informal and no cover charge is made, according to Edwin H. Lee, general manager. Tomorrow night the usual week-end dinner-dance also will be held. Tea is served on the terraces of the Miramar every afternoon from 2:30 until 5 o'clock.

ANN CHRISTY HOSTESS

Ann Christy has just been chosen to preside as star hostess at the ninth of a series of tea-dansants sponsored by the Wampas stars to be held tomorrow afternoon in the new Roosevelt Hotel in Hollywood. Miss Christy also will present a handsome cup inscribed with her name to the winners in the dancing contest. Lina Basquette, president of the 1928 Wampas Stars' Club, and Proff L. Moore, director of amusements at the Roosevelt, now are completing arrangements.

ANOTHER WEINER ROAST

Another of the weiner roasts for which Camp Roberts, in the Big Santa Anita Canyon, is famous, will take place tomorrow evening, according to word from the management. A delightful evening is promised those present.

BY JUANA NEAL LEVY

Coming as a great surprise to the many friends of the Wetherby family in Southern California is the announcement made this morning by Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wetherby of 430 Occidental avenue here and Florida of the marriage Friday the 11th inst., in Jacksonville, Fla., of their only daughter, Miss Gladys Wetherby, to Carl Wunderlich of St. Louis, Mo., the ceremony taking place at high noon in a church of the southern city.

Miss Wetherby came north in February to attend the wedding of her brother, Oscar Wetherby, and Miss Saralee Chapman, which took place April 10 at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. R. L. Chapman, in South Norton avenue, leaving for the south to join her parents, who are now making their home in Jacksonville, April 29.

Miss Wetherby was given in marriage by her father and wore a becoming gown of white chiffon, with hat to match and carried lilies of the valley and orchirds. There were no attendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Wunderlich left the same afternoon by boat for New York City, where they are passing their honeymoon and after their return will make their home in the Coronado Hotel in St. Louis.

The bride, who has a host of friends here, was graduated from Westlake School, and afterward went with her parents and brother for an extended trip of eighteen months around the world.

She has divided her time between here and Florida since her father's interests have taken the family to Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wetherby are living in the Wetherby home.

Bon Voyage Tea

One of the lovely affairs of the week is the tea with which Miss Francis Bledsoe, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Bledsoe of Culver City, is entertaining tomorrow afternoon at the Arcady in Rampart street honoring Miss Betty Worthington, who is planning to pass her summer's vacation traveling abroad.

Miss Bledsoe has bidden about 200 of her young friends to meet Miss Worthington and will be assisted by Miss Marjorie Harriman, Miss Dorothy Dunham, Miss Marjorie Hill, Miss Ida Hull Lloyd, Miss Joan Reppy, Miss Eleanor Knecht, Miss Riddle Couth, Miss Katherine Connell, Miss Elizabeth Young, Miss Virginia Rowe, Miss Rosalie Vance, Miss Alice Schroeder, Miss Marion Rainey, Miss Jean Robbins, Mrs. A. P. Worthington, Mrs. Glenn Pollard, Mrs. B. J. Bledsoe and Mrs. Daisy E. Dunham.

A delightful program of harp music will be given by Mrs. Mildred Marsh Hawk during the receiving hours.

For Recent Brides

In honor of Mrs. Guy Earl, Jr. (Eleanor MacGowan) and Mrs. Hans Koebig (Helen Foster of San Francisco) two popular brides of recent date, Mrs. Alfred J. Bayer and her daughter, Mrs. Charles Raymond Fleishman entertained yesterday afternoon at the lovely new home of the former in Beverly Hills with a charmingly appointed luncheon of twenty-four covers, the table being exquisitely decorated with a profusion of spring flowers and feathery ferns. Mr. and Mrs. Koebig whose wedding was an event of last December 7, have returned to Los Angeles after a wedding trip in Hawaii and they are planning to build in Pasadena, making their home there.

The wedding of Miss MacGowan and Mr. Earl was an event of December 31, and they are at home to their many friends at 3734 West Adams street.

Wedding Announced

Announcement is made of the marriage Tuesday in Santa Barbara of Miss Athene Farnsworth, daughter of Mrs. Philo T. Farnsworth of Salt Lake City, Utah to Wendell M. Whitecotton, son of Mrs. J. W. N. Whitecotton of Palo Alto.

The bride who has for the past four or five years been one of the prominent magazine writers, has made her home at the Hollywood Studios Club, 1250 Lodi street and has a host of friends here, to whom the wedding comes as a great surprise. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Whitecotton motored north and will make their future home in Palo Alto.

Annual Birthday Party

The Castelar Creche is entertaining its many friends tomorrow afternoon from 3 to 5 p.m. at the Creche, 818 Castelar street, celebrating its eighth annual brithday party.

Senior Prom

Members of the graduating class of the Loyola High School held their senior prom Tuesday evening at Oakmont Country Club.

A feature of the evening was the "Senior Prom Waltz composed by one of the graduates, Jack Loughborough, and dedicated to his class of '28. Wilfred Von der Ahe, president of the high school student body announced the number. Patrons of the prom were Mr. and Mrs. James J. Gill, Mr. and Mrs. Jacques Colbert and Rev. W. E. Rice.

Informal Tea

In honor of Miss M Ishekawa of Tokio, Japan, the young women of Erdman Hall, Occidental College, entertained with an informal tea Monday afternoon. Miss Ishekawa was a delegate from Japan to the Y.W.C.A. conference recently held at Sacramento and is observing educational and religious institutions on the Coast. After the tea the guest of honor was a dinner guest at Zeta Tau Zeta House. Miss Anna Mahoney is president of Erdman Hall and Mrs. Herman S. Darling is head resident.

Home Again

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Neuhoff have returned to their home 617 South Irving Boulevard, after an extended trip to Europe. The Neuhoffs who have been abroad since last February toured by automobile, and are planning to remain for the summer at their town house here.

Entertaining Associates

Miss Antoinette Sabel is entertaining the board of directors and committee members of the Dominant Club at a tea tomorrow afternoon at her home. She will be assisted by Mrs. James Taber Fitzgerald, Miss Eva Frances Pike and Mrs. M. Hennion Robinson. The tea hour is 4:30 p.m.

School Pageant

One of the most beautiful pageants which has been given this season by students of the Gordon School for Girls, 1455 Laurel avenue, Hollywood, will be seen next Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m. The program is in charge of Mrs. Ireme Erickson Vardon and Mrs. Maude Putnam.

As well as the lightsome toe dancing which is always seen at the Gordon School affairs, there will be an exhibition of Greek poses. Nymphs and goddesses will be seen as friezes, beautiful and bewitching in a setting of trees and flowers which may well rival the glories of ancient Greece.

For Bride-Elect

One of the loveliest of the prenuptial affairs honoring Miss Edith Hill, whose marriage to Frank Davis of Samariton, Ariz., will be solemnized tomorrow in the First Congregational Church in Hollywood, was the linen shower given by the Misses Frances Dungan and Dorothy Prendargast at the latter's home recently.

Miss Dungan and Miss Prendergast will assist Miss Hill as bridesmaids at the ceremony and the three are affiliated with the Alpha Delta Theta Sorority at the University of California at Los Angeles. Miss Dungan was recently elected to serve as president of the local chapter for the coming year.

Thirty-two guests, numbering sorority sisters and intimate friends of the bride-elect, were entertained at a buffet dinner and bridge.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope, forwarded to this office, will bring a personal reply.

NAIL BITING A NERVOUS BAD HABIT

We talked recently on the subject of nervousness as the underlying cause for many habits called "bad" because of their effect on the child. Too much occupation with any habit prevents the child's enjoyment and participation in more developing interests. If the child is a nail biter, determine, if possible, what is the cause of his nervousness, and see if his environment cannot be changed so as to end it. It may be necessary to send the child away for a time. Sometimes mothers who themselves are extremely nervous find it impossible to be calm and placid in their dealings with the child, and he will improve in other surroundings as he never could at home.

The silly superstition about not cutting a child's nails may be a contributing factor in nail biting. Children are imitative and if they see mother biting small sister's or brother's nails, instead of trimming them neatly with a scissors, they may try the same methods themselves.

Children should be encouraged to have a sense of pride in their lovely nails. Not long ago we saw a young mother whose nails were badly bitten despite their gloss and generally well-cared-for condition. Her mother openly deplored this tendency of Anna to bite her nails. Later in the evening I saw Anna's mother, in a moment of absorption, put he finger in her mouth and chew meditatively on her nail! Now I wonder where Anna learned the habit in the first place, and whether she will not also be surprised at the development of such a habit in her own child?

Suggestion may work a cure when other methods fail. At bedtime when the child is going to sleep and is in his most easily suggestible mood, tell him over and over that he is going to conquer this nail-biting habit. If he forgets in the daytime, and is truly anxious to reform, try putting small strips of adhesive tape over the ends of the nail so that he will be reminded instantly when he puts his fingers in his mouth that he should stop. All such habits become unconscious and the child needs some jog to his memory, otherwise the nails are chewed and bitten before he realizes what he is doing.

Keeping the nails cut short, and polishing them so smooth that the child is aroused to admiration for them, and dislikes to injure them, are two natural methods of breaking up the habit, but these should be started early. It must not be forgotten that improper nutrition which results in soft, easily bitable nails, must be regarded as an important factor. The [illegible] is tough and [illegible] that when children [illegible] take a look at their [illegible] it is all that it should [illegible]

It would be impossible to imagine Hercules afflicted with tuberculosis, Diana with gout, Apollo with biliousness, or Juno with mucous colitis. Just imagine Robin Hood running off with his fair maid Marion if she had weighed 265 pounds!

The alterations produced by disease are so pronounced that any competent diagnostician can distinguish a healthy person from a sick one simply by the general appearance. In many cases it is even possible to recognize the principal disease with just a general inspection.

I know that many of the conditions under which we live are not conducive to beauty. One who sits at a desk all day certainly has some disadvantage physically compared with the legendary golden age when all that was necessary was playing leap frog under the trees from which luscious and nourishing fruits fell just when one was ready to eat them.

I believe that our civilization is an improvement over any past age within history. I would rather have an automobile and a radio, a home with hot and cold running water, electric lights and convenient sewage disposal than to live in a palace with the filth and ignorance of the Middle Ages. We have not reached perfection, and we can always look forward to better things.

One of the drawbacks of a civilized community is that it tends to specialization. An individual must be able to do something uncommonly well or he is very likely to be dragged into the mire of failure. This specializing permits us to use some muscles but neglect others. We may be compelled to occupy a limited number of positions during many hours. This interferes with our health and beauty unless we take special care of our exercise and play.

Each person should develop a hobby that will correct his one-sided work. If he will also eat a correctly balanced diet, such as I outline in my weekly newspaper articles, he may preserve his health and figure for many years longer than the average.

If you wish to avoid physical and mental decay, you should make yourself a specialist in health-producing habits.

I am sometimes astounded to observe the remarkable changes that patients undergo while following the right diet, exercise and hygienic methods. Many of them blossom out into astounding beauties, even in cases that looked exceedingly hopeless in the beginning. A small thorax will enlarge to normal if one practices deep breathing several times daily. Though your back be crooked, you can improve it by the right kind of exercises.

Don't think this is hopeless with yourself. Everyone is capable of improvement unless he is at death's door. So throw out your chest and pull your head back and resolve to day by day become better and better. The time to start is now!

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Question: J. K. writes: "I have what the doctors call a gastric stomach. Was all right till two months ago. Was told to eat soft foods. Have been doing that but still suffer from the gas which comes up about two hours after eating. No pain, except that it bothers my heart. The gas will move up and down, and I have to sip hot water to get relief."

Answer: The word "gastric" means stomach, so you were apparently mistaken about what the doctor said. He doubtless said you were suffering from gastritis which means inflammation of the stomach, as your symptoms seem to indicate that this is your trouble. Nothing could be worse for you than to take the "soft foods." The irritation in your stomach is not produced by foods which are too coarse, but rather by an over amount of hydrochloric acid in the gastric juice. The "soft" diet given for gastritis actually produces more trouble and is exactly the wrong diet for you to take. Leave out sugars and starches, and balance your meals properly if you wish to get rid of excessive gas and stomach irritation. Drink a large amount of water between meals to keep the digestive fluids diluted until they naturally reduce in quantity because of your change to a correct diet.

Q.: O. W. writes: "I seem to be in good health but every once in a while I have a siege of hives. Will you please tell me the cause?"

A.: Hives are caused from chronic hyperacidity of the stomach which is brought to an acute stage by the use of some especially irritating food, or bad mixtures of even good food.

Employ this beauty oil treatment to combat blemishes. Find how naturally lovely your complexion is

FIVE minutes each night spent at your washbowl may mean all the difference between natural charm retained and an artificial-looking complexion that fools no one.

Two important beauty oils are essential for the proper cleansing of the skin. They are found scientifically blended in a famous beauty soap—Palmolive. It is a soap for good complexions only—for no other purpose. Skin specialists recommend its regular use.

Its rich, creamy lather gently penetrates the pores, frees them of the day's accumulation of soil and make-up. Leaves skin radiant and charming.

Each night wash your face gently with the luxurious lather of Palmolive. Massage the rich suds into the pores with your two hands, removing the make-up, the perspiration and grime. Then rinse, first with warm water, then with cold until your awakened skin tingles with the stimulation. Pat face dry with towel.

That is all. It's Nature's way. A touch of cold cream is good if inclined to dryness. But be sure you use Palmolive Soap — the genuine. At all stores, 10 cents a cake. The Palmolive-Peet Company, Chicago, Ill.

SHE'S A CHAMPION HOUSEWIFE!

HER friends say there's no neater home than Mrs. Belgate's—yet she makes light work of house-keeping.

For example, she doesn't wear out her knees when cleaning floors—but does the task thoroughly and without scrubbing.

She uses Gold Dust and a long-handled mop, first putting the Gold Dust in the pail, then adding hot water; finishing with a mop wrung from clear water. On spots of grease or ground-in dirt, she sprinkles Gold Dust, moistened with warm water, before mopping.

A strong solution of Gold Dust should be used for plain wood or tile floors; a weaker solution for linoleum, or painted floors and staircases.

Mrs. Belgate—and CHAMPION HOUSEWIVES everywhere—know that dish-washing, too, is easier with Gold Dust and a dish mop.

KHJ OFFERINGS IN VARIED FORM

International Day Program in Afternoon

Old-Time Songs Put on Vocal Broadcast

Surprise Hour Will Feature Talent

BY DR. RALPH L. POWER

International good-will greetings will feature the 3 o'clock hour over Don Lee's KHJ station this afternoon when a group of school children in representative costume of various countries and carrying the United States flag, as well as emblems of all countries, will broadcast.

The program will be in charge of Mrs. Margaret Thornton, a teacher in the public schools, and brief talks will be made by Henry C. Niese, Argentine Vice-Consul, and Bruce Findlay, assistant superintendent of schools.

ALL REPRESENTED

Those who will represent the various countries include Carol Thornton, America; Michel Zuniga, Belgium; Ruth Raasted, Denmark; Luis A. Dasso, Ecuador; Louis, Hutinet, France; Hilda Arnens, Germany; Albert Serra, Costa Rica and Guatemala; Helen Huhn, Latvia; Irene Colby, Great Britain; Lia Tora, Brazil; Fernando Valdiziesco, Chile; Ann Norin, Sweden; Addena Gradgens, Palestine; Thadeus Spefanowski, Poland; I. Nones, Mexico; Hanuko Oki, Japan; Richie Curocchi, Italy; Raphiel Mora, Bolivia, Colombia, Salvador, Uruguay, Nicaragua and Honduras, and others for China, Spain, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Switzerland and Argentina.

NEW SPONSOR

A news-reel service will be present in the Don Lee radio studios to film the Pageant of Nations parade as the children pass before the microphone.

On the evening radio hours at KHJ a continuity half-hour of songs our mothers sang will be on the Sparton program at 7 o'clock, with Gladys Pickering as vocalist, and the surprise package will be an 8 o'clock event.

For the entertainment at 9 o'clock a new firm will sponsor the program, L. K. Shapiro, when Alice Forsythe Mosher, soprano, and Archie Ruggles, tenor, will be soloists with the studio concert orchestra.

PROTEST DATE SET

Protests against the ornamental lighting of streets in the Hollyridge Drive and the Cheremoya-avenue lighting district will be heard by the City Council on June 1.

WOMAN DOCTOR TO TOUR

Dr. Florence M. Morse of 3551 University avenue, will be a member of the good-will tour of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs which will visit Europe this summer to contact with business and professional women of other countries. Twenty-three States will be represented in the group of fifty members who will go abroad during July and August on the first good-will tour of the federation.

LASKY SENDS CAMERA WITH BYRD

Two Movie Photographers Will Record Polar Journey; William Seiter to Direct Pair in "Waterfront;" Ronald Colman to Make "The Rescue" First

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

More and more the camera is coming into its own when noted travel pictures are made. Paramount is finding this out.

Two Paramount motion-picture cameramen will accompany Commander Richard E. Byrd next winter on his flight across the South Pole. A complete film record of the expedition will be released exclusively by Paramount.

This announcement, important to the scientific world as well as to the fans, was made yesterday by S. R. Kent, general manager of the Paramout Famous Lasky Corporation, who stated, however, that he was not yet ready to release names of the cameramen.

"Byrd's daring project will undoubtedly be one of the outstanding news events of the year," Kent said. "I am confident that the screen record of the long, hazardous journey will be a picture, or perhaps a series of pictures, far more entertaining than many film dramas.

"The Byrd expedition will have two especially constructed ships, three airplanes, fifty-five men, 100 dogs and several portable houses, which will be anchored in solid ice against fierce storms and high winds. The explorers will spend weeks in establishing their base on the Bay of Whales far south of the Antarctic Circle. They will erect radio masts and a powerful station to keep them in communication with the outside world, and they will lay down supply bases every 100 miles between their main base and the South Pole.

"All this, with its wealth of attendant incident and drama, will form one of the greatest records any camera has ever made, I'm sure."

William Seiter's Assignment

William A. Seiter is making an auspicious start o fhis new contract with First National.

DOROTHY MacKAILL

He has just been assigned to direct "Waterfront," the picture which will mark the return engagement of the Jack Mulhall-Dorothy Mackaill combination. Popular demand has necessitated putting them in one more picture even though they have been made separate stars.

Accompanied by his wife, Laura La Plante, the director is leaving for San Francisco in a day or two to inspect locations for "Waterfront." Tom Geraghty, who is adapting the story for the screen, and his daughter Carmelita will accompany the travelers.

Goldwyn Switches Stories

It looks now as though, after all, Ronald Colman will not make "A Tale of Two Cities" as his first starring vehicle for Sam Goldwyn.

RONALD COLMAN

Instead, according to well-authenticated report, he will probably make a film version of Joseph Conrad's "The Rescue."

In the meantime Lily Damita is due in Los Angeles tomorrow, and so far as plans are made up to this time, she will play opposite Colman in the picture.

Pola Negri's Plans

It became known yesterday that a certain British film company has offered Pola Negri a highly advantageous contract to make two pictures. Whether she will accept or not remains to be seen. But it appears likely that she will unless Paramount offers the star a new contract, which has been rumored.

At any rate Miss Negri and her husband, Prince Mdivani, have decided on their European sailing date as June 9. The star has just completed her last Paramount picture under her new contract.

Mae Busch With Vitaphone

Vitaphone is busy picking up talent now-a-days, and report has it that Mae Busch will sign to make a "talkie" for the Warners. Miss Busch has just completed an engagement with Joseph Schildkraut and the Hollywood Play House, having appeared in the leading role of "From Hell Came a Lady."

Eddie Quillan With Pathe

Having distinguished himself by his excellent work in Cecil B. De Mille's "The Godless Girl," Eddie Quillan has been signed on a long-term contract by the Pathe-De Mille forces.

EDDIE QUILLAN

Under his new contract the young actor will be given featured roles as the first step in a campaign mapped out by General Manager William Sistrom.

"Show Folks," an original story by Phillip Dunning, co-author of "Broadway," will mark Quillan's debut under his new contract.

Helen Ludlum Here

Helen Ludlum, associate editor of Screenland, has arrived in town in the interests of the magazine, and is at the Hollywood Plaza Hotel.

The young writer was formerly writer for William Farnum when he was a Fox star, but she left Hollywood five years ago and has been in New York ever since.

Press Agents Write Play

Very up-and-coming are our press agents these days. Not a bit like the old days when a press agent was a press agent and that was that. Now they have all sorts of vaulting ambitions.

Take Messrs. Adam Hull Shirk and George Thomas, of the First National publicity department, for instance. These two have had the courage to write a play, and now are audaciously seeking to find a producer for it. It is a mystery play and is called "Nightmare." Shirk is an expert at sleight-of-hand tricks, being a member of the Magacians of America, and he has introduced some of his clever magic feats in the play. It looks as though the young writers' nerve was to carry them through, as several producers are interested in the drama.

Roscoe Arbuckle Here

Roscoe Arbuckle is back in town following a long vaudeville tour which extended to London. He is closeted these days with Joseph Schenck, and it is likely will shortly have some plans to announce.

Talkies Present Puzzling Problem

Now that the "talkies" are coming in, what is to be done about the foreign market? While many foreigners understand and speak English, there are many who do not.

This is a question which is agitating the minds of the picture producers. Naturally the action of the lips must synchronize with the sounds made when the actors speak or sing. Of course, subtitles could be written, with the sound device cut one. This would be awkward, inasmuch as the talking episodes would seem too long and minus dramatic force if run as filmed for the sound device.

Ray Hatton Back in Town

Raymond Hatton and his wife have returned from their mountain lodge, located at Silver Lake in the high Sierras. The Hattons spent the past two weeks at the resort, getting it in readiness for the coming fishing season.

Jack Holt Ditto

Jack Holt has returned from a short trip to San Francisco, where he went to attend to business matters relative to his Arizona oil interests. He will begin work shortly on a new production.

Fred Kohler in It

Fred Kohler, well known as a heavy on the screen, has been added to the cast of "The Tide of Empire," M.-G.-M.'s filmization of Peter B. Kyne's romance of the California gold rush, according to the announcement by Hunt Stromberg. Kohler will play the role of Cannon, leader of the bandit gang.

Bridal Veil is Rare Heirloom

In Edward Everett Horton's production, "The Queen's Husband," which opens at the Vine-street Theater Sunday night, Lois Wilson is to wear a very beautiful old wedding veil over her bridal gown.

The veil belongs to Mary Forbes, who plays the Queen in the same play. It has been in her family for many years and has been worn by every bride since it was made. It is of fine old rose point lace and is called an exact replica of the one worn by Queen Victoria when she was married.

Miss Wilson's wedding gown is of white taffeta with tightly fitted bodice and long, tight sleeves and a bouffant skirt with a train, and the veil will be held in place by a cap of orange blossoms.

"The Queen's Husband" is to have a picturesque setting, designed to represent the audience chamber in the royal palace, and artistically done by Worden Bethel, who has made many sets for plays in Los Angeles.

Board Members Look at Drama

Mrs. Susan Dorsey and members of the Board of Education were the guests of honor at the Hollywood Music Box Theater last evening and witnessed Eugene O'Neill's widely discussed play, "Lazarus Laughed." Leading educators throughout the country are deeply interested in the production. A large group of clergymen will witness it tonight and several sermons will be given on it Sunday, it is reported.

Irving Pichel in the role of Lazarus is winning hosts of admirers for his characterization.

RUGGLES DIRECTS

Instead of directing Laura La Plante as reported, Wesley Ruggles is to make Mary Philbin's next starring vehicle, "Salvage," which goes into production immediately. Universal announces the picture comes as a reward for Ruggles's success during the past twelve months.

SUE CAROL COMES DOWN

Sue Carol's next picture will be made on terra firma, according to latest announcements. Her last two were staged in the air, "Skyscraper" having a tall building as locale and "The Air Circus" being a story of commercial aviation.

OLIVE BORDEN STARS

Olive Borden is rapidly coming to the front again after canceling her contract with Fox studio. Announcement has just been made by F.B.O. that she is to star in "Gang War," a story of the underworld, to be filmed by that company.

Smooth flowing Currents add to TONE QUALITY

PROPER smoothing out of current, after it has been rectified from A.C. to D.C., is a vital factor in the tone quality of any Receiver operated wholly from the light socket.

No expense is spared in the rectification and filter systems of any A.C. operated Stromberg-Carlson Receiver to make it worthy of the standards of tonal range and—tonal quality—which Stromberg-Carlson has established.

New patented principles under which Stromberg-Carlson is the sole licensee, are universally employed. Oversize power transformers and choke coils are used where less massive and less expensive substitutes might be thought good enough. The lightest weight Stromberg-Carlson power unit weighs 135 pounds.

Neither size, weight nor quality is ever allowed to dim the fact that—"There is nothing finer than a Stromberg-Carlson."

Every new Stromberg-Carlson has handy jack to facilitate the playing of phonograph records.

No. 633 A.C. Stromberg-Carlson

JANNINGS'S LIMEHOUSE TALE TOLD

"Street of Sin" Brings Star to Million Dollar; Prologue Colorful

BY EDWIN SCHALLERT

Were all of "The Street of Sin" as forceful as the first two reels one might celebrate the arrival of a significant motion picture.

These two reels are the depths of the sordid. Indeed they are very extreme in this. However—actuality when it aims and purports to be genuine does count for something, unpleasant though it may be.

Emil Jannings is the star of "The Street of Sin" and in all probability the attraction of his name will draw large audiences to Grauman's Million Dollar, where his latest release is showing. Jannings invariably gives a fine performance. In "Street of Sin" he even rises above what seems to be miscasting to do a portrayal that is full of those deeper shades of meaning of which he is master. The Jannings restraint, his serene balance between humanness and a superb technical vigor, the unassailed smoothness of his art are apparent. He seems to have gained immeasurably in these resources since his advent to America. There can be no question about the finish to the quality of his acting.

However, "The Street of Sin" itself starts like a scourging lash with its dramatic power, and ends in anemic Pollyanna sentimentalism. It is the story of a big bull of a bruiser of the London underworld, who rules the clan. He is filled with sardonic humor and with sardonic gayety — naive and Mephisto like at once. The portrait is perfect for the first two reels.

Beyond that, "The Street of Sin" aspires to a theme of regeneration. The brute is rescued by the welfare worker in the shape of the Salvation Army lassie. Where have we had that thought before? Perhaps in "Salvation Nell."

Jannings's performance in "The Street of Sin" is a study. It is a study in a crafty and highly cultivated technique. He himself plays it safe, so to speak.

It is out of the question to imagine Jannings as a London underworld character. There is something about him too much of the European continent for that. In view of this very radical change of environment more adequate preparation for the new sort of characterization was needed at the beginning of the picture. He seems out of place in the surroundings in which he is seen.

Interpretation should not naturally be impeded by considerations of time and place. But then there is a Jannings tradition. And pictures are peculiar in that they classify a person according to a certain type. Jannings is not identified in the popular mind with the Anglo-Saxon.

"The Street of Sin" is well directed for a space. Mauritz Stiller unquestionably was responsible for this. The picture reflects consummate power in its more sordid scenes—such power as is associated with an Erich Von Stroheim. The sorded scenes are the most gripping, unpleasant as they may be to see.

In the cast with aJnnings are Olga Baclanova and Fay Wray. I mention Baclanova first because hers is by far the more important performance. For lethal evil Miss Baclanova's work is unsurpassed. Her presence casts a spell of the sinister. I think also that hers is the most human portrait. Miss Wray is sweet, gentle and appealing—more could not be asked in a Pollyanna role.

"The Srteet of Sin," for all its excellence of staging and presentation, is a deficient film. It may not altogether disappoint because of the excellent Jannings performance, but it does not measure up to "The Way of All Flesh," even though in a few spots it may surpass "The Last Command."

The atmospheric prologue, "Limehouse Nights," presents, as best of all, an eccentric dancer known simply as Savage. His corkscrew gyrations sent the audience at yesterday evening's performance into a burst of enthusiastic applause which continued throughout the enactment of the next number and only ceased when Savage slipped unassumingly onto the stage again to bow and execute another maneuver or two.

"Command to Love" Due Monday

Mary Nash
Will be in the New York company presenting the sophisticated comedy at the Belasco Theater next week.

GROUP PLANS WAR DRAMA

A potentially interesting cast will be presented to Los Angeles playgoers when the Sydney Sprague Repertoire Players stage Lajos Biro's war drama, "Hotel Imperial," which reopens the Egan Theater Wednesday evening.

Headed by Olga Zacsek, in the highly emotional role of Anna Zedlack, which Pola Negri interpreted in the screen version recently, fully twenty names are listed. These include Boris Karloff, recently seen in "The Idiot" and latterly in "Monna Vanna" with Miss Zacsek; William Stack, a newcomer from London, in the romantic lead; Jeffrey Williams, Ross Chetwynd, Ernest Dewey Erskine, Kenneth Mackay, Ronald McBurney, Keith Haswell, Jay Allard, Arthur Evers, Louis Morrison, Lillian Rivers, George Dunham, Evan Pearson, Isabelle Berte, Uno Hellborg, John Stuart Mill, Frederick Lewis and Laurence Bishop. In addition to these there will be a crowd of "supers" to participate in the mob scenes.

NOAH BEERY GOES TO SEA

"Hell Ship Bronson," with Noah Beery in the title role, comes to the Criterion Theater screen today for an engagement of one week. A picturization of Norton S. Parker's widely-read tale of the sea, the story is said to present Beery with his greatest vehicle since "Beau Geste."

The "Hell Ship Bronson" engagement will necessarily be limited to one week, according to the Criterion management, in order that the decks may be clear one week from today for the opening of a "surprise" special which the theater has booked direct from a $2 run in New York. Announcement of this picture, which will show at the Criterion popularly, will be made early next week.

"Hell Cat" is Another of Tropic Gals

The hottest thing that may be said about "Hell Cat" is that it is laid in the tropics. In that one respect it can be described as resembling "Rain," "White Cargo" and sundry other adventures in playwriting, which have advanced upon the stage in the past few years. In addition it has what might be termed "drag in" title, but I rather fear that those who are looking for sensationalism because of its name are merely going to be genially bored. I hope it is genially.

"Hell Cat" is playing at the Belmont Theater. It is the second production that Oliver Morosco has sponsored since his return to this city. It drew a very large opening audience, and one that demonstrated itself to be enthusiastic for anything that Morosco might undertake. There is no question about his well-wishers in this vicinity, and it is regrettable that both "The Morning After" and his new undertaking should yield such inauspicious results. He announced in a speech from the stage that his next play would be an established success.

To put it bluntly, "Hell Cat" is nothing short of terrible. The job of trying to bring illumination out of the darkness in this particular piece is almost too much for any producer or cast to undertake.

What happens on the stage is vaguely related (vaguely isn't the right word, acutely is better) to the good old ten-twent-thirt melodrama. There is a fight over a girl, who comes to Java seeking her father. That worthy, attempting to conceal his identity, is rendered unconscious by a sedative administered by another girl whom he has adopted, who presumably is jealous of the daughter. There is a rescue participated in by Hell Cat—that's the name of the adopted girl—and the father, who invades the den of the villain's to save the daughter. In the finale another villain is shot.

All this goes on and on through line after line and scene after scene (though, truth to tell, I believe there were only about five changes in all) until the bitter, bitter end.

There is a deal of confusion in the action, which might be explained by the first performance, but perhaps even that won't explain it all. The most cheerful line that I heard during the evening was one in the first act, "What does it all mean?" That question was good until the close.

Alphonz Ethier, who, I believe, is considered a very able actor, was one of the martyrs to the cause, and Jeanne Navelle is "Hell Cat"—just a little girl cutting up in the tropics. Sailors always did say something about it not being good luck to take women on long ocean voyages. Maybe that's the trouble with "Hell Cat."

Carthay Circle Has a Birthday

Today marks the second anniversary of the opening of the Carthay Circle Theater. It will be observed with "fitting ceremonies," with representatives of many civic and improvement bodies in the Wilshire, La Brea, Fairfax, Pico and adjoining sections participating.

In the two years that this beautiful Wilshire house has been open to the public, but six productions have been shown there, all of them outstanding features made by such directors and producers as William Fox, Cecil B. De Mille, Frank Borzage, R. A. Walsh, King Vidor and John Ford. Most of them had their first world showings at the Circle. "Street Angel" is current.

JOLSON PROVES LIBERAL

During the course of the presentation of "The Jazz Singer," now nearing its fourth week at the Tower Theater, Al Jolson is seen and heard singing more song hits than he has sung in any one of his New York productions, according to H. L. Gumbiner, owner of the picture house. Jolson includes six in the Warner Brothers' "talkie."

MEXICAN GIRL GOES ON STAGE

Lupe Velez, the fiery Mexican girl who has her first important film role in "The Gaucho," the Douglas Fairbanks production coming Wednesday to the United Artists Theater for a popular run, will appear in person at all performances during the engagement, it was announced.

Miss Velez will dance, and will sing songs in her own language and in English.

UNIVERSAL DRAMA HAS SHOWING

"Surrender," With Mary Philbin, Featured on New Filmarte Bill

BY PHILIP K. SCHEUER

"Surrender," a Universal picture made about a year ago, slipped past the regular film marts into the avowedly irregular Filmarte Theater on Vine street in Hollywood last evening, where it was received by a small but expansively pleased audience. A surrounding bill of short subjects and a cup of coffee in the lounge completed the entertainment items.

"Surrender" was directed by Edward Sloman, who engineered the production of "We Americans," which presented an old theme refreshingly handled and was exhibited a few weeks ago. The current offering goes back even further than the other for its inspiration—to biblical times and the passages about Esther, in fact—but again Sloman has brought to bear a valued intelligence and fashioned a photoplay of authentic content and absorbing drama.

Dealing in a larger sense with the inhabitants of a Jewish community abiding in Galicia, the story is in the main committed to the fate of a girl of the people, and that of a Russian Prince whose passion is fired by the sight of her. A strange and exotic romance weaves its inevitable way through scenes which are notable for their unobtrusiveness — an unobtrusiveness which is all the more remarkable when one considers that Galicia is in Austria and that Austria, in the movies, is usually associated with pomp and panoply and Vienna's "glittering whirl."

Mary Philbin, whose work under the guiding hand of D. W. Griffith in "Drums of Love" achieved something of the nature of a triumph, is cast in "Surrender" as Lea Lyon, the girl of the people. Without minimizing the quality of the spell Griffith exerted, it must be said that Miss Philbin's performance here is one of rare excellence. In her is epitomized the morbid mood which hangs like a pall over the narrative, and the pace of her slow, plodding clop-clop walk is the pace of the picture.

Ivan Mosjukine, the foreign actor who came, as I recall, all the way from Russia to appear (as it developed) in this one film, is sincere enough to overcome the curious handicap of looking, at intervals, like the pie-tossing gentleman called Larry Semon. Nigel de Brulier and Otto Matiesen contribute impressive characterizations to "Surrender," especially de Brulier.

Up to that episode in which Mosjukine as the Prince turns ardent sentimentalist, which he does by suddenly ruminating aloud on the stars and all the things those ol' davil stars must be smiling down upon even at the moment, the action is extraordinarily absorbing. A let-down in interest, however, is increasingly noticeable from this point forward to the semitragic denouement.

The production was supervised by Paul Kohner.

An arresting if high-sounding short-reeler, "Rhythyms of a City in Minor," by Harry Sweet and Hal Davitt, a scenic film of Ecuador, and a long series of very ordinary titles called "How Lady Dobbledud Got Her Title," provide brief amusement.

Incidentally, it would seem a wise economic move if the Filmarte Theater compressed its two evening shows into one.

EAGERLY AWAITED KEN-GEKI ARRIVES

Mitsuru Toyama

First in America to view a typical Tokio Imperial Theater performance, a brilliant audience of film celebrities and the socially elite is assured for the premiere tonight of Ken-Geki, the Japanese sword plays, at the Windsor Square Theater.

With the presentation sponsored by such noted producers as Joseph M. Schenck, Cecil B. De Mille Sid Grauman, Samuel Goldwyn, and Charlie Chaplin, it is anticipated that every star of pretensions in the film colony will attend the production, the first ever to be given for a Caucasian audience.

Starring in the series of three plays, the latest form of dramatic art in Japan, are Mitsuru Toyama, heralded as Japan's foremost character actor, and a stage director and playwright of note in his native land, and Koharu Ohara, leading lady of the Imperial Theater, acclaimed as Nippon's most celebrated classical danseuse.

CALL ELECTED BY FRUIT MEN

Ventura County Executive Will Head State Body

Hardison and Hecke Receive Honorary Memberships

Santa Rosa is Convention Location for 1929

VENTURA, May 17.—Albert H. Call of Santa Paula, horticultural commissioner of Ventura county, was elected president of the California Horticultural Commissioners' Association at the executive session of the organization's convention here. The other officers are: A. E. Morrison of Sacramento, vice-president, and F. P. Roullard of Fresno, re-elected, secretary-treasurer.

Another Ventura county man had an honor conferred upon him when the association elected A. C. Hardison of Santa Paula, member of the executive committee of the American Farm Bureau Federation, to an honorary life membership in the Horticultural Commissioners' Association of the State. This honor is especially significant in the case of Mr. Hardison, Call explained, in that this is the first time any person has ever been so elected who was not directly connected in some capacity with either the United States or California departments of agriculture.

George H. Hecke, Director of the State Department of Agriculture of California, also was elected last night as an honorary life member of the association. The association conferred this honor upon Mr. Hardison and Mr. Hecke because of their excellent service in the past to agriculture in California.

Over the bids of Fresno, San Fracisco and Redding the convention, in executive session, selected Santa Rosa as the 1929 convention city. Of especial interest to fruit growers and ranchers of the county, the association today announced that Riverside was selected last night as the location for the seventieth annual convention of the Fruit Growers' and Farmers' Association of California. The convention is to be held in November, the dates to be named later.

This morning's session of the commissioners' convention, which is now in its second day, was occupied principally with technical addresses and discussion on the puncture vine and citrus white fly situations in the State.

W. C. Jacobson, chief of the bureau of plant quarantine and pest control for the State, and A. C. Fleury, supervising quarantine officer of the State Department of Agriculture, were the principal speakers this morning, the former speaking on the "Puncture Vine Situation and Operation of Section 2323," and on "Distribution and Control of White Fly in California," while the latter talked on "Interstate and intra-State Quarantine in Reference to Citrus White Fly."

Need of More Police Cited

LONG BEACH, May 17.—Plans for strengthening the personnel of the Long Beach Police Department and for adding considerably to its equipment are being prepared by City Manager Callahan and a large increase in the annual budget will be asked to provide for the department's expansion, it was said today.

Establishment of at least one police substation, purchase of better and faster automobiles and the creation of several new posts in the department, including one police lieutenant, one detective lieutenant, three detective sergeants, three patrol sergeants and a number of policemen, are some of the outstanding features of the plan, it was said.

A new signal system for the police department, that would enable officers on duty at police headquarters to communicate without delay with patrolmen out on beats, is also contemplated. It would take the place of the antiquated telephone box system now in use.

SILVER CUPS GIVEN AT AVOCADO EXHIBIT

WHITTIER, May 17.—The third day of the fifth annual California Avocado Show here eclipsed all former records in attendance.

The outstanding activity during the day, for the "butter" fruit growers was the awarding of prizes. The judges were J. G. Frantz, San Diego county farm adviser; J. Elliott Coit, Coit Agricultural Service, Pasadena, and T. U. Barber, avocado grower of Puente.

The Chamber of Commerce, the Realty Board and the four service clubs of the city all offered silver cups as trophies, and the winners were J. M. Elliott, Kiwanis cup for artistic display of fruit; Sam Thompson of Carlsbad, the Chamber of Commerce cup for variety of display; Thomas H. Shedden, Progress Club cup for special individual display; Edwin G. Hart Company, Realty Board cup for general display; A. R. Rideout, Rotary Club cup, most interesting display, and Phillips & Hambaugh, Lions' Club cup for commercial display.

POSTMASTER HONORED

PASADENA, May 17.—William F. Knight, postmaster, was notified today that he has been re-elected for a third term as senior vice-commander of the California Commandery of the Military Order of Loyal Legion of the United States. Mr. Knight has been an active member of the Loyal Legion for several years. The election took place in San Francisco.

SAN DIEGO PLANS FOR TAX NEEDS

Opinion Sought on New Special Tax Levy if Receipts Are Slashed

SAN DIEGO, May 17.—Anticipating a possible shortage of city funds as a result of the city-county tax office consolidation recently ordered by court, the City Attorney's office today was preparing an opinion on the legality of a special tax by the Council of all city property to provide funds in the event an emergency situation arises.

This action followed a request by Councilman Maire to Arthur L. Mundo, deputy City Attorney, for an option on the matter. If the consolidation becomes effective and the city is forced to accept the county's lower valuation of city property the maximum tax levy of 90 cents for each $100 valuation allowed by the charter will bring about a shortage of city funds that may reach $500,000, it is estimated by city authorities.

The special tax question arose when it was announced that the County Board of Supervisors had rejected the consolidation revaluation committee's recommendation that they pay half the cost of appraisal within the city and the county provide money for the rest of the appraising.

PIPELINES REPAIRED TO STOP POLLUTION

NEWPORT BEACH, May 17.—To protect water-bearing land of the city of Newport Beach from pollution, due to cracks in the pipe line of the Orange county joint outfall sewer, extensive work is being done by the city of Santa Ana through the contracting firm of F. H. Vehring.

Pressure from incoming tides was blamed for the leaks. G. Gibisch, foreman, said he expected the $15,300 contract to be completed in three weeks. Pumps will be installed in a reinforced concrete building along lines suggested by representatives of the State Board of Health, it was said. The outfall sewer line is used by Santa Ana, Anaheim, Orange, Fullerton and several sanitary districts in unincorporated districts.

PROWLER STEALS BABY'S CLOTHING

HUNTINGTON PARK, May 17.—Stealing babies' wearing apparel from a clothes line is the latest in the line of thefts to be reported at the local police station. The rear yard at the Newsome residence at 344 1-4 South Regent street, was visited during the night and baby clothes belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Newsome's little infant were stolen. The articles of clothing were valued at $20, according to Mrs. Newsome.

NEW BUILDING PROJECTED

Pasadenans Launch Drive for Funds to Construct $100,000 Salvation Army Headquarters

PASADENA, May 17.—A new headquarters building for the Orange Belt division of the Salvation Army will be erected at Fair Oaks avenue and Walnut street at a cost of more than $100,000, Harry M. Ticknor, chairman of the Salvation Army advisory board, announced today.

Building fund headquarters have been opened at 20 South Marengo avenue. A committee of 250 volunteer workers will be appointed to solicit public subscriptions.

Due to the imminent widening of Colorado street, which will necessitate the wrecking of the present Salvation Army headquarters at 51 West Colorado street, the financing of the new structure must be completed within a short time, it was stated.

The members of the advisory board who are directing the building fund campaign are, besides Mr. Ticknor, Charles E. Everard, Joseph Caunt, J. Disbrow Baker, Paul Barnes, Cyril Bennett, Harry Cheeseman, A. P. Hamill, J. H. Henry, W. H. Holland, W. H. Hubbard, William Thomas Kester, Col. George S. Parker, H. I. Stuart and Dr. Willard Stone.

The Orange Belt division includes the territory between Pasadena and San Diego. It also includes Imperial Valley and Kern county. Los Angeles and Santa Barbara are not included.

Plans for the new building are being prepared by Cyril Bennett of the firm of Bennett & Haskell.

STUDENTS IN CLASS AT 3 A.M.

Girls in Group Serve Waffle Breakfast for Star Gazers

ONTARIO, May 17.—College laboratory classes at 3 o'clock in the morning are now in order at Chaffey Junior College. However, no midnight oil will be burned by the students of the class. They will depend solely for light on the glimmer of the stars and the heavens will be their laboratory table.

H. W. Hawkinson and W. W. Cushing, instructors of astronomy at the junior college feel that their students have absorbed enough book knowledge regarding stars and now they need looks at them through telescopes.

There are several girls in the class. They have planned to take waffle irons and coffee percolators along for the idea of serving waffles before the great red dawn is breaking. Star-gazing morning classes will be held once each week until graduations.

MAN CHARGED WITH FURNISHING LIQUOR

REDLANDS, May 17.—Harry Stapp, proprietor of a service station near Colton, was held to answer to the Superior Court on a charge of selling liquor to a minor after preliminary hearing before Judge C. G. Potter today.

Stapp was arrested by Federal officers, charged with having sold a pint of whisky to Cary Steffen of Corona, 16 years old. Staffen said it wa sthe second pint of whisky he had purchased from Stapp. With the first one he became drunk and three girls, ranging from 14 to 17, and two other boys, 17 and 18, drank of the whisky, the boy said. Stapp in defense insisted he did not sell Staffen liquor but told him where he could get it.

FINE FOLLOWS CRASH

REDLANDS, May 17.—G. E. Schmidt, assistant manager of Forest Home, paid a fine of $50 with a suspended sentence of $50 more, and was ordered by the court to pay the cost of repairing the automobile of James King, of Brookside avenue, as a result of a crash near the orange show building in San Bernardino last night, when he appeared before Judge potter today.

Teachers Are Satisfied by Salary Scale

PASADENA, May 17.—Instead of being up in arms against the recent revision of their salary ratings as was first reported, public school teachers in this city believe that "a very satisfactory adjustment of salaries" has been effected by the Board of Education, according to a letter submitted to the board today by the Pasadena Teachers' Association.

The letter, signed by Mabel B. Pierson, chairman of the association's salary committee, contained the following statement:

"The members of the salary committee of the Pasadena Teachers' Association, who represent the various groups of teachers in the schools, wish to express the gratitude of the committee, and we believe of the whole teaching body, for the very satisfactory adjustment of the salary schedule. We believe that it is in line with the most progressive movement throughout the United States, as it gives fair remuneration to those of advanced preparation wherever they may be working and offers inducements which will bring teachers of the best qualifications into the system, while on the other hand it is as fair as possible to those who have been long in the teaching work."

Road to Open River Section

EL MONTE, May 17.—Passage by the County Supervisors of a resolution authorizing the paving of Peck Road from the Rio Hondo River to the city limits of Monrovia insures a paved road directly connecting Monrovia and El Monte and gives Monrovia a direct paved highway to Long Beach. The section to be paved by the county connects with Myrtle avenue, the main business street of Monrovia, and will be paved forty feet in width. Bids will be called for at once and it is expected actual work will be begun in June.

The El Monte end of the road was paved more than a year ago and is a thirty-foot pavement from the Rio Hondo south to El Monte Boulevard. Besides affording Foothill Boulevard motorists a direct north and south route to Valley Boulevard, Peck Road borders on the south the 960-acre aviation field that has been offered to the county and city of Los Angeles.

The section to be paved by the county this summer is about two miles long. As soon as the paving is completed plans for a bridge across the Rio Hondo will be submitted by the County Engineering Department.

THEATER PLANS DROPPED

Bankruptcy Involving Former Pasadena Official Wrecks $1,000,000 Building Program

PASADENA, May 17.—As the result of a petition in bankruptcy which was filed today by F. B. Cole, former chairman of the Board of City Directors, plans to erect a $1,000,000 building to house a new Pantages Theater at East Colorado street and Hudson avenue, are said to have been temporarily abandoned.

Cole is the owner of a service station and garage on the site of which it was proposed to erect the theater and office building.

Attachments for $5100 were levied against Cole today by F. B. McKay, assignee of two oil companies. All the trucks and equipment of the service station were tied up and a deputy sheriff was placed in charge of the premises. A chattel mortgage was also placed on record in the sum of $6000 from Mr. and Mrs. Cole to LeRoy Austin.

It was stated by his friends that the attachments levied by the oil companies were a great shock to Cole due to the fact that he thought he had been assured that they would take no action.

The bankruptcy proceedings on behalf of Cole are reported to have been taken to protect the ninety-nine-year lease on the property which he holds and on which he was negotiating a loan to erect the theater building.

George W. Padgham, Cole's attorney, said this afternoon that his client will be safely protected in his property rights. According to the attorney, Cole had not been served with the attachment papers and has ten days in which to decide on a course of action.

Cole is a former newspaper man. He entered the automobile-accessory and service-station business fifteen years ago. At one time, he was president of the old Board of Trade and he served as chairman of the Board of City Directors two years ago.

GYMKHANA FEATURES FESTIVAL

New Garden Theater is Dedicated on Occasion of Founders' Day

AZUSA, May 17.—Rancho Los Cacomites was the scene this afternoon of the annual gymkhana with boys from the Webb School of Claremont and girls of the Collegiate School here participating. The fair collegiate students are rivals of the Webb School boys, when it comes to horsemanship, and pitted their skill as equestriennes against the "broncho busters" before hundreds of alumni, teachers and friends. The gymkhana was held under the supervision of Miss Proud of the Collegiate School.

The morning was given over to the dedication of the new garden theater at the Collegiate School, and to a founders' day celebration. The event was open only to alumni and their friends.

Beach Legion Plans Fiesta

REDONDO BEACH, May 17.—Plans, which are expected to make the second annual Legion day, sponsored by Redondo post, American Legion, the biggest event in the history of that organization, were completed today. Last year's Legion day was attended by large representations from every post in the district.

Plans include a picnic of Legionnaires, their families and friends in the city park, with souvenirs for the children and a prize for the largest family of any Legionnaire present. The parade of Legion musical organizations will form at 1 p.m. and the musical contests, in which there are a number of cups being offered, will be held at the El Paseo bandstand. Judges will be Col. George E. Hamilton, United States Army; Capt. H. E. Insley, Los Angeles Police Commissioner; J. A. Woodward, band leader at Ft. MacArthur; Nunzio Loforti, band leader One Hundred and Sixtieth Infantry, California National Guard, and Michael H. Moore, president of the Redondo Boosters' Association.

Grove Ketchum, vice-commander, Los Angeles county Legion council, will act as marshal of the parade and Capt. R. M. Maclennan, chairman of the American Legion committee, will act as master of ceremonies.

Suit Echoes Ballot Fight

HUNTINGTON PARK, May 17.—A suit for services said to have been rendered during the recent city election campaign has been filed by Ben Kendall against Victor E. Kline, Claude W. Imus, Leonard Brown and William Todd, demanding $299.99.

The complaint, which has been filed with Judge Edward H. Miller, asserts that the defendant was installed as editor-in-chief; that he did writing, editorial work and newspaper work, and he now makes demand for compensation.

The Civic Protective League, during the campaign, published a paper known as "The Citizens," which was suspended immediately after the election. It is said that the four defendants were the campaign leaders of the league.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE BY NEWPORT CHAMBER

NEWPORT BEACH, May 17.—Two teams of members of the Newport Harbor Chamber of Commerce are out after new members, and the team signing up the fewer number before midnight of the 31st inst. will give a banquet for the winners.

E. B. (Dick) Whitson, chairman of the membership committee, is captain of one team, and Lester Isbell of the other. The teams are:

Whitson's—Fred J. Crosier, C. H. Way, A. J. Garfield, W. L. Jordan, Ben Funcheon and Ray Saunders.

SEVEN SENT TO HOSPITAL

Long Beach Girl May Die as Result of Collision of Two Automobiles at Outlying Corner

LONG BEACH, May 17.—A crash between two automobiles at an outlying intersection before daylight this morning sent seven people to hospitals and is expected to cause the death of at least one, a 15-year-old girl, Myrna Bruhns, 270 East Fifty-fifth street, North Long Beach. At a late hour today she was still unconscious at the La Campana Hospital at Compton as the result of a basal skull fracture.

Four others were treated at the Los Angeles County Health Center, Compton, and two at Seaside Hospital, Long Beach. Miss Fay Bettis, 117 College avenue, Downey, is at the health center with a broken left leg. Miss Hazel Campbell, Lamanda Park, is at Seaside Hospital with a broken collar bone and other injuries. Others injured were J. C. Asher, 314½ East One Hundred and Fifth street, Los Angeles, injuries about the head, treated at Compton health center; Charles Arnold, 1123 Fair Oaks avenue, Pasadena, injuries to head and hands, treated at health center; Lucille Patterson, 1100 North Garfield avenue, Pasadena, deep wound in forehead, treated at health center; A. G. Ives, 304 South Mentor avenue, Pasadena, cuts about the face, treated at Seaside Hospital, Long Beach.

Ives was driving with a party from Long Beach to Pasadena when, at the intersection of Artesia and Ocean boulevards, his car crashed with another driven by J. C. Asher. Both automobiles were demolished in the crash. In Asher's car, besides the driver were Miss Bruhns, Miss Bettis and two men whose identity the police today were trying to establish. The men escaped injury. In the Ives car were the driver, Arnold, and the Misses Patterson and Campbell. Passing motorists took the injured to various hospitals.

The Asher car was originally owned by J. L. Asher, transportation superintendent of the Edison company, who was lost in the San Francisquito flood disaster. The car was wrecked in the flood and had just been put in service after being repaired, Asher, brother of the flood victim, told police.

Aid for Flood Area Reported

SANTA PAULA, May 17.—Red Cross expenditures and committments in behalf of the victims of the St. Francis Dam disaster reached a total of $139,079 on the 12th inst., according to a progress report by J. W. Richardson, general disaster director.

Since the last progress report on April 28 covering a period of two weeks, the Red Cross has extended $38,070 for the relief and rehabilitation of the flood sufferers. There remained on the 12th inst., an uncommitted balance of $82,483 which will all be spent before the Red Cross closes its work in the disaster area. Of the $139,079 representing total orders issued and approved, orders amounting to $114,631 had actually been paid up to the 12th inst. The following is a statement of receipts as of the 12th inst.: Contributions received by the American Red Cross restricted by the donors for use in behalf of the victims of the St. Francis Dam disaster, $207,523; contributions of the American National Red Cross to date, $14,039; total relief fund, $221,563.

DRIVER HITS MAN IN AVOIDING CRASH

PASADENA, May 17.—In attempting to avoid a collision with another automobile today, Kirby Smith of 652 Summit avenue, swerved his machine so suddenly that it struck and seriously injured Henry Fillhard of 464 West Claremont street. The accident occurred as Mr. Fillhard was walking across the intersection of Lincoln avenue and Washington street.

The injured pedestrian was given first aid in the Pasadena Emergency Hospital and transferred to the Pasadena Hospital, where X-rays will be taken to determine the extent of spinal injuries.

PLANS EUROPEAN TOUR

HUNTINGTON PARK, May 17.—Dr. Clinton D. Hubbard is leaving the 22nd inst. for Europe expecting to be absent from this city ten weeks.

PILOTS FOR ALBATROSS ANNOUNCED

San Diego Flyers Will Make New Attempt for Long Flight Record

SANTA ANA, May 17.—Jack Reid, former naval air service pilot, and R. O. D. Sullivan, naval air service, both of San Diego, will pilot the monoplane Albatross when it hops off Saturday at 8 a.m. in its third attempt to break the world's record for sustained flight, now held by George Haldeman and Eddie Stinson.

S. Spirel, of Midway City, where the plane was built, will accompany the two pilots as mechanic.

The Albatross was pronounced in perfect shape for the assault on the record of nearly fifty-four hours, following examination of the plane by the mechanical experts of the company. The ship is to be flown Friday morning to the Orange county airport for several trial take-offs for the purpose of testing out the mile and a half runway prepared by the county to aid the flyers in their attempt.

In the afternoon 1300 gallons of gasoline is to be taken into the three fuel tanks, two of which are in the wings.

The aviators estimate that the fuel is sufficient to propel the plane for seventy hours. The course the ship will pursue will be determined largely by weather conditions and prevailing winds.

Two More Flood Victims Found; One Identified

SANTA PAULA, May 17.—Two more bodies of victims of the flood disaster were found yesterday by the crew turning over piles of debris in the river bed under the direction of the joint restoration committee.

One body, found near here late yesterday, was described as being that of a man, white, 5ft. 11in., and of slender build; weight about 170 pounds; short medium brown hair, lower jaw missing.

Another body was found a mile east of here. One mark of identification was a ring on his left hand with the large emblem "F. L. T." on it. It was uncovered also by a crew working on the piles of debris along the river. The body was later identified as that of Jess Asher, truckman, and one of the employees of the ill-fated Edison camp at Kemp.

BOY BANDIT FAKES DEEP BASS VOICE

GLENDALE, May 17.—Assuming a deep bass voice to offset his youthful appearance, a bandit, whose age is estimated at 17 years, last night held up the K. B. K. service station at Los Feliz road and Central avenue and escaped with $25.

Don Banks, the attendant, had supplied the bandit's car with gasoline and the latter handed him the money to pay for the gas. As Banks turned toward the cash register the occupant of the car ordered him at the point of a gun to hand over the contents of the cash register, after which he stepped on the gas and fled south on Central avenue.

PEACE WORKERS COMING

PASADENA, May 17.—Frederick J. Libby of Washington, D. C., executive secretary of the National Council for the Prevention of War, will arrive in this city on Saturday for a week of lecture engagements in Southern California. Mr. Libby will be accompanied by his co-worker, Dr. Lincoln Wirt of San Francisco, western secretary of the antimililiaristic organization.

STUDENTS OPEN EXHIBITS

Agriculture Departments of Chaffey Schools in Seventh Annual Fair and Play Day

ONTARIO, May 17.—Chaffey Junior Fair will swing open its gates to the public tomorrow for an agricultural display far surpassing all previous efforts, according to officials of Chaffey Junior College of Agriculture and Chaffey High School, co-operating with the boys in their enterprise.

The fair is the seventh undertaken by boys of the high school and junior college. An innovation this year is establishment of sixteen individual booths in which boys will place their hobbies, chiefll bees, flowers and garden products. Various clubs in the high school and junior college and other schools of Chaffey district have taken space in the fair for exhibits.

Judging of all entries will be completed by 10 a.m. Friday, at which time the fair will be officially opened, to remain open until 10 p.m. Saturday the fair is open from 8 a.m. until 6 p.m. in order that all exhibits may be removed by Sunday.

The annual banquet for the Junior Farm Center is Friday evening in Chaffey cafeteria. Contest judging in live stock, poultry, citrus fruits and trees starts at 8 a.m. Saturday. Teams have been entered from many Southern California schools.

Officers of the Junior Farm Center, all high school and junior college students, are George Smallwood, general superintendent; Harold Lutz, assistant superintendent; Royal Phillips, business manager; George Clewett, publications. Superintendents of the various departments are: Rabbits, Paul Walter; pigeons, Francis Williams; poultry, Howard Hawkins; cattle, James Sprague; sheep, Brooks Kitchell; goats, Fletcher Palmer; swine, Howard Larson; garden, Harold Lutz; educational, Edward Mann.

Saturday's fair program merges with the seventeenth annual Chaffey school district play day on Chaffey campus. All schools of Chaffey district will have their children and their parents on the school campus for an all-day picnic and athletic program. Schools in Chaffey district are Alta Loma, Camp Baldy, Cucamonga, Cucamonga Central, Etiwanda, Fontana, Mountain View, Piedmont, Upland and Ontario schools. A picnic dinner for all Junior Fair and play day visitors is the big event of the day, under the trees of the school campus.

DOOR SLAMMING PROVES COSTLY

Auto Driver Mulcted When Girl Guest Testifies to Hand Injury

Slamming the door of his sedan proved expensive for Joseph M. W. Joosten when he closed it on the right hand of Miss Marjorie Elliott, one of his guests.

In the trial of her damage suit for personal injuries before Judge Stutsman the young woman was awarded $610.

Miss Elliott was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joosten in their car on a trip to the beaches on July 17, 1927. In alighting from the car, the plaintiff asserted, Mr. Joosten negligently and recklessly slammed the car door, catching her right hand and painfully injuring it. She brought suit for $6200 damages.

ADVERTISING MEN TO BE CITY GUESTS

Series of Fetes Planned by All-Year Club to Honor Rail Publicity Managers

Representing one of the largest advertising forces in the world, the advertising managers of leading railroads of America and Canada will visit Los Angeles August 25 for a week as guests of the All-Year Club of Southern California. This announcement was made yesterday by John B. Browne.

An extensive schedule of entertainment will begin with their arrival at Riverside, where a luncheon will be given at the Mission Inn. Other features will be a visit to the Italian vineyards, supper and dancing in the Ambassador Cocoanut Grove, official welcome to Los Angeles. Sunday, aerial flights over Los Angeles, golf, and a visit to Grauman's Chinese Theater.

They will be entertained with an old-fashioned breakfast at the Biltmore and will visit the De Mille motion-picture studio, followed by a tour of the beaches. On Monday evening the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce will present a Spanish banquet at San Gabriel. Tuesday the party will visit Catalina Island, remaining over night. The following noon the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce will be hosts at a banquet there.

That afternoon the Los Angeles Steamship Company will take the guests to San Diego, where they will be entertained at Coronado and Tia Juana.

BURKHARD LEAVES $100,000

A $100,000 estate was left by Joseph Burkhard, who died last March 24, according to his will, filed yesterday for probate. Most of the estate is left in trust for the benefit of the widow during her life, to be divided among two sons and two daughters at her death.

Salient Points of the Bidding

West's bid of Diamonds with five to the Jack-ten, though unusual, was fully justified, especially as a defensive bid, by reason of his supporting quick tricks in Hearts and Clubs.

Salient Points of the Play

Trick 2. East perforce shifts to Clubs, leading away from his King. The return of a Diamond or the lead of a Spade would give Declarer a chance to discard a losing Club on the King of Diamonds. While the discard of a single Club might not prove disastrous, the possible discard of a second Club must be avoided. West's opening from Diamonds, Jack high, showed the absence of any honor combination in Spades suitable for an opening lead and warranted the inference that Declarer's Spade suit was probably solid. With four Spades in East's hand, three of them lower than Dummy's, a long Spade could undoubtedly be established in Dummy, upon which Declarer could discard another Club. East's Club lead was, therefore, mandatory even though the safety of his King be jeopardized.

Trick 3. West plays the Ace of Clubs at once. If not trumped, the contract will be set and game saved.

BLACKBERRY JELLY

Put two quarts of underripe blackberries through the fine knife of a food chopper, be careful to catch all of the juice. Place the juice and pulp in a jelly bag and drain. Measure the juice into a kettle and boil for ten minutes, add an equal amount of sugar, stir until the sugar is dissolved, bring to a boil, skim and boil three minutes. Pour into hot clean glasses, cool and seal.

SPAGHETTI ORIENTAL

Boil half a pound of spaghetti in boiling water until tender, drain chop fine, and add one cupful of fine dry bread crumbs, one grated onion, two tablespoonfuls of parsley chopped, a seasoning of salt and pepper, one quarter of a teaspoonful of mace, two tablespoonfuls of ketchup and one well-beaten egg. Mix well, pour into a buttered mold and steam in a pan of hot water in the oven for one and a half hours. Unmold on a hot plate and pour over Italian sauce.

ITALIAN SAUCE

Cover one-third of a cupful of dried mushrooms with boiling water and let stand one hour, drain, save the water and chop the mushrooms fine. Heat four tablespoonfuls of oil in a saucepan, add one finely minced onion and one tablespoonful of chopped parsley, cook until the onion is clear, add the mushrooms, one and a half cupfuls of tomato puree, one cupful of beef stock, a seasoning of salt and pepper and the mushroom water. Simmer for thirty minutes and serve.

BAKED HAM STEAK

Have the butcher cut a ham steak weighing about two pounds from the center of a good mild ham. Cover with boiling water and allow to stand for ten minutes, spread the bottom of an earthenware baking dish with sliced tart apples, sprinkle with brown sugar, lay on the ham steak, spread the steak with a quarter of a cupful of brown sugar and mix into it one teaspoonful of dry mustard, cover with sliced apples and pour over carefully at the side sufficient sour milk to just cover and bake until the ham is tender.

Morrissey's Bail Taken on Drunk Charge

"Bail forfeited," anounced Municipal Judge Gray yesterday when Will Morrissey, night-club manager and musical comedian, failed to put in appearance at the "sunrise court" on a change of drunkenness.

The actor was arrested by Policemen Hartman and Miller early Tuesday wandering in the vicinity of Federal and Mississippi avenues, Sawtelle.

"Filled to the gills," the law guardians explained to the desk sergeant as they booked him at the Sawtelle division. Morrissey posted $20 bail and obtained his release several hours later.

Judge Gray postponed the hearing until yesterday when Morrissey did not appear in court Wednesday, but finally ordered the bail forfeited.

EXAMINATIONS SET

State Real Estate Board examinations will be held June 13. There is still opportunity to enroll for classes in real estate at the University of California, extension division. Out of 165 persons who passed the April examinations, 77 had taken instruction at the University of California extension division, according to George Shaw of the State Real Estate Board.

Clerk Held as Theft Suspect

John White, clerk, 27 years of age, was arrested yesterday by Detective Lieutenants Gerhardt and Driscoll and accused of being one of the two men who entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Slusher, 1717 Virginia Road, on the night of April 15, last, and robbed the Slushers and their guests of $14,000 in gems.

White was identified by pictures in police records. The two men entered the house by posing as prohibition officers. The police are conducting a search for the other.

ACADEMY HONORED BY MAYOR

Harvard Military School Receives Flag for Part in City Hall Dedication

Mayor Cryer yesterday presented a silk flag to cadets of the Harvard Military Academy as a token of appreciation of their part in City Hall dedication ceremonies.

The presentation took place on the drill grounds of the academy at Venice Boulevard and Western avenue, and was witnessed by several hundred persons. In presenting the colors, the Mayor praised the cadets and their officers for their splendid military bearing and the precision with which they performed their intricate maneuvers, adding that the academy is an institution of which Los Angeles and the whole State may justly be proud.

The colors were received on behalf of the academy by Cadet Major Seggerman, who made a brief speech, in which he expressed the appreciation of the commanding officers, the cadets and everyone connected with the institution for the gift.

Music was provided by the cadet band and a review followed the presentation ceremony.

GOLDEN WEDDING OBSERVED

Mr. and Mrs. James Cleveland, formerly residents of Iowa, recently celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home in Culver City at 6321 Patricia street. In observance of the anniversary, the couple's two daughters and their families as well as a number of friends were present.

FINANCE DEALS RELATED

Ex-Director of Western Mutual Testifies in Grand Theft Trial to Borrowings

Thomas W. Simmons, a former director of the Western Mutual Finance Company, Inc., yesterday took the stand in his own defense in Superior Judge Hardy's court where he is being tried with Fred L. Rounsevell, president of the company, on a charge of grand theft of company funds.

Simmons testified at length regarding expenditures he asserts he made in preparing a tract of land in Placer county for subdivision. He and Rounsevell are accused of borrowing $117,000 on a tract of land which they purchased for $53,000, through a subsidiary corporation controlled by Rounsevell. In their defense they contend that the money was borrowed upon the understanding that the land would be retailed at a high figure.

When defense attorneys Arthur Veitch, R. L. McNitt and J. George Ohannesian finished questioning Simmons, Ben J. Scheinman and James P. Costello, deputy district attorneys, questioned him at length regarding his transactions with Rounsevell and the Western Mutual Finance Company.

Closing testimony is expected to be taken today and the case probably will go to the jury early next week, according to Dep. Dist.-Atty Scheinman.

VETERANS TO MEET

The monthly meeting of the Thirty-third Division Veterans' Association will be held the evening of the 22nd inst., in the armory of the One Hundred and Sixtieth Infantry in Exposition Park. The division, which had a very fine record in France and Belgium, has about 100 members in Southern California. The veterans will have mess with the officers of the One Hundred and Sixtieth, after which they will inspect the armory.

GIRL SCOUTS TO GET AWARDS TOMORROW

The Los Angeles Council of Girl Scouts, in co-operation with the Community Chest, of which it is a participating agency, will celebrate its third annual court of awards tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of the Virgil Junior High School. Following a play to be presented by Girl Scout Troop No. 29, Dean Helen Matteson Laughlin, commissioner, assisted by Mrs. Clark Miller, will present merit badges, a banner and the commissioner's cup. Miss Vaal Stark, regional director of the big trees district, which includes California, Washington and Oregon, will present letters of commendation. Mrs. Laughlin, E. B. De Groot, head of the Los Angeles Boy Scouts' organization, and Mrs. Edith Swarts, director of the Los Angeles Council of Girl Scouts, will speak.

CAMERA WEEK DATE SET

National camera week will be observed beginning the 20th inst. The week will be supported locally with numerous and attractive displays of snapshots and enlargements in windows of dealers giving photo service, the purpose being to remind the individual that the season for most advantageous use of the camera is just ahead.

Aviation Editor Honored by Frat

CARL A BUNDY.

Following the established custom of selecting an active business man from the Pacific Coast each year as an associate member of the fraternity, Alpha Delta Sigma, national advertising fraternity, has chosen Carl A. Bundy of the Los Angeles Advertising Club and president of the Carl A. Bundy Quill and Press. He will be initiated on the occasion of the installation of a new chapter at the University of Southern California on the 23rd inst. in Students' Union.

The University of Oregon, University of Washington, Washington State, Oregon State and University of California all have chapters. Seven Trojan students are to form the chapter at U.S.C.

Bundy is editor and publisher of a new publication known as the Airline News, covering the interests and activity of aviation.

TRACK HEARING SET

The City Council on June 15 will hear the application of the Santa Fe Railroad for a spur track permit to cross Tenth avenue northerly of Sixty-seventh street.

TRAFFIC SIGNALS ASKED

THE EVERGREEN PLAYGROUND

LONGVIEW
one of the most talked about cities in America!

IN FIVE YEARS... from nothing to twelve thousand population... with boulevards like Paris... with a hotel set like a king's palace in its own gardens... with golf course and wondrous city parks... with beauty and artistry in plan and structure against a background of notable industrial development, including the largest lumber plants in the world.

LONGVIEW is indeed a marvelous city, and so a vacation in the EVERGREEN PLAYGROUND is not complete without a visit in LONGVIEW, its southern gateway.

LONGVIEW has plenty for you to see and do... a dramatic spectacle of city building — a trip through great lumber plants where special provision has been made for visitors; golfing, fishing, canoeing — a day's wonder trip of gorgeous scenery and historic interest via excursion steamer on the famed COLUMBIA... and LONGVIEW is now one of four gateways to RAINIER NATIONAL PARK, on a direct route to the cities of PUGET SOUND and BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Come North this summer to the Evergreen Playground of Puget Sound and British Columbia...
See ALL of the Pacific Coast!

If you are going East, ask your ticket agent to route you one way via "The Evergreen Playground." From California the through rate by steamer here, and then eastbound, is the same as your direct fare East. The all-rail trip via the northern lines is only slightly higher.

Our free illustrated booklet, "The Evergreen Playground," will assist you in planning your trip and vacation "Under Two Flags" more easily. Mail the coupon today.

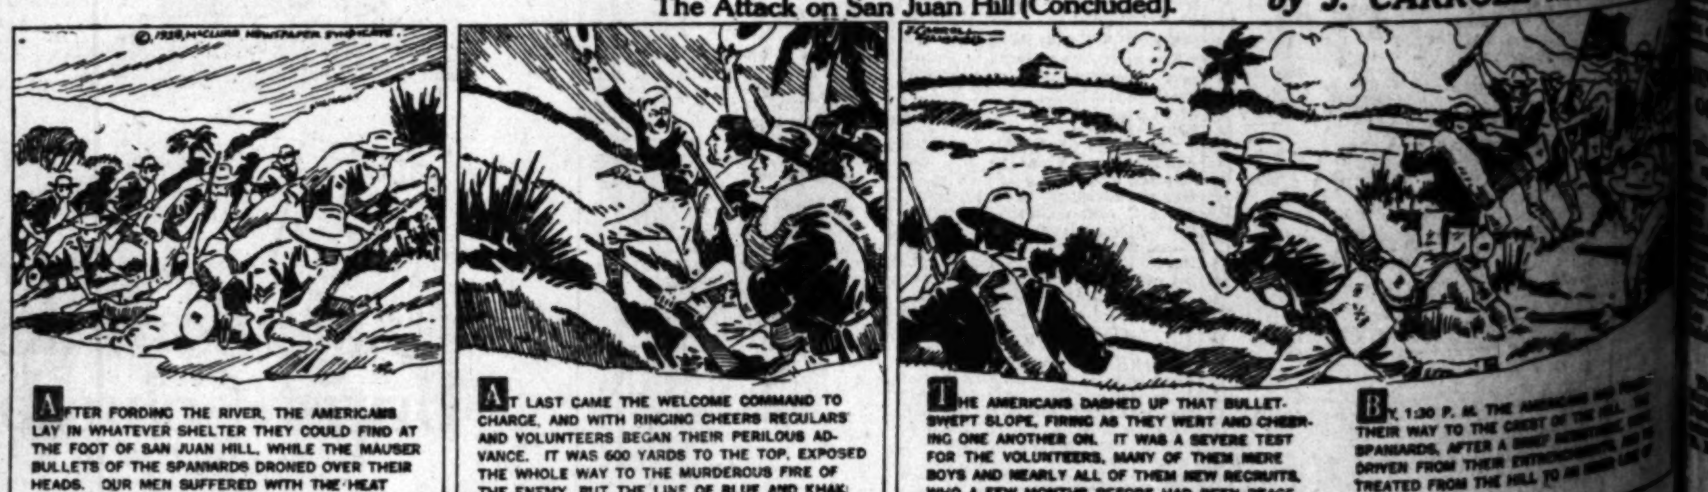
OUR HISTORY IN PICTURES 1032

The Story of Our War With Spain.
The Attack on San Juan Hill (Concluded).

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD



AFTER FORDING THE RIVER, THE AMERICANS LAY IN WHATEVER SHELTER THEY COULD FIND AT THE FOOT OF SAN JUAN HILL, WHILE THE MAUSER BULLETS OF THE SPANIARDS DRONED OVER THEIR HEADS. OUR MEN SUFFERED WITH THE HEAT AND WERE IMPATIENT TO ADVANCE.

AT LAST CAME THE WELCOME COMMAND TO CHARGE, AND WITH RINGING CHEERS REGULARS AND VOLUNTEERS BEGAN THEIR PERILOUS ADVANCE. IT WAS 600 YARDS TO THE TOP, EXPOSED THE WHOLE WAY TO THE MURDEROUS FIRE OF THE ENEMY, BUT THE LINE OF BLUE AND KHAKI NEVER FALTERED.

THE AMERICANS DASHED UP THAT BULLET-SWEPT SLOPE, FIRING AS THEY WENT AND CHEERING ONE ANOTHER ON. IT WAS A SEVERE TEST FOR THE VOLUNTEERS, MANY OF THEM WERE BOYS AND NEARLY ALL OF THEM NEW RECRUITS, WHO A FEW MONTHS BEFORE HAD BEEN PEACEFULLY ENGAGED IN CIVILIAN OCCUPATIONS.

BY 1:30 P. M. THE AMERICANS HAD THEIR WAY TO THE CREST OF THE HILL SPANIARDS, AFTER A BRIEF DRIVEN FROM THEIR ENTRENCHMENTS, TREATED FROM THE HILL TO AN DEFENSE.

Co-eds of U.S.C. Meet Stanford in Debate Today

Co-ed debaters from the University of Southern California will attempt to keep their perfect forensic record intact when they meet one of the Stanford University co-ed teams in Porter Hall on the local campus at 8 p.m. today. At the same time Trojan-Stanford contest will take place at Palo Alto.

KATHERINE BAILEY

Katherine Bailey and Miriam Olden will support the affirmative of the question, "Resolved that the American investor and his investments should be protected only by the government in which the investment is made." They will debate at home in the dual contest, Rose Brecher and Violet Crosbie coming south to meet them.

On the Stanford campus Eleanor Veale and Elizabeth Henninger will support the negative side of the same question for Southern California. Debating as an organized activity for co-eds has been in operation for the first time this year. The Trojan teams have maintained a perfect record so far this season and tonight's contests are the last important ones of the season.

Domestic Trade Expert Chosen to Head Bureau

E. F. MacDonough, domestic trade commissioner, has been appointed manager of the domestic trade department of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, according to an announcement from Secretary Arnoll. MacDonough will take office the 21st inst. and will succeed Seward C. Simons, now secretary-manager of the City Products Institute of California.

E. F. MACDONOUGH

Mr. MacDonough has a broad and varied experience in Chamber of Commerce work, in which he has been engaged sixteen years. He was Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce at Santa Barbara for four years, also secretary of the reconstruction and rehabilitation committee of that city following the earthquake.

During the past year, as domestic trade commissioner of the local organization, Mr. MacDonough made a number of surveys of sections within the Los Angeles trade territory.

Board Assigns Directors for County Parks

Assignment of twenty-three playground directors, recently examined by the civil service board, was approved by the Board of Park Commissioners yesterday, shortly before that body left on an inspection trip of the Santa Monica Canyon park to arrange space to park 200 automobiles. Some of the directors were reassigned to playgrounds nearer their homes.

The assignments follow:

Grant V. Jenkins, chief director Downey playground; Nicholas M. Balseff, chief director, Fifty-third and Compton; William J. Gallagher, chief director, Central; Ralph Borelli, chief director, Exposition Park; Ernest M. Hale, chief director, Slauson; Thomas Shraley, chief director, Griffith Park; Rowland R. Rushton, special duty covering vacations of other directors; Laura C. Swartz, chief director, Verdugo; Ross J. McKee, director at Fort MacArthur; Sigurd B. Nylander, special duty for picnic parties, municipal sports; Dudley C. Shumway, director, Anderson Memorial; Louis B. Wheeler, part-time director, Recreation Center; Robert Lutton, director, Griffith Park; John D. Bruner, director, Poinsettia and Verdugo; Louis A. Orsatti, director, Hawley; Matthew Martin, director, Yosemite; Thomas M. McDougall, director, Pecan; David Riggs, director, Wall Street; Percy Gilbert, director, South Park; Grace Wright, director, Harvard; Frances C. Robb, part-time director, Recreation Center.

Mrs. Mildred Van Werdam, director of Yosemite Playground, is to be assigned as director of girls' activities, it was announced. She will be under Supervisor John C. Henderson.

Traffic Chiefs Name Simpson as President

Concluding the most successful convention in its seven-year history the Western Traffic Managers' Conference yesterday selected Seattle for their next meeting in May, 1929, and installed the following officers: Edward Simpson, traffic manager of the Broadway Department Store, Los Angeles, president; W. H. Strauss of the City of Paris, San Francisco, first vice-president; D. B. Lewis of Portland, second vice-president, and J. E. Peck of San Francisco, secretary-treasurer.

Resolutions were adopted objecting to proposed increase of rates for port charges. It was pointed out that any increase, especially at young, growing ports, would work a hardship on development. Los Angeles Harbor was not named in the resolution, but proposed increases there in rental charges for steamship companies, fees for truck companies and other use of the city wharfage were discussed.

LIONS ELECT TODAY

Election of officers and directors for the ensuing year will be the principal business at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Los Angeles Lions Club in the Biltmore at noon today. President Carpenter will preside.

JAIL TERM IMPOSED ON DRY AGENT

Prohibition Scouts Ought to "Hold Legion," Judge Sheldon Rules

Federal prohibition undercover agents who can't "hold their liquor" have no business following that vocation, Municipal Judge Sheldon ruled yesterday when he sentenced James F. Mather, dry agent, to thirty days in the City Jail for being intoxicated.

A jury found Mather guilty after deliberating ten minutes and the sentence was imposed. No notice of appeal was given by Attorney N. J. Kendall, representing the defendant, and Mather was removed to jail by Bailiff Brenlinger.

Sergts. Hill and Kailey testified they were summoned to 5405 York Boulevard by C. V. Teschan on April 17, last, to arrest a drunken man. Mather had been creating a disturbance, Teschan said, but had driven away. The officers caught him at Avenue 54 and York Boulevard, in his machine and they reported that in the automobile was found a pint of liquor and two bottles of ginger ale. The officers arrested Mather on suspicion of driving while intoxicated, but the charge was reduced to a misdemeanor.

In his defense Mather said he had just purchased several drinks of liquor from a blind pig with a view to raiding it hours later.

Dave De Hoog, 4873 Eldred street, substantiated the testimony of Teschan. He said Mather entered his business establishment under the influence of liquor and caused an uproar.

WOMEN GIVE PROGRAM AS BAR MEETS

Portias of Lawyers' Club Win First Recognition of Fair Sex as Legal Unit

Featuring a program presented by the Women Lawyers' Club, the Los Angeles Bar Association held its regular monthly meeting last night in the Chamber of Commerce.

The program was declared unique, because it was the first conducted by women before the bar association and the first formal recognition of women attorneys as a group in the country.

Mrs. Clara Shortridge Foltz, the first woman admitted to practice law in California and sister of Senator Shortridge, told the hundreds gathered at the meeting of her struggle to have the California Constitution changed so that women might become attorneys, and of the help she was later able to give to further the advancement of women.

"Women must think on questions of law and government in these days to be proper companions to their husbands," asserted Mrs. Foltz. She also told her audience that she was writing her experiences as a pioneer woman lawyer and expected soon to have them published.

Other speakers and their subjects were Miss Elizabeth Kenney, "Highlights on Inheritance Tax Laws;" Mrs. J. F. Mead, past president of the Hollywood Woman's Club, who discussed Europe as it was twenty-five years ago, and as it appeared to her recently; Miss Lloy Galpin, vice-president of the Business and Professional Women's Club, "Woman in Business and Industry."

Mrs. Edna Covert Plummer, president of the Women Lawyer' Club, presided. The reception committee included six past presidents of the club—Miss Florence Bischoff, Mrs. Mab Copeland Lineman, Miss Flora Belle Nelson, Miss Josephine Stevenson, Miss Caroline Kellogg and Miss Constance Leitch.

OPERA DRIVE LUNCHEON ARRANGED

Work of Recruiting Set Group of Founders Will be Discussed

Workers in the Los Angeles Grand Opera Association's campaign for 5000 founder members will gather at a luncheon-meeting at the Biltmore at 12:30 p.m. today to discuss ways and means of recruiting the desired founder memberships. President Gurney E. Newlin will preside, and Benjamin F. Bledsoe, its honorary vice-president, will be the chief speaker.

Each founder member's name will be inscribed in a permanent book of founders of the Los Angeles Grand Opera Association.

Among those who have become founder members are Douglas Fairbanks, Joseph M. Schenck, Cecil B. De Mille, William C. De Mille, Clara Beranger and Rupert Hughes.

Twenty-eight minor roles in the ten grand operas to be presented next season by the Los Angeles Grand Opera Association will be open to members of the local grand opera chorus school, Director Pietro Cimini announced last night.

Herb Wiedoeft Burial Today

Funeral services for Herb Wiedoeft, noted Los Angeles musician, who died in an Ashland (Or.) hospital on the 13th inst., as a result of an automobile accident, will be conducted from Pierce Brothers chapel, 720 West Washington street, at 10 a.m. today. The Masonic services will be used. Interment in Inglewood Cemetery will be in charge of Los Angeles Lodge, No. 99, B.P.O.E.

Mr. Wiedoeft, who had been a resident of Los Angeles since 1904, came here from Detroit. He had a national reputation as a musician and orchestra leader and at the time of his death was on a tour of the Pacific Coast. His bride of six weeks, who survives him, was with him at the time of his death. Herb, Jr., a son by a former marriage, was with Mr. Wiedoeft's mother in Los Angeles.

MORE POISON IN RANDOLPH CASE

New Autopsy Reveals Arsenic on Woman's Skin

Disclosure Causes Delay of Husband's Hearing

Further Study to be Made by Prosecutors

An unexpected turn of events in the investigation of the circumstances surrounding the death of Mrs. J. W. Randolph resulted yesterday in the postponement of the preliminary hearing of J. W. Randolph, who is being held on a charge of murdering his wife. At the same time it appeared possible that the case will not be brought to trial.

Just before the scheduled opening of the hearing yesterday morning before Municipal Judge Stafford, County Autopsy Surgeon Wagner and County Chemist Abernathy held a hurried conference with Dep. Dist.-Attys. Thoms and Menzies. A conference between the deputies and H. H. Harris, attorney for Randolph, followed.

ARSENIC ON SKIN

When court opened Menzies explained to Judge Stafford that one of the surprising results obtained in the second autopsy on the body of Mrs. Randolph Wednesday was that arsenic was found on the skin of the body. Confronted with this situation, the experts wished to have a few more days for their examination to determine, if possible, the source of this new arsenic.

The first autopsy had taken into consideration the vital organs only and was peroformed about a month ago. At that time, the Coroner reported, arsenic was found in the intestines.

"In fairness, not only to ourselves but to the defendant, also, we would like to have a few more days' time in which to complete our examination and determine a course of action," said Menzies. Judge Stafford set the case over until next Tuesday morning.

FAIRNESS EMPHASIZED

Following the adjournment of court, Thoms said the State wishes to be fair in the matter.

"If we think this man is innocent or if this new discovery of the chemists throws any doubt on our evidence, we certainly will not ask even for a preliminary hearing. On the other hand, if we are still convinced that our case is good, we shall go ahead with it."

Another new phase crept into the case yesterday when Asst. U. S. Atty. Redwine appeared at the District Attorney's office and made a demand for the custody of Randolph. The prisoner faces a hearing in the Federal court in San Francisco on the 29th inst., on a charge of conspiracy to misuse the mails. Thoms pointed out to the Federal attorney that the county of Los Angeles cannot afford to release Randolph from custody at the present status of the case.

Banker to Tell of Mission Call

E. O. Rice, the banker who turned missionary, will tell his story of why he voluntarily left the banking business to enter religious work in an address to be given Sunday at 11 a.m. at the Trinity Missionary Church, corner of Hobart Boulevard and Lemon Grove avenue.

EDWARD O. RICE

For a number of years Mr. Rice was vice-president of the First National Bank of St. Paul and later was vice-president of the Highland Park State Bank and the Bank of Detroit. Mr. Rice recently left the banking business to devote the remainder of his life to the interest of missionary work. He expects to sail for the Orient early next year in behalf of the Oriental Missionary Society.

SCHEDULE OF F.B.O. TO BE RECORD

Program of Production for Year Will Surpass Previous Output

Joseph P. Kenndy, president of F.B.O., yesterday announced what he declares to be the greatest production program of the corporation's history. The company is to produce for its 1928-29 program sixty features and five series of short subjects. Kennedy's announcement here was coincident with F.B.O.'s annual sales convention at Chicago.

Not only will F.B.O. make more feature productions than ever before, but the number of specials has been increased to six, with a series of six Tom Mix super-westerns, twenty-four Gold Bond productions, seven westerns starring Tom Tyler, seven westerns starring Buzz Barton, the juvenile riding ace; six "youth and adventure" action pictures starring Bob Steele and four productions featuring Ranger the "wonder dog."

Tom Mix will return to the Hollywood studios of F.B.O. to make his series instead of going to the Argentine. His return will follow the completion of a vaudeville tour the end of this month. The six specials will be taken from well-known books and novels, while the Gold Bond series are to be taken from magazines and prize winning stories.

Announcement was also made last night at F.B.O. confirming E. F. Albee's statement that Kennedy has become associated with him in the conduct of the Keith-Albee-Orpheum circuit of theaters, as president and chairman of the board. His election as chairman was brought about by Kennedy's acquisition, in association with a group of prominent bankers, of an important interest in the circuit.

Tests Will be Taken Today by 5000 Boy Scouts

To determine their efficiency in Scoutcraft, 5000 Boy Scouts of Los Angeles will undergo tests all day tomorrow at Loyola Field, at the same time striving for the award of a large hand-carved plaque, presented by the American Legion, and the honor of possessing the Scout commissioner's flag for one year.

The events will begin at 9:30 a.m. and continue until late in the day. Scores of judges will examine the Scouts. The Standard Oil Company has assigned sixteen experts to score 398 teams of four boys each in first aid.

The afternoon tests will be preceded by a mass ceremonial of all the Scouts, with a color guard of 300. All Scouts then will reaffirm their Scout oath for the year.

The events originally were scheduled for Manual Arts Field but announcement was made yesterday of the change to Loyola.

OLD ENCINO CLUB LANDS PURCHASED

High-Class Subdivision to Adjoin Country Resort; $2,500,000 to be Spent

The 721 acres which include the Encino Country Club and golf course are in process of being taken over by a group of Los Angeles capitalists, who plan rehabilitation of the original enterprise and the expenditure of about $2,500,000 in the undertaking, it was announced yesterday by Victor H. Norman, who bought the property after the first scheme and improvement became defunct.

The 2000 members of the club, which has been closed for a year, have consented to the new arrangement, Mr. Norman said yesterday, and will be taken care of with non-initiation fee membership in the new club and the privilege of purchasing cabin sites on practically a cost basis.

The property lies on both the north and south sides of Ventura Boulevard, in the heart of the San Fernando Valley, and extends to the mountain tops, where it adjoins the acreage of the new Botanic Gardens. It is a scant half-mile from the projected Sepulveda Boulevard, which will cross the Santa Monica range from Ventura Boulevard to Sawtelle. It also closely adjoins the Gen. Sherman acreage, which was purchased almost a year ago by Bundy & Albright for $1,700,000, and is the first real estate deal of great magnitude in the valley since that purchase.

An entirely new eighteen-hole golf course is to be laid out by William P. Bell, golf architect, and the clubhouse, lake and swimming pool are to be retained, Mr. Norman said.

The new owners, whose names are not revealed, plan a high-class residential subdivision, according to Mr. Norman, with the installation of paved streets, curbs, walks and public utility facilities. These improvements, Mr. Norman said, are to be made in accordance with requirements of the City Planning Commission and will average about $2700 to the acre.

The original subdivision put on in 1926 was short-lived. It gave the purchaser of a membership in the country club the privilege of selecting a site in the hill lands for a cabin, but no titles, according to Mr. Norman, were ever issued. Last week there was a meeting of the cabin-site owners, who had installed improvements, and their acquiescence to the new arrangement was obtained.

In the new plan all of the original club membership purchasers will have the privilege of selecting a cabin site, if they have not already done so, but will have to pay for it on a basis of 17 cents for the square foot. The club and new subdivision acreage will have a new name, Mr. Norman said.

SHRUB PLANTING PLANNED

The San Fernando Valley Daughters of the American Revolution plan to plant a boxed shrub from George Washington's home at Mt. Vernon in Brand Park on the 26th inst. Permission for the organization to do so was asked of the park board yesterday by Mrs. Marie A. Dial. The request was referred to Supt. Shearer for action.

CEMENT PLANT DENOUNCED

Santa Monica Realty Board Fights Proposal and Residents Organize to Combat It

Among other protests voiced at a meeting last night of the municipal affairs committee of the University branch of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce against the proposed establishment of a cement plant in the Santa Monica Bay district, the Realty Board of Santa Monica presented the committee with a resolution opposing the project.

The resolution was introduced by directors of the Santa Monica organization and it protested against the establishment of any industry in the district, especially the proposed cement plant. Copies of the document were mailed to city authorities involved in the proposition, and the branch of the Chamber of Commerce took it under advisement.

DISADVANTAGES CITED

Judge A. R. Weber, representing the Miramar Estates, attacked the proposed industrial development on the grounds that the noise of blasting, increased industrial traffic and other undesirable factors would hinder the development of the area into a desirable residential district.

Judge Weber asserted the establishment of the cement plant would open the way for further industrial development in the district, do irreparable damage to adjacent property and break down the prestige of the area, a healthy and desirable residence community. He said a permit issued under the belief that it could be revoked if the plant proved undesirable would be "childish."

OPPONENTS ORGANIZE

Yesterday residents and property owners in the district near the proposed location of the 2500-barrel-a-day cement plant, rock crusher, brick and tile manufactory and attendant industries formed two organizations to combat the move.

Petitions from the organizations are in circulation for presentation to the City Council, the City Planning Commission and other municipal authorities who will hold a to the City Council for the hearing before the City Planning Commission on the 28th inst.

LOYOLA PROGRAM SETTLED

Committee Completes Details for Ground-Breaking Ceremony in Del Rey Hills on Sunday

Details for the parade and program at the ground-breaking ceremonies at the site of the new $5,000,000 Loyola University in the Del Rey Hills Sunday at 2 p.m. were completed at the meeting of the citizens committee last night.

Arrangements were completed for handling a crowd estimated at 200,000, expected to take part in the turning of the first spade of dirt, which will start work on the new educational structure undertaken by the Jesuit order.

The actual ground breaking will be done by Bishop Cantwell of the diocese of Los Angeles and San Diego, but this impressive portion of the ceremonies will be preceded by a parade participated in by forty-four civic groups, divided into nine divisions, each division headed by a band.

BEGIN ON SUNDAY

The program will begin Sunday morning with solemn high pontifical mass in the Hollywood Bowl, in which 25,000 Knights of Columbus, who will be in State conclave at that time, will participate. Following the mass the Knights will attend the ground-breaking services.

Special arrangements have been made to accommodate the large attendance, and 500 police, including several hundred special officers, have been assigned to handle the traffic. Officers will be placed on the principal routes to the site through Culver City, Santa Monica, Los Angeles and other municipalities. Ambulances and fire equipment will be stationed on the grounds. As a precautionary measure for the protection of automobiles the grass on the vacant areas has been burned and the ground arranged in parking spaces. Several thousand automobiles my be parked in positions above the scene of the ceremonies and spectators will be enabled to witness the program from their cars. Loud speakers will carry the words and music over the 100-acre area.

PARADE OF CLERGY

The ceremony at the site will open with the parade of clergy, in which will march representatives of all religious denominations. This will be followed by the grand parade of civic groups, past the reviewing stand in which will be seated the officials of church and state. The flag-raising ceremony, conducted by the Army, Navy and Marine Corps will follow, then the student body of the university will raise the flag of the institution.

Principal address of the day will be made by Dr. E. C. Moore, president of the University of California, who will address the gathering just preceding the ground-breaking ceremony and address of Bishop Cantwell. Joseph Scott, member of the Board of Regents of Loyola, will make the closing speech.

SHIPPING NEWS
AND ACTIVITIES AT LOS ANGELES HARBOR

PORT GETS NEW FEDERAL OFFICE

Shipping Commissioner Post Authorized

Announcement Given Out by Customs Arm

Start of Operations Fixed for Early July

A full-fledged shipping commissioner's office has been authorized by the United States Department of Commerce for Los Angeles Harbor, it was announced through customs channels yesterday. The creation of such a post comes after several years of modest representations of this port's needs for such a post, and is accepted as another recognition by the Federal government of Los Angeles' arrival as a great maritime port. This is the largest port without such a commissioner, in fact, many smaller ports boast such posts.

The authorization for the new post becomes effective July 1, and it is understood will carry with it appropriations for several clerks, as well as a commissioner.

Who the new commissioner will be is not known. A. L. Woodruff, customs inspector at San Pedro, has been serving as an "acting commissioner" for the last two years. It is understood shipping men would be pleased to see him advanced to the new job, as he is familiar with the post here and is declared to have filled it satisfactorily. He has been an inspector several years and has had previous experience in the American navy.

The commissioner's duties require him to supervise the signing on and paying off of all crews on American ships leaving or arriving in either the foreign or intercoastal service; the settling of disputes between a ship's captain and the men relative to wages, conditions, agreements and such, and the handling of deceased seamen's effects and the like.

Provision for offices is expected to be made in or near the Feri Building, San Pedro, for the present, although permanent quarters will be afforded in the $700,000 Federal Building to be erected as soon as a San Pedro site is selected late this month.

BOOKINGS HEAVY FOR MEDITERRANEAN CRUISE

Bookings on all-sea voyages from California to the Mediterranean continue heavy, the Italian motor liner Rialto being scheduled to sail from here the 21st inst. with more than forty travelers for Marseilles and Genoa.

Passengers include Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. McIntosh and son of Redlands, who will attend the Olympic Games in Europe; Misses Fulvia Raffaelli and Angelina Oddone, to study music and painting in Florence; Misses Margaret Johnston and Winifred Garlock, university students, to perfect their French in Paris; O. D. Meade, owner of the Park Lane Apartments in Los Angeles, with Mrs. Meade, on a two-year tour of Europe; Mrs. Ida M. Garland and Mrs. Marcia Van Dyke of Santa Barbara to study European social work, and Misses Virginia Reed and Charlotte Andrews of Beverly Hills.

Also booked by the Los Angeles office to sail from Beaumont, Tex., on the Libera liner Piave the 25th inst., are Count Mario Cariccioli, Italian cavalry captain recently in Hollywood films; Camillo Ghezzi, Swiss engineer, and Mrs. T. H. Dorre, returning to her home in Nice, France.

The Korea Maru disembarked thirty-six passengers and dropped 1000 tons from Yokohama yesterday and will sail on her return today after taking on 135 passengers and 1000 tons of Southland freight. She is commanded by Capt. S. Akiyoshi, former master of the Ginyo Maru.

The British tanker Scottish Minstrel yesterday completed a fourteen-day, $20,000 overhaul to her Diesel engines at the Los Angeles shipyards and passed her trial run at sea. She will load and depart today for Buenos Aires under charter to G. W. McNair of San Francisco. W. H. Wickersham represents her owners, Tankers, Limited.

Capt. Curt Zastrow will take his first vacation since 1906 when his liner, Ecuador, out yesterday, reaches San Francisco today. He will remain ashore during one round voyage of the Panama Mail liner to the east coast. Capt. Ted Oaks will take the Ecuador's bridge, and will be relieved on the motor liner City of San Francisco by Walter N. Princle, first mate on the Venezuela.

The whaling fleet of the California Sea Products Company is reported to be off San Clemente Island on its seasonal quest for mammals, reported in large numbers moving north. The fleet comprises the factory-tanker Lansing and the killers Hawk, Hercules and the Traveler.

One hundred and twenty-five employees of the Los Angeles division of the Union Pacific Railroad Company will tour the harbor today and attend the annual safety conference at East San Pedro. E. E. Cunningham, division superintendent, will present employees at the East San Pedro yard with the district's safety banner for setting the highest accident-prevention record last year.

Fifty-three passengers on the liner San Juan were treated to a view of two big schools of California finback whales while en route from San Francisco yesterday. The ship passed within a stone's throw of several dozen mammals so intent on feeding they ignored the vessel's approach.

Matson Navigation Company is reported contemplating putting its new $6,000,000 liner Malolo on the Australian run out of San Francisco. The ship now runs only to Hawaii.

SALESMEN

If a big, reliable, old corporation were to guarantee you with a permanent future would you give 100% of your time to the position?

$1000.00 PER MONTH

READ THESE FACTS

about the biggest opportunity ever offered you.

We have men inexperienced a short time ago making more than this per month.

Our books show that we have paid to two men in our employ during the past year more money than

THE SALARY OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

more money than the

SALARY OF ANY PRESIDENT OF ANY BANK IN LOS ANGELES.

At least 50 people in our employ at the present rate of earning—will be able to retire comfortably by 1931, or less than 3 years.

We teach you our business.
We help you get started.
We help you keep going.

We do not guarantee your income—that's up to you.

QUIT LOOKING FOR THAT JOB

If you have a car—come in. If you have no car—come in and we will show you how to get one in a hurry.

Splendid opening for you if you can qualify.

ADDITIONAL SALESMEN
7 More Experienced MEN NEEDED
Average earning power of salesmen in this organization: First mo., $150 to $200; 2nd mo., $200 to $225; 3rd mo., $225 to $300 and better; $8 minimum comm. when contract is signed plus 10% comm. on all monthly repeat orders. We sell only on a yearly contract basis. Your permanent earnings increase each month. There is no definite limit to what you can earn. Our high man has been paid in cash $395 per month for the last six months. All of our men work entirely on leads furnished by us. Just think, you call only on prospects who have phoned or written in for more information about our products. What if you had this co-operation in your present or past connection; could you have made more money? The answer is obvious. We are a national organization and make promotions only from the inside to men whose capabilities are more than just salesmen. There are ample opportunities to move into executive positions. Apply 9 to 10 a.m. and 2 to 3 p.m. only

A WOMAN
Can Sell This Property
As Well As a Man

That has already been demonstrated in the first two weeks of our pre-opening reservation period.

When the big advertising campaign starts it will be even more true.

But NOW is the time for saleswomen who own their own cars and are in a position to meet the better class of well-to-do people on even terms to investigate this project.

We have a practical monopoly on the rarest type of property in Southern California. It sells on sight to the kind of people who are always in a position to buy. If you are a real saleswoman see me at once.

WOMEN—
Married or Single

What are you doing with your spare time?

Do you want to get into the business world? A big corporation offers you just this opportunity. We have women inexperienced a short time ago who at their present rate of earning should be able to retire by 1931.

Can you appreciate what a regular income of means?—well many of our women are doing much better than this.

One of our women made approximately

$4000 IN THREE WEEKS

You can make good but we won't come after you.

YOU MUST COME TO US.
WE CAN HELP YOU. WE CAN TEACH YOU OUR BUSINESS. WE CAN HELP YOU GET STARTED. WE CAN HELP YOU KEEP GOING.

But—you must first help yourself by putting everything else aside and calling on Mr. Krotz today.

Use your talents—quit worrrying.

If you are not satisfied with your present position this is your invitation.

We have a splendid opening for you if you can qualify. No car necessary—see

If you have from $500 to $5,000 to pay down on a home

Then—Come To My Office

I am employed to sell Loan Company's equities in some wonderful homes located in Brentwood, Beverly Hills, Beverly Boulevard district west of La Brea, Glendale, Alhambra, Altadena and various parts of Los Angeles.

UNTIL JUNE 5TH

I am the boss and whatever I say on price goes. Every house will be sold if price will do it. Sizes range from 5-room bungalows to 9 rooms with 3 baths.

Profits and costs are forgotten and it's cash that talks NOW.

This is an example:
House No. 336
Built to sell at $16,250

YOURS TODAY FOR
$10,500

REMEMBER

and this is positive. If this group of 16 houses are not sold by June 5th the Loan Company will arrange to carry them for better market, which is already in sight.

It took real work to get a two weeks' contract at my appraiser's valuation. If there is a house in the group that meets your requirements come ready to deal as tomorrow may be too late—AND THIS ISN'T SIMPLY HURRY-UP SALES TALK. It only takes 16 people who have the money to take advantage of this offer and who have the judgment to know a bargain when it is offered.

Pictures and floor plans are at my office so only houses that appeal to you will be shown, thereby saving time in useless search.

The extreme low price I have been authorized to quote does not permit of clerical expense, so it will be necessary that I interview each customer myself, so it will be best to telephone for appointments in order that you will not be kept waiting in the office. No information given over the telephone and brokers please do not call.

DOESN'T KILL SELF

For a long time, a very long time, a yarn has been going the rounds of the natural-history books to the effect that the scorpion, if surrounded by fire, would commit suicide by giving himself a taste of his own medicine. It seems probable, from the age of some of the accounts, that the story originated hundreds of years ago, but according to the best observer who took pains to see what the scorpion actually did when ringed about by such an unusual fence as a circle of fire, the reputation of the scorpion has suffered unjustly, and instead he ought to be credited with considerable smartness for putting up such a good imitation of suicide.

Fabre, who has been called the Homer of insects, had his doubts about the scorpion yarn and went to the trouble of placing several specimens within the storied blazing circle so that he could see just what their reactions were.

In all cases he noted that the scorpion ran about, apparently very much excited, waving its sting around and making movements with it somewhat too rapidly for accurate observation, and finally wound up by tumbling over, motionless and inert, and so far as appearances went, dead.

But, Fabre found that when he had carefully removed the scorpions to a safe place beyond any danger of accidental scorching — they invariably "came to" after a reasonable interval, seemingly none the worse for the experience.

So it seems that what was regarded as suicide on the part of the scorpion was nothing but a sort of "playing possum" or, as Little Elmer suggests, likely enough the ring of fire scared the scorpion stiff.—[Kansas City Star.

DECORATOR IN HOME LECTURE

Mrs. Coler Discusses "Times" House Features

Oriental Rugs Subject of Today's Talk

Last Week of Showing to Begin Sunday

BY VALERIE WATROUS

Bleak north rooms may be made inviting and cheerful if the right hues for walls and draperies are selected, Mrs. Bertha Townsend Coler, graduate decorator of Pacific Palisades, declared yesterday in an informal talk presented to guests of the Los Angeles Times Demonstration Home in Miramar Estates.

That these colors should be among those classed as "warm," and not the chill blues and greens that lurk in the heart of the iceberg, was particularly emphasized. In this connection Mrs. Coler commended the instinctive good taste of women.

"Men decorate a house; women make a home. Here is the real difference between the two attitudes, and it is far greater than appears on the surface," Mrs. Coler declared.

"So much of a woman's time is spent within the walls of her home she is beginning to insist that they reflect her own personality. Indeed, the successful decorator does not force personal likes and dislikes upon the client. Rather the atmosphere is built about the client exactly as the client would do for herself if she had the same training and experience.

ATMOSPHERE ESSENTIAL

"The rooms of a house need unity, balance, harmony, restfulness, charm, hospitality, and that indefinable something we call atmosphere. Unity comes first since walls, hangings, furniture, rugs, lamps and shades, those attributes which make a home of a house, must be unified, or pulled together. I do not mean by this that they should be matched up any more than that the different members of the household should be alike, but they must harmonize and still retain their own individuality."

Mrs. Coler declared she speaks from the years of experience she has had in equipping homes in New York, where she was associated with one of the prominent interior-decorating studios. Since she established her studio in the administration building of the Pacific Palisades six years ago she has become widely known for the quality and character of her work

It was because of her reputation for artistic achievement that she was given the commission for the hangings and minor accessories in The Times Demonstration Home.

TODAY'S PROGRAM

Mrs. Coler's talk yesterday was the second of a series to be given in the home. The third and last will be presented next Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The entertainment program today includes an interesting organ recital presented by Miss Marion Rouzie on the Artcraft pipe organ, and a talk by N. S. Hanief, oriental rug dealer at Manhattan and Wilshire, who provided the many beautiful rugs now in the home.

Mr. Hanief will speak at 3 o'clock in the living-room. He has promised an interesting discussion of Persian rugs, their history and the outstanding characteristics of the different types. He has made the subject a life study, and has been supplying floor coverings to the better homes in Los Angeles for the past thirty years.

In planning the programs presented to visitors at the Demonstration Home the thought of their educational value has been kept in mind. Each afternoon a speaker, prominent in his or her own field, is presented. These talks are informal and rarely exceed the twenty minutes to which the speaker is limited.

TO ENTER LAST WEEK

The Times Demonstration Home will enter upon the last week of its showing next Sunday. It was built with the object of presenting the most modern in home construction to the public of Southern California. It has been lavishly furnished with beautiful hangings, handsome rugs, pictures from the studios of famous artists, distinctive hand-made furniture in the Spanish mood, and rare antique objects of art dating back into the fifteenth century.

The home is built in the Miramar Estates overlooking the sea and Santa Monica Bay. It is most easily reached by the Beverly Boulevard route, which should be followed to a point within 1000 feet of where it meets the sea. The turn-off to the right is marked by many Miramar Estates signs, and the road up to the home is one of easy grades and is well paved.

Flood Victims Monument to be Dedicated

In the little old San Francisquito graveyard, not far from the broken wall of the St. Francis dam, the monument that has been given by Newhall cowboys will be dedicated tomorrow at 3 p.m., to the memory of those who lost their lives in the flood disaster of March 13.

The service will be conducted by the shepherd of the hills, Rev. W. H. Evans. More than 200 children will salute the flag and sing "America." William S. Hart, motion-picture actor, will preesnt a hero medal to Louis Rivera, 14 years of age, who rescued his two little sisters from the flood waters.

H. Clay Needham, who has mingled with people of the valley forty years, will deliver the eulogy. P. A. Neufeld, principal of the Saugus school, who lost fourteen of his pupils in the flood, will offer prayer. Mrs. A. G. Thicaudeau and Mrs. J. C. Haskell will present the memoriam. Mrs. Edith Land and Mrs. Richard Johnsoc will sing and Mrs. Margaret Quinn, who lost four members of her family, will place a wreath on the monument in memory.

Because of their small size, horses raised in Iceland are being shipped to coal mines of England and to small farms in Denmark.

"PIDDLING" NEW PASTIME OF STUDENTS

Seekers of Learning Take to Latest U.C.L.A. Sports

Not on Regular Program But Interesting Just the Same

Walter Furman, Helen Austin and Marion Walker watch George Keefer and Joe George play newest game on campus.

"PIDDLING" is the latest sports game at the University of California at Los Angeles. It isn't an official course on the physical education curriculum nor has it been entered in any intercollegiate sports meets but it is forming the basis for an annual tournament.

Since the Southern Campus, the U.C.L.A. annual, went to press last week, editors of the book have been hunting for a convenient outlet for exuberance and now instead of pounding typewriters they are batting a tennis ball back and forth over a board nailed across a table in the Southern Campus office. No rackets or bats are being used.

No professionals are allowed in the Southern Campus tournament. A fee of 2 cents is exacted of all players, and matches must be completed this week. To date, George Keefer, manager of the tournament, is champion.

BREAK FROM FEDERATION FROWNED ON

District Committee of Women's Clubs Advises State Harmony Effort

The Los Angeles district of the Federation of Women's Clubs will not break with the State organization, if the special convention which has been called to meet June 22 at the Pasadena Shakespeare Clubhouse follows the advice of the district executive committee, which met yesterday at the call of Mrs. William W. Slayden, district president, to consider the proposed break.

"The Los Angeles district feels that it was very badly treated at the recent convention in San Diego," said Mrs. Slayden last night, "but it was the consensus of opinion that it is best to allow the State Federation to work out something, possibly at the meeting next year, which will be acceptable. We believe that we should stay with the State Federation and that by doing so we eventually will be fairly treated."

All members of the district executive committee, with the exception of the county chairmen of Inyo and San Luis Obispo counties, who are seldom able to attend, were present at the meeting yesterday, Mrs. Slayden said.

Difficulties between the State Federation and the Los Angeles district came to a head at the recent convention when revision of by-laws, proposed by the Los Angeles district and favored by the State committee, was voted down by the convention.

Refrigeration Concern Opens Sales Service

Announcement was made yesterday by Eddie Brewer, representative of the Electro-Kold Corporation of Spokane, Wash., of the establishment of a local sales organization to handle their domestic apartment-house and commercial installation in Southern California with headquarters on Seventh street.

EDDIE BREWER

Mr. Brewer has just returned from a trip of inspection of the factory and other branches and reports a very active demand for electrical refrigeration.

The Electro-Kold factory is running to full capacity and has just started extensive improvements which will more than double their capacity within the next few months.

SILVERWOODS PLAY HOST

Silverwoods entertained as their guests a large gathering of Beta Phi Sigma Fraternity members at a rally and smoker Tuesday evening in the music room of the Biltmore. A feature of the evening was an advance style show given through the courtesy of Hart, Schaffner & Marx. Frank Jesse was in charge of the review. Definite announcements were made concerning the Beta Phi Sigma Fraternity convention activities at San Diego July 19, 20 and 21.

SYCAMORE GIFT OF MEXICO

Forest of Fame Tree Planting Set for Tomorrow; Cultural Mission Will Attend

Mexico will be the first foreign country to be represented in the Forest of Fame of the California Botanic Gardens, it was announced yesterday by Frederic W. Taylor, managing director of the gardens. Tomorrow at 4 p.m. with members of the Mexican Cultural Mission as special guests, Mexican Consul Pesqueira duly authorized by President Calles, will plant a tree there in the name of the Mexican government. It will be a sycamore tree native both to California and Mexico and will be the twenty-ninth tree in the grove.

In addition to the Mexican educators, Susan M. Dorsey, Superintendent of Schools, and several members of the Board of Education will be in attendance. Taylor will give an address of welcome to the neighbors from the south, to which Prof. Federico E. Mariscal, heading the group, will reply.

SCHOOLS STUDIED

Left somewhat to their own devices, the Mexican educators yesterday morning scattered far and wide over the city on visits to the schools, which specialize in their own particular interests. They started at an early hour to seek out the technical, commercial, primary, teachers', blind, industrial, art, intermediate and advanced schools, where the entire morning was spent in an interchange of ideas with local teachers and observation of Los Angeles methods in actual operation.

As guests of Louis B. Mayer, the afternoon was devoted to a tour of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios for the study of the making of motion pictures. Members of the mission, witnessing the filming of screen scenes for the first time, expressed amazement at the many technical branches of the industry as they were shown the intricacies of motion-picture production from the packing of the raw film to the finished reel.

VISITORS BEFORE CAMERA

As the members of the delegation were being escorted through the studio grounds motion pictures were made of them, which will be rushed through the developing laboratories and sent to Mexico for exhibition.

Under the guiding eye of Charles A. Cooke, manager of the tourist department of the Chamber of Commerce, the visitors were taken to the Hollywood Hotel for dinner as guests of the chamber and from there they went directly to the performance at the Chinese Theater as Sid Grauman's guests.

Today has been designated as good-will day with special programs at the schools in honor of the mission. In the afternoon there will be a faculty tea on the campus of the University of California at Los Angeles, a visit to the Westwood site and visits to the evening schools of the city.

WILDCAT STAGE MAN FINED

Autoist Who Planned to Take Passengers Found Guilty of Violating City Ordinance

For the third time within a year the "wildcat stage" ordinance was upheld when Municipal Judge Gibbs yesterday found Charles Bealey guilty of carrying passengers for compensation withou tfirst obtaining a permit from the Board of Public Utilities, and fined him $50 or twenty-five days in the City Jail.

Attorney A. C. Webb, counsel for Bealey, contended his client was not regularly engaged in transporting passengers, but had sought to alleviate expenses to San Francisco by chipping in for the cost of gasoline and oil. He appealed to the court that there could be no violation of the ordinance in regard to Bealey since his automobile does not come under the definition of "stage."

Chief Deputy City Prosecutor Eberhard, however, called Judge Gibbs's attention to the number of passengers that have been stranded when irresponsible drivers, not under permit of the Board of Public Utilities, have skipped out after receiving the fares. He cited two recent convictions in the Municipal Court.

Roy W. Vance of the Better Business Bureau testified he paid Bealey $8 for passage to San Francisco after answering the following advertisement: "San Jose-Frisco-Sacramento. Take party. Drive for expenses. Phone—."

In front of the Barbara Hotel, H. R. Reynolds, investigator for the Board of Public Utilities, saw the money passed, he testified. Following the automobile to First and Hoover streets, Reynolds said he placed Bealey under arrest for not having a permit.

Development of Art Ideas Urged by Prof. Pijoan

"Man is very young in the realm of the spiritual. He has only scratched the surface," Prof. Jose Pijoan, celebrated Spanish poet, said in an address before the California Art Club at Barnsdall Park last night. Because of this, he urged the 100 or more artists at the club's monthly dinner to give free rein to any ideas they may have in art.

To him, he said, art is evolving, as is the rest of human activity and the art of any past period is not a standard to be adhered to in any future time. Incidentally, Prof. Pijoan said, music is far behind in keeping progress with human arts. Poetry, he said, leads.

He recently published a work, "Outline of Art," which is attracting considerable attention in the art world. He now is a member of the Pomona College faculty.

SIXTY-FIVE TO TAKE ACCOUNTANCY TEST

Sixty-five candidates are expected to take examinations today for the certificate of certified public accountant under the auspices of the California State Board of Accountancy, in the classrooms of the County Civil Service Commission. The subjects covered are auditing, practical accounting and commercial law and include tests in income-tax procedure, cost accounting, actuarial practice and budgets. The examinations are under the direction of H. Ivor Thomas, C.P.A., and Reynold E. Blight, C.P.A. Success in the examination also carries membership in the American Institute of Accounting.
